Interview with Kenji Kumara

Kenji Kumara

Quantum Healer

Illuminating the State of Grace:
Knowing Yourself Into Perfection

Darius: Hello and welcome, everyone. This is Darius Barazandeh. You're tuning into the You Wealth Revolution. I am very excited. We've had an incredible Intention Circle early on, ten minutes early. What we did, we moved some energy around the heart area, we sent it to your entire body and we sent it out to the planet. And that's really what this session is going to be about is about moving the energy in your body, in your heart space, in your field and in essence allowing you to heal, allowing you to release energy that no longer serves you.

And you're going to learn from our guest Kenji Kumara exactly why that works, what happens and what's been going on with people all over the world who get to use this form of healing. And my mission today – my goal – is not only that you understand it, that you know how it works, but you feel it.

We're going to do a deep activation and we're going to be sharing all of that with you. It's just what you get for joining us and being a part of this. And I want to say this: Kenji's got some incredible updates to share as well with you, so you'll want to tune into that.

There's no doubt that with the right energy in our life we can begin to move in and express ourselves from a deep place of power, from love, from allowance, and there is an eternal peace and there's an internal generator of good divine energy, harmonious energy that is waiting inside of you to come out.

Now, what this brings into your life and what is actually happening in your life, the effects can be astounding. The things that can happen in your life can be magnificent. You'll begin to change things almost instantly. You'll have more freedom, more joy, more peace of mind, more compassion, more of yourself back. Many people report pains going away. Many people report situations clearing up.

So get ready. We're going to be taking that journey with our guest Kenji Kumara. Kenji shares and serves his life as an initiator of the universal quantum energy and is a catalyst for the new earth consciousness. Through his experience and lifelong journey in search of spiritual wisdom, Kenji has discovered in himself - and people have seen it all over the world – a true gift of bringing forth ancient wisdom and life lessons with simplicity, humor and lightness of being.

He also assists others through his energy work and what he does in his activations to enter this temple of the heart and connect with their true essence. Because there is a true essence inside of you; every great sage has said that, and now we have the tools so we can shed what no longer serves us, and he's developed even his own energy healing modality called Quantum Light Weaving.

He has a natural talent for helping us to reach our heart center, the official operating system of our self, and through facilitating activations, meditations, self-empowerment, emergence and spiritual awakening he is going to be for you a visionary today, a way-shower of the now and a channel for ascended masters in being, so your message of truth and light and wisdom and enlightenment comes through on all levels. He's going to also, as he shares this sort of awakening, invite all of us who are ready to consciously experience the full expression of eternal peace in every quantum moment, cell and particle of their being.

So if you're ready, step forward with us into this journey of enlightenment and empowerment with infinite and divine source and Kenji is our guide. He's going to lead us into our higher self so we can release limitations and introduce you to new energies that are all around us right now in a totally unique way.

Let me just read one last quote from Kenji here. He says: 'When you lose yourself in the energy, you don't have to try so hard,' Kenji says.

And people have written in based on Kenji's work all over, who've seen huge differences in their life. One person said: 'I was literally blown away by the meditation, as I've never experienced such a strong energy before. My experience of this work is outside of anything my logical mind can even understand.'

Another person: 'I had such an amazing presence. I immediately, actually long before our talk, felt calm and natural in the presence of spirit and grounded being within me. I felt an amazing global vibrant activation. My ears started buzzing and I even forgot I was speaking English.'

So get ready. This is going to be some powerful stuff. Kenji, welcome back to the You Wealth Revolution, my friend.

Kenji: Hi, Darius, and hi to all of Darius's wonderful friends out there in the world, under the world, above the world. Thank you for having me.

Darius: I love that! That is very cool. And the thing I love about you is every time you're here there's something that you bring forward that shifts the paradigm even more. And I just thought: under the world... Yeah, that's very true. Wow.

I wanted to start out, Kenji... I mean, as we talked privately, you mentioned just your work, your energies, what's happening getting stronger and stronger. Give us kind of an update from the last time you've been here about what's going on with your energy and the work that's coming through you.

Kenji: Okeydokey, we'll do that. We'll try to do that in two short paragraphs. So I'd like everyone please to open the palms of their hands and their feet and begin to receive. So we're going to ask actually everyone that's connected with this call live and in the future, and even in the past, to move beyond your brain and your mind and just simply receive very directly into the core of your being, which is going to automatically translate into your body when you can receive it.

Alright, so the latest update for me personally since... well, let's see. When was I on last? I guess late spring I was on. So many wonderful things besides having wonderful experiences in the retreats we're doing.

We're moving...- this is a collective thing, by the way, so everybody has an opportunity from heaven, has an opportunity to move from doing, doing, doing, doing into being. Now, that being part actually... Okay, so let me back track just one step here. So we move from a place of doing to being, which allows us into that place of knowing. Now, there's a step beyond that but I didn't know if we'll get into it in today's show. But for sure moving into that place of being to where you can be that example of knowing. And knowing means not understanding how you know what you know but being able to act upon it and be that example in the world in very simple ways.

So we're going to give people permission today because, you know, we didn't get it from our parents and usually if we don't get it from our parents we just don't believe it. So we're giving everybody the permission to simply be. Not be any particular kind of spiritualized person that you think you should be, but being you, the authentic, creative, unique you; the you that knows about your soul path; that knows about your journey; that knows why you created your family, your parents, your spouses, etc.; that part of you that knows exactly what you're doing here, because that's the part that's never a victim. That's the part that is the creator.

So I want everyone to just breathe and receive. Begin to breathe in the beingness of you. And you don't have to do anything. This work is so simple it's almost nonexistent. Now, the mind can't even get that statement. You don't want to get that statement.

Darius: Wow.

Kenji: You just want to be able to breathe beingness. Now, here's kind of the neat thing. We still have to do the earth work, but when you come from a place of being you're not struggling with: Oh God, what have I got to do now? And who am I going to hire for this? And: Oh my God, I just lost that person, or my parents just passed away, or whatever it is. We're moving way beyond that to where you can be that compassion, because that compassion is the part of whole human force. And by definition compassion is a blend of wisdom and love, and that's our true nature, which manifests as eternal peace, beyond the brain, beyond the mind.

So we're going to ask you – this may be a little difficult internally – for the next hour and 20 minutes or so just let go of everything that you know. Let go of all your knowledge. Let go of your struggle. Just let go of everything that's happening in your life, what's happening around the world. Just let all of that go because really it doesn't mean anything in the truest sense. And just move into your soul signature, that place within you. That place is non-vocal, by the way, but you can actually feel a resonance in your heart, through your physical heart.

Okay, so the upgrade is moving out of this sense of struggle and trying to figure everything out and into that place of: ah, I am the voyager and I see now and I realize: okay, I'm right here today and this is what I'm doing and I'm doing it from a place of non-doing.

So the big upgrade is from doing to non-doing, which doesn't mean you just sit around and do nothing. It means you go into that place in your awareness where everything is quiet and still and joyful. It's that happy place.

Okay, so second paragraph to Darius's question here. So again it appears just by category, by words, that the shadow aspect of us is present and that's why we're having what we're experiencing. Now, we're going to give you permission not to judge this and especially this thing of: oh, I shouldn't be experiencing this because I'm a spiritual person, or I've got my act together, or I'm a very aware person; why is this happening?

We're moving out of a why? We're actually going to move out of the who am I? place into what am I? So we're going to ask everyone that's connected to this call to be a what? Not a who?, but a what? So we're going to be a bunch of whats in relationship to everybody else's whats.

Now, you're not to logically understand this. Just allow it to manifest in your life and you'll begin to see changes right away. Remember we're non-doing. We're not doing anything. We're not trying to heal our pain. We're not trying to heal our whatever it is. We're not trying to get out of a situation. We're accepting everything as it is and when we do that then it's almost like the fog dissipates immediate and – Oh, there's the sun. Oh, that's me.

Okay, I'm going to take a pause now and Darius can ask... he can continue asking his questions. There's more to that answer but I guess I need another stimulating question to bring the next level forward, still talking about upgrades and what's happening.

Darius: Yeah, and I think each question tends to open up, you know, just another level. So for people that are new – and we have a great bit of the audience that's new – what is the essence of this work? And I know you've mentioned that it's almost so simple that it almost eradicates itself in essence, but there is an essence to what your work does and what your abilities do or what you bring forward through some of the different activations. So what is that essence, Kenji?

Kenji: Okay. So basically we're moving into from being and knowing. The knowing will take us into that place of perfection. So I'm going to challenge everyone today – that includes myself – to see everything as perfect - everything that's going on in your life, that's going on in the lives of everybody that you care about - as absolutely perfect, because there is a knowing that in order for something to shift you have to emotionally energetically accept it as perfect; that there can't be any level of judgment of right or wrong or good or bad or I shouldn't be experiencing this.

Now, we're fast forwarding a bit here. So after the activation, for those of you who go: 'What the heck just happened?' that's really good. And you don't want to go into your logical mind trying to figure out what just happened. You're just going to accept the fact that something really, really unusual is happening and you're going to go with the flow and you're going to allow it to manifest, because the greater power that is you knows exactly how to channel everything in all areas of your life and you just have to get out of the way.

So again the shadow part is basically calling us to just let go of our emotional baggage, to just let go of our resentments, to let go of our doubts, our fears, all of that. Now, that takes practice; it's not something that you could do overnight, but it's like anything: you do it every day; you practice; you meditate; you center; you go work out; you do some kind of activity - I guess you could call it a ritual – that you do every day about the same time that puts you into this place to where you can expand from where you were yesterday. And then pretty soon you go: 'Oh my God, it's like happening automatically and I really don't have to do too much.' See, that's the being at work.

So again the shadow part is just calling forward all that pain and all that suffering from the past and is just saying: 'Just love me. Accept me. And then I can go. I can go on my way. I can lift myself up to prime source.'

So here's the neat thing. So here's what I'm understanding. So we take all of our stuff and we uplift it back to source. We actually take that knowledge, that information, that experience. It's uplifted - you could say by the angels, because they have jobs – they need to do... You know, they can't be playing cards all the time! They need to help you.

Darius: Playing harps!

Kenji: Yeah. So we lift it up to source. We go: 'Okay, I now release this pain. I now release my judgment of myself. And let this go to God so God can record it in the akashic records and now I'm done. I'm done. Thank you very much.'

Darius: Yeah. And that's actually during the activations. I mean, one of the things people respond to is just that feeling of lightness. Is that because some of that emotional energy, some of that stuff that we've been holding onto gets released and let go and back up to source?

Kenji: Yes, exactly, because we've got to remember – and everybody says this and it's true – our natural state, even in this world, is one of lightness. So if you feel heavy in your life whether it's physical weight heavy like 80 pounds overweight or emotional weight in your belly where you go: 'Oh my God, I'm so bloated all the time.' You've got low back pain. All that is just indicators that you are carrying... Okay, so here we go.

Darius: Okay.

Kenji: All of you that are carrying a bunch of people in your body because you care about them, you can let them go now.

Darius: Wow.

Kenji: And I'm dead serious when I say this. You're carrying your parents, your kids, your ex, your lovers, your friends, you're carrying everybody's pain and stuff. Not your job. You can let it go now, okay - I resign. I resign from the Cosmic Enabling Society where we all take on everybody's stuff because we love them and we try to help them. Let that go. It's not your business.

I'll give you an example. So there is someone I know that was carrying a lot of people in her body and she was overweight. And when she realized it and when she got the energetic help, oh, just an immediate shift. And I've got to tell you, one of the people that she was carrying was in the house and he almost fell over on the floor right at that moment of the release. So I'll let you connect the dots.

Darius: Wow.

Kenji: Yeah.

Darius: Wow. And, I mean, the big thing I think that people wonder about – and without getting too much focused on this part – is why is it for some such a challenge? You know, we want this lightness, we want this... Why is it...? Is it overthinking it? Is it just not allowing it to happen? Is it wondering too much whether it's happened when in fact maybe it already has, like a dog chasing its tail?

Kenji: Well, I'm going to answer in a kind of an unusual way here.

Darius: Okay.

Kenji: And many of you on the call are going to nod your heads and go: 'God, he's talking to me.' Oh boy, I'm just getting chills all over my body, so this is definitely relevant.

So, many of you contracted to come into a family situation where you were the only light-bearer because you wanted to bring light into a heavy situation. Now, we're not even talking about karma or anything like that. We're talking about... because from personal experience with my clients they were born into a family where they got abused and you can just imagine what kind of abuse – and these are mostly women – but men experience it too. But they were born into a family to where they got abused and where at some point to accommodate for survival, to just stay alive, they cloaked themselves and did not express their light anymore, and then that's when they began to suffer.

You've got to remember when we're abused it's very difficult to stay open, obviously. So when after a certain amount of years being very young you'll shut down. You'll go into the closet. But at some point you know that you're going to have to come out and begin to recalibrate yourself in everything.

But every baby comes into a family whether it's loving or not loving, dysfunctional, to be the light-bearer. The problem comes in when the parents don't recognize that as an inner knowing and just think of you as just another baby. They don't see you as the light-bearer. They don't see you like a born-again Christ-like..., you know, one day old and - whoa! - this baby's my teacher kind of level, right?

Darius: Right.

Kenji: So that's not recognized. So part... well, I would say a good part of your pain is that, is just that: not realizing that that's what you did. So now you can come out and you can be that light because you're not going to be prosecuted, you're not going to get beaten again, you're not going to be hurt and just because they don't understand you. Okay, so you move on. Your job is not to have people, your parents understand you. Your job is to understand yourself. And when you do that, then other people are going to begin to understand you because the vibration has changed and they're going to have to resonate with your new signature vibration or they're just going to drop out of your life. But it doesn't matter either way. It's all good...

Darius: Wow.

Kenji: Because those that are going to drop out of your life, starting from tomorrow you're going to find some new friends and they're going to be finally souls with you and you're going to go: 'Oh my God!'

Darius: Yes, exactly. I mean, I just started laughing because there's something about you, Kenji. You just open up this truth that everyone can look forward to something so much brighter and bigger because that's what you're here to be and do. And what I love about what you just said was that we all are born with that light. Maybe our families didn't recognize it. Maybe our friends or our situation was one that light was stifled. But now is the time, through what you do and what so many do, to reacquaint to that light, to re-journey into that light. And it's going to happen for many today on this call, so I'm very excited about that.

You mentioned something when we were getting ready for this about pearls of wisdom and what we can learn from them. What can you hear about the pearls of wisdom?

Kenji: Well, I think we're actually going to do an activation...

Darius: Okay.

Kenji: Around that, so I don't want to say too much about it. But let's just say it represents you on another level. It's just sometimes we have to call it certain things. So it's sometimes referred to as the pearl of wisdom. This is one phraseology to indicate your spiritual essence. And there's a way... See, these activations, because they're really simple and I am transmitting...

Okay, so we want to make a distinction here. Okay, so everybody on the call that's going to hear these words, we're going to suggest that you do not receive this activation with the intention of bringing it into your body. You're going to go: 'What?'

Okay, here's the deal. There's a force field around your body, so to speak, and that is the real you. Energetically, all of you can't fit into your physical body. It's not possible. So you're going to receive the download or the activation in your energy field. You don't want to intend it to go into your brain. This is something that I've shifted out of, Darius. So you're going to go: 'Oh, but... Yeah.' So the new level is bringing it into your presence. So that's the energy field that'll be called not your body. It's everything that's not your body and not your etheric body and not your emotional body and not your mental body. It's everything else, okay?

And then at some point it's going to be automatic because we're creating this automatic system for you – well, we're not creating it; we're holding the space for you to be able to just receive this automatic technology or programming that your body will receive these downloads when you're ready, so you won't get overwhelmed. And you probably will not notice it. You don't need to notice it. And the other thing is with these activations, yeah, some people have these really grand experiences, right, where literally they see God, and others go: 'Oh, well, I just feel really, really peaceful.' It's all the same. It's the same stuff, right, so it doesn't matter if you have the divine light experience or not. I call it the Charlton Heston – you know, clouds breaking open in the sky, 1950-something movie thing, right.

Darius: Yeah.

Kenji: You don't have to have that. If you can experience this joyful, peaceful, serene, very calm centered place after the activation, you've done it; you've received it, and then you just take that serenity and move it into the world...

Darius: Wow.

Kenji: Because that's the thing that's going to help shift and transform life here on the earth. So the experience is not really that important. It doesn't matter if you see angels or not. It doesn't matter. Everyone's going to be given the same gift in your own way into your presence.

Now, your presence, you can't see it necessarily but you can feel it. Everybody can feel it. You can feel your presence. It's everything that you feel that's of love and light that's not your physical body and not your emotions and not your thinking. See, that's the you. That's the space in between your thoughts. That's like quantum space. That's at zero point. And it's available to all of us; we just have to practice it.

See, we get lazy. We just have to practice it and we just have to create the time to tune in where there's 10 minutes a day. You don't have to do two hours. You don't even have to do an hour. You know, I can do meditation for 10 minutes and I feel great. I can do it for 5 minutes and I feel great. It doesn't take me long. I don't have to spend hours sitting in lotus and, you know, chanting. I just do my protocol – and we'll show you that for all the newbies on the call – the protocol to allow for this quantum awareness.

Darius: That was interesting, Kenji, in terms of a paradigm shift. You called an active mind actually lazy! That's just beautiful, because avoiding that stillness space is actually lazy and many of us think: well, I've got to keep my mind busy; I've got to keep thinking. And it's actually the opposite.

And a lot of people right now are actually feeling this and feeling some of their truth already coming out. We had one person write in from Massachusetts. She said: 'I began sobbing when Kenji said I was born into a family to be the only light-bearer. But they called me the black sheep in the family and I was the light.'

Kenji: Ooh, I got chills. And, by the way, that is relevant for everybody on this call, including me.

Darius: Okay.

Kenji: The black sheep. Yeah, you're the light-holder. See, when people don't understand, they attack. They attack them emotionally and energetically because it makes them afraid. You know, if Jesus was to come and stand right in front of them they'd all freak out probably, especially if he came in sandals and cutoff shorts and a baggy T-shirt.

Darius: Exactly. Yeah, exactly. Another person: 'Kenji is describing my situation exactly.' That's Jennifer.

Another person, Marcia: 'My...' Oh no, she said yes, that...

Angelica from Germany: 'Yes, that is me. He is talking to me.'

So a lot of people have felt that, so you pretty much were right on cue there. Wow.

Another person – Rosie: ‘Wow. What Kenji said about your parents not recognizing that you were the light worker in the family I always knew. I always knew I was different. I always knew I had insightfulness. I did shut down. I did put a coat of armor on to protect myself and it’s great to hear this now.’ Wow.

Kenji: Yeah. See, part of the shutoff thing... See, that’s the thing that’s up. And so when we release it up to heaven, you’re free. You really are free.

Now, here’s the other thing that’s new for me that I want to share, because I always share the latest updates, you know, the 3.4 updates... Oh God I lost it... Oh boy. Boy, that was quick! I wanted to say something regarding... Okay, here it is. So when we move into this quantum and then we come back into physical awareness, some of you may not now know what to do with that awareness...

Darius: Okay.

Kenji: Because you won’t have a reference point, because it’s gone. And it’s supposed to be gone. So here’s where faith and trust comes in until you move into knowing. So the prerequisite is faith and trust – okay, I’m being taken care of. Heaven’s taking care of me. My higher self is taking care of me. I know what I’m going to do – although I don’t know what I’m going to do...

Darius: Right.

Kenji: I just know it’s going to be the right thing. But you’re going to be in this place of mystery and void and not knowing. Don’t freak out.

Oh, here’s another thing. This is for many again. And even now you’re not crazy for what you are seeing or thinking in a sense that’s different from everybody else that you know. You’re not going crazy, so therefore you don’t have to admit yourself to the local psychiatric hospital, right. You’re not crazy just because other people don’t understand your way of thinking. It just means they don’t understand. It doesn’t mean you’re crazy, right. So you’re not crazy. So all of you that are running crazy pictures, you’re not, right.

So take a deep breath and just understand that you are quantumly normal and most of the other people on the planet are not there yet. They will be, but they’re not quite there yet, so they don’t understand. But you understand yourself, that’s the important thing. Okay.

Darius: I wanted to ask this question that your team sent over to us because I think this one really is interesting. You mentioned a pitfall. Is there a pitfall to spiritual work or is there no pitfall at all?

Kenji: Well, yeah, there is a pitfall. Well, seemingly, from my perspective.

Darius: Okay.

Kenji: Alright? And that’s when you give away your power to a guru or a teacher or even a healer.

Darius: Right.

Kenji: Oh, the other thing I wanted to say before I forget, Darius, because you did mention my old bio. So what we're teaching is not any kind of a system and it's not Quantum Light Weaving in any way. We've actually moved way past that. We are teaching a way to connect that is beyond any kind of a system. And that's what you want to do, those of you who are going: 'Okay, I want to teach, but what am I going to teach?' If you can teach something that goes beyond a system, you're going to serve everyone to the highest level. So it's got to be eclectic in a sense of relatable to anyone.

So, you know, we have cults of different kinds all over the place on this planet; you just don't call it that. But the main thing is if you give away your power, that's a pitfall – unless you know that that's what you're doing and you agree – okay, I'm going to do this for a while, but I understand at some point I'm going to have to take my power back.

Now, where you experience stress from giving away your power is in your stomach. It's in your solar plexus and it's also in your sexual organs and your belly button area. That's where it affects people primarily. So those are your indicators again.

Darius: And what can people do to take back this power if they've given it away? And it may be to a teacher or guru, it may be just to the world's problems or what the world has said about them, what their former boss may have said about them...

Kenji: Yeah, that and...

Darius: Or their former spouse.

Kenji: And spouse for sure, yeah, and many times your parents when you were growing up.

Darius: Yes.

Kenji: Well, you have to decide – okay, I'm going to take back my power now. I'm going to take it back very lovingly from my husband, from my dad, from my ex... You see, I think everyone should do their ex really right now – or your exes – because you need to do that!

Darius: You do.

Kenji: You do. Just decide – I'm taking back my power now. I'm taking it back from all the teachers that I studied with and I'm reclaiming myself again. That's where you start. You start with that intention that's beyond the mind and the brain - I now choose to take back my power. I now choose to bring back all my energy that I gave out to other people. See, when you give and you're tired, you gave away your energy. Oh boy.

Darius: Oh, wow.

Kenji: Take it back, because that's not how you do it. That's not how you serve people. You don't give them your energy. And this is where all healers... they have to go to this level of recognizing that - oh my God, so that's why I had stomach aches every time I like work on this person or every time I was in this situation. Oh, I understand now. Okay, I'm not going to do that anymore.

You have to decide in the mind of God that you are not doing that anymore, and then the universe is going to accommodate you because now you're recalibrating yourself.

And that's very important, this whole energetic recalibration now for the new earth. We are all attempting... Some people are struggling with this. We are recalibrating ourself, our actual frequency vibration, to something that's never been done before on the planet, and that's soul consciousness, a collective soul consciousness. So I don't know how long it's going to take but the more people that do it, the faster we're going to get there.

Darius: Yeah. I love that idea of taking back your power and in essence that being one of the most unselfish things we can do, one of the most altruistic things we can do, because that's when you can really be everything that you're meant to be.

So many people here are healers, they are light workers, they are teachers whether they realize it or not, and the way that they feel like they're serving the world is by giving the world their power. So I am very excited about the prospect of bringing that back.

Just a quick note. I know some people are going to be reclaiming that on the activation. How much time do we need? We've got... 36 past the hour, so how are we doing in terms of the time we need and when...?

Kenji: Well, also, Darius, here's the upgrade. We can do what would take us before on these shows 35 minutes... we can do it in 20 now.

Darius: Wow.

Kenji: Yeah. We're compressing everything down to the pearl.

Darius: I love this.

Kenji: A pearl level.

Darius: Oh my gosh. Oh my gosh. Well, let's do this. I want to hear...

Kenji: Now, Darius... But I don't know if Darius will be able to get up off the floor during that 20-minute thing!

Darius: Exactly! For those of you that are new, I usually wind up on the floor and it usually is about 5 minutes... I just sort of get right back down to Mother Earth and I'm down on the floor. So you may hear a thud because... Kenji, you just continue onward!

Kenji: Yes, I will!

Darius: I want to hear what questions people have for Kenji. This is your chance to ask him anything that you need that can serve you. One person wrote in. She said... Let me find it. It came in just a moment ago. She's a healer and one of her challenges that she was pursuing was that her heart has been closed. Here it is. She says: 'Although I try and I practice coming from my heart when I perform my reiki and I'm trying to attract new clients and I'm not able to, I feel like energetically I'm locked and I am closed. What can I do to shift into the heart space and stay there?' This is Harpal in UK – England.

Kenji: Okay. So here's just... You can do this now. You can step out of your body and we want you to visualize the space that we call your heart center and there's a lock to the door to your heart. Now, I want you to go up to your own records and get the key that's going to unlock this, and then I want you to see yourself unlocking the lock, taking the lock off from the door. Then listen to your heart, and just bringing that lock and key up to source. Just let it go. And just move through the doorway now and reclaim your heart space. That's all you need to do. And then breathe...

See, when we did that there's no judgment about 'Oh, God', right? It's coming from a very neutral place. It's coming from a place that has no attachments or no nothing to the visualization so to speak. So it comes from a place of purity. It comes from a place of not doing in a sense energetically. That's why it can work.

So for all the healers and would-be healers, whatever you do in your work eventually you have to come from a place of non-doing, from a place of neutrality, from a place of the void where you become the chalice, the vessel. But you're not going to channel the energies through your body; you're going to allow it to move through your presence. That's the upgrade and this is for all the healers and would-be healers on the planet. So spread the news.

Darius: Hold on, everyone. Let me see if we... Kenji, are you still there?

Kenji: Yes, I'm still here. You can't hear me?

Darius: Yeah, I can hear you now.

Kenji: Oh. I don't know. I didn't hear anything. I didn't hear any beeps, but...

Darius: Ah, strange. We must have been really plugging into some powerful energy!

Kenji: Oh God. Technology and me now on this new level... Oh God! We're lucky we're still talking on the line!

Darius: Yeah!

Kenji: So I was warned: don't bring this energy through technology. So it's coming through everybody's space; it's not coming through the lines like is used to because we don't want to blow up the lines, you know, and short-circuit everything. So we have to do this with our computers and our cellphones and all that stuff. I'm learning the hard way. Things aren't working, especially since we came back from the last retreat. So I'm definitely conscious recalibrating so it doesn't move through equipment but from the space around it.

Darius: Wow. A lot of people... Paula said: 'I love Kenji's new level. This is a wonderful experience. Thank you so much for sharing this and bringing us along.'

Another person says: 'I come home from the grocery store and I can't wait to get into bed and sleep. I sense people following me up and down the aisles. Is my energy leaving me?' Is this caller somehow giving her energy away or somehow trying to, I guess, help people so much that she's just drained even just going outside?

Kenji: Okay, so you just want to change the – and this is for everybody that's doing this – you want to change the spin in your magnetic field to go radiate out rather than you attracting people and them taking from you. And yeah, the need to go to sleep is your attempt to recharge yourself. So just... you have the mind of God. I mean, within the mind of God beyond your own brain just calibrate reverse spin. Reverse the spin so now it becomes what we call a positive spin, and that will help correct that. To me it's a magnetic field imbalance. Wrong spin, so to speak.

Darius: Wow. Well, there you do. That's what to do. Kenji, I'd love to do the activation. I want to give enough time for people to really plug in and be present and enough time for me to just really be here and enjoy it as well. So I think if you're ready... Any instructions people need? I'm going to be ready too.

Kenji: Okay. So Darius can go into his little space here. So please don't listen to actually this show while you're driving your car or operating heavy machinery, okay. Make sure you're in a quiet space. Turn off your phones. Make sure nothing's going to ring. You might want to close the windows so you don't hear cars going by and things like that. Make it as quiet of a space as you can where you don't hear external noises, although whatever you hear will just help you in this activation to go really deep.

Alright, so we're going to use the breath to focus and center. So we're going to breathe in through the nose and exhale through the mouth. For this particular protocol part we're establishing the state for receiving. So we're going to take a deep breath into the brain, going to activate pineal, pituitary, thalamus, and then slowly just exhale out everything – everything. We're going to empty ourselves. Seven times. We're going to breathe into the brain. Feel the light moving through your brain and then slowly exhale down your spine and out your nose and just let go of everything and everybody and everything that's going on in your life good, bad and indifferent. Just let go of everything.

Okay, do this a total of seven times. We're going to breathe into the belly and then take the light up into the lungs, up into the diaphragm. We're going to activate the brain and then we're going to exhale in reverse order and just move all the air out of your belly. You're going to relax your jaw, your forehead muscles, your mouth, your tongue, your fingers, your toes. Relaxing all of the muscles in your body, keeping your spine comfortably straight whether you're lying down, sitting. However you are just allow your spine to feel very comfortable and relaxed.

Alright, we're going to call in the power now, and this power is unique and yet the same. It's the same power for everybody but it's going to be unique for you. We're going to call into that divine power that comes from source, through the celestial realms, through all of the different layers of consciousness and awareness that we call the realms of light and love. We're also going to call forth the grounding and connection with Earth Mother through your feet, the beautiful earth.

We want you now to feel as if the Earth Mother as divine feminine is embracing your body and putting a cloak of energy around your body so that now your body feels very safe upon the earth where it almost feels like a womblike experience to where you feel cocooned in this very safe energy. And it's very palatable and it's breathing with you. It's breathing with your body, it's breathing with your brain.

Okay. Now, just breathe normally and if you stop breathing that's okay too. Okay, we're going to bring awareness to your belly button and just breathe now from your dantian, either your lower back or your belly button, and feel as if the breath is coming from there. And we're going to strengthen your ability to stay centered and focused in the earth world while holding and radiating and expressing the quantum. Anything that's not in alignment energetically with you moving into this place of center will begin to naturally fall away. We're raising the frequency of the body now into more light, into more lightness of being. Whatever you feel emotionally, just simply allow.

Okay, we're going to ask you to move into that voyage or space that's not part of your body and not part of the earth world. We could call that the celestial realm. Moving to an arc of light, into this beautiful place of connectedness and connection with all that is in the realms of truth.

Right, now take the awareness from the dantian, from your belly button, and then move it up and encompass your stomach and your solar plexus and the upper part of your lower back. Now, we're going to ask the helpers that are here for you – and we'll call them angels – celestial beings – to begin to remove the attachments and the cords and the bindings that have affected you and your life up to this point.

And begin to breathe in love and compassion now, that vibration into your belly and just simply allow an opening and a release of everybody that's attached to you, that you are attached to, and we're going to ask for all the energies of destruction to begin to be removed from your field and for you to be removed, shall we say, with awareness from the collective astral chaotic world of humanity and all the countries on the planet and all the things that are going on on all levels. And we keep breathing that light.

Okay, now we're going to focus down at the base of the spine with our breath again and we're going to hold a feeling at the base of your spine of supreme balance and harmony and then that vibration is going to begin to slowly move up your spine and your spine's going to begin to recalibrate and reset and reconfigure and rebuild itself through the nerves and through the cosmic power, the Kundalini, of your spine, all the way up into the atlas, into C1 and C2 at the very top of your spine, and then into the ventricles of the brain. And we're just going to ask the brain to just allow and receive.

So what's occurring in the brain is like a computer. We are deleting everything in your recycle bin and it's like deleting all old files of 10 years ago, 20 years ago, your early childhood, your past lives, anything that does not compute with new earth consciousness as you allow is being deleted. And what's also occurring on another level now for your brain is going to be uploading all new files and new editions for your hard drive, for your software programs. This will occur naturally. There's nothing you have to do.

Okay, and take a deep breath and then move awareness now to the forehead and begin to completely relax all your forehead muscles in your body and feeling that vibration of your pineal gland. So we're going to recalibrate your pineal gland with the core of the central sun, with the new upgrades that are coming naturally to the solar flares of the sun and the shifting of the magnetic pole of the sun itself so the body can begin to recalibrate itself with the sun and the moon and the earth. And this affects your hormones. You may feel a very deep tingling sensation. Just simply allow a realignment with the Christos in your pineal gland. You may feel the presence of masters or being of great presence.

Okay. Now take a deep breath into the throat and the neck and just begin to allow a reconstruction of your throat chakra, the realignment of the vertebrae in your neck and your thyroid gland, and we're going to ask now that you begin to release energetically and emotionally the beliefs and the thoughts and the emotions that have constricted and limited your throat, and that will include any trauma, any whiplashes that have affected the neck and the atlas as well as any surgeries that have affected the thyroid or any parts of the neck and the throat.

Okay. Now allow everything to continue until complete.

Now we're going to refocus everything now into the heart space. We want you to feel your physical heart beating. You're not in your body though. You are aware of your body but you're feeling your physical heart beating. You're going to begin to feel that sacred space behind your heart. That's your very special, sacred chamber. I want you to feel now connecting very deeply to that vibration, beginning to bring all of your awareness, your earth plane awareness, to that space.

Now, we want you to feel the guides around you supporting all of this, supporting you, supporting your body.

Okay, now we're going to move... We're going to do this as a collective but also individually as well. We're going to move into the core of that special sacred space, into what is called the blue pearl, the cobalt blue pearl of the soul, and we want you to tap in with your awareness into the core of this beautiful pearl and begin to become one with it, begin to allow a merging vibrationally with your conscious awareness and the awareness of you as soul spirit. We're moving out of a place of doing and into the space of being and into the place of knowing.

Now we're going to ask for the portals to open. We call them the God Gates and these God Gates they're like portals and pierce through the illusion, that pierce through the density that create openings in dense matter for the alignment of heaven and earth, and we're going to call forth the vibrations of Quan Yen that represents the divine feminine and the garden of the great ladies that represents the collective divine feminine ascended masters and other levels energies.

Now, we're going to ask you now as that great pearl of wisdom to take yourself up through the God Gates, through the portal, and symbolically up, upwards into the garden of the great ladies. Take your awareness, take your pearl as you into what we call that level of heaven. And Quan Yen, with each of you as well as the other great ladies, will escort you to that most perfect place within heaven, within their garden, where you can have your experience that you've been praying for all your life. We will do this in silence and I will call you back in a few earth minutes.

Now we're going to begin the integration process and it is somewhat like creating a landing zone for you back to the earth. So from that place within the garden – and this will be done automatically – there will be created a landing spot back on the earth and in your body to where you're going to begin to refocus with this new vibration.

So think of it like technology, like an infrastructure is being created for you. Your I AM, your spirit, is co-creating this with all the help here. Now begin to imagine as we begin to leave the garden you can say goodbye – you can always come back to this space during meditation – and we are giving great thanks for all the assistance of the masters and the angels here.

Now begin to feel yourself sliding back towards the earth, then your body, on a wave of beautiful light that's very tangible for you, that you are one with this light. And you're coming back into physical awareness, back to the earth, back into the dwelling of where you are or your body is. We're moving through the portals, through the God Gates, and as you come back to the earth plane the God Gates will close up.

Now, begin to feel the space around your body. We're going to coalesce and recalibrate now so that your force field is intact. That is very strong, cohesive, coherent, connected.

Okay, we're going to ground through the feet deep with the Earth Mother. Begin to feel the power of the earth. I want you to feel the tips of your hands, your toes, feel the base of your spine, feel the top of your head and that space that we call your heart.

Okay. Let's take three deep breaths into the body now. Welcome back to the body. Tell your body as you're coming back to simply receive automatically. And as you come back, create the intentional thought from this day forward - I am now manifesting as the being that I am, the full knowing of my destiny, the full trust and faith in prime source, and with the knowing that I am good enough just the way that I am. And I now choose to move forward each and every day manifesting with compassion and joy and laughter and smiles all that I need, connecting with everyone that's part of my destiny and loving every day as me. And so it is. So be it.

Okay, take another deep breath and drink some water. And if you have to drive shortly to go somewhere, please make sure you're grounded before you get in your automobile. And when you're ready, slowly open your eyes and be in the now.

Well, I guess Darius is back, I heard some noise there, some rumblings in the background.

Darius: I am back! I just was drinking a whole bottle of water. I just had 16 ounces. I really... Wow. I was gone again, Kenji. I didn't even fight it this time. I just rolled up and went right under my desk. Someone wrote in and said: 'Darius needs to get a little doggie basket so he can curl up when Kenji does his activations.'

I was pretty much just down there right at the start and wasn't even going to fight it. I just went straight down. And, you know, what I felt actually when we were breathing in that light, I remember I started breathing in the light... There was something about breathing in the light and just at the moment it was like I was teleported. I felt it come in. It went down my spine. It felt like really cool and cold and then I felt it go up into my brain, and you talked about some different parts of my brain and I felt sort of like almost like just this expansion of my mind and then I was out. And then the other thing that I remember was the garden and I was in this garden with my whole family there and we were all wearing white and it was just this beautiful expansive space of green grass and I could see hills and down in the valley and all the things that I've needed to say all my life and do it's like I really got just this connection to that divine being. And then I now have that but I'm back here. That's what's exciting about it.

So that was my experience. I just want to share for everybody how that was so profound. Wow.

Kenji: Yeah, and that's still happening. You will see as the days go on – oh my God, that garden experience is still happening. How cool.

Darius: Wow. A lot of people are writing in. So just share with us. One person said: 'Darius, come up off the floor!' They will never forget that. I get on the floor. I never... I cannot... It's just... You know what happens, Kenji. It's almost like I relinquish connections to the earth. It's like I don't want to be in the manmade chair. I don't even want to be the vertical upright humanoid being. It's like I don't even know what that is. I'm going to just sort of float. It doesn't matter to me anymore.

Kenji: That's good.

Darius: It's very good. I love it. Let's see what's going on with folks out in You Wealth land and what's happened to you; what maybe you felt; what you activated. Some of you are still coming back. Chris just said: 'I went totally out there too. Where did we go? It feels like the whole world got still.'

Another person said: 'That was so beautiful and so powerful.'

Another person – Sheryl – said: 'I'm like you, Darius. I do not feel like fitting back into my body now.' Or she actually says: 'I don't feel like I am fitting. I'm larger than I was before.'

Kenji: Uh-oh.

Darius: Yeah. Yeah. Bigger than my body, you know. It's like that John Mayer song: Bigger Than My Body... Bigger Than I Give My Body Credit For or something like that, right? It's just being so big.

Jennifer said: 'Simply amazing. Nobody is as affective as Kenji.'

Another person said – Tracey: 'I felt the garden with the ladies had a big lake. I cried for the rest of the time. It felt like compassionate energy. I really did not want to come back. This world seems so harsh.'

Kenji: Yeah.

Darius: Interesting. A lot of people writing back just crying and releasing. Another person: 'I cried when Quan Yen took my hand. I came back into my body. There was a white horse. I rode the white horse back to the landing pad in my body.'

Wow. A lot of people crying. What's going on when people cry and release like that?

Kenji: Well, you know, a lot of those tears is the recognition of home and like 'Oh my God.' Yeah. We love it.

Darius: Yeah. There's dozens and dozens more. You know, a lot of people just experienced clearing. One said: 'Hi, Kenji. I experienced clearings of the collective shadow within all my individual shadows. There was an amazing integration of part of the shadow into God Head. Very powerful.'

Another person said: 'I just kept descending up the God portal into an ever-expanding fountain of light.'

They just keep coming in. One person said: 'For days I had pains in the middle of my back that were keeping me up at night. The pain is now gone and I feel it was connected to the black sheep syndrome. Thank you, Kenji.'

Anyone else who's had pains that don't seem to be there anymore let us know. Wow. A lot of people. 'I felt a lot of stuff releasing from my neck and my throat. I feel so peaceful right now.' I mean, this is just amazing. We just had an explosion.

For those people that maybe felt so many different things I want to say this, Kenji. There's nothing you're supposed to feel, right? I mean, it's as individual as you need it to be for your own path, right?

Kenji: Correct. Yeah, even feeling nothing is good.

Darius: Why is that?

Kenji: Well, there could be various reasons but the main thing is people are feeling different now than before we started the show and the activation and that's what's important. It doesn't matter what they experience in the process but everybody's getting it to the degree that you're getting it. And they will get it. The energy will keep being offered to them until they fully, fully receive it and embrace it. So it's not like a one time deal. This is like forever.

Darius: Wow.

Kenji: Yeah, that's what's so cool. These activations are so organic and evergreen they'll just last into eternity. They'll wait for people.

Darius: Yeah. And I think the thing for me... I look at this and I think to myself: Wow. How much more is there? Where else do we go from here? And I know that one of the things you do with people is take them very deep and there are many different ripples in this journey or folds in this journey from letting go of the illusion to moving into the now, to eliminating your halo, to golden threads of healing, lightship journeys, compatibility waves. There's some very new things that you've been doing and that you've been putting together. Tell me a little bit about that, because you have deeper activations and you were telling me privately this is the first time that these have ever been released to the world other than the small thing you did at Kenyon Ranch.

Kenji: Yeah. Well, this particular package is very new, very, very new. So this show is the first one to offer it. It is smaller than the ones we've done before, which we looked at and go: 'God. Way... humungous. Way too much.' So we're downsizing, like a lot of companies have to do these days, and here's the deal...

Darius: Why is that? Is that because...?

Kenji: Offering more is not necessarily better. What we're realizing is offer simple things in the beginning, as they're very powerful. It's like that pearl thing. You know, the pearl's not very big size-wise but it's so concentrated. It's so compacted on that level that we tuned in to that is has the power of the sun. So we want to look at it that way.

So I think this first item in the package came from actually our first six-day retreat we ever offered, I believe. So the energy now in these six days is really concentrated and those attunements... I think there were 12 maybe...

Darius: Oh my gosh.

Kenji: From that retreat that can last you a whole year just listening to that one alone, because it has so many layers and levels and the training itself was marvelous. It was from the High Desert, about, I don't know, 3500 feet about elevation, and it was in a place that had quiet and it had nature and it had wonderful clouds and visitors, shall we say. So the activations... it's like you're going to be there. You're going to be there receiving what the students received, which is pretty amazing. And even though it was given to 20-some-odd people it was actually designed - as all the products are - designed for everyone that's going to buy the package or hear it in some way. So it is meant for you.

So we just say: if you feel a calling for this package, don't resist it; just buy it. It's such a great deal for the price, but energetically... God, I mean, the opportunity that people will receive from this I can't express in words. I'm at a place now where I'm almost reluctant to describe what people are going to get from the products we're carrying...

Darius: Sure.

Kenji: Because it is so open-ended now. It's so... Oh God, it's just so rich and full. It's like when you try to describe: 'Oh, you'll get this and you'll get that,' you kind of feel like you're diluting the benefits. You're really not but you know the mind just has a...

Darius: Yeah.

Kenji: A kind of a hard time to bring... It has a hard time going: 'God, how do you explain this? I can feel it but there aren't any words.'

Darius: Yeah. I don't think we can really. I mean, we can say what happened but what's going on inside of everyone right now is very different than what the mind can even describe.

Breda from Vancouver said: 'This piece was exceptional. I think it answered my questions on how to move forward. After two years of following Kenji's work, I am in the space where I have more peace, more faith, more trust. Kenji, your work is wonderful. Nobody has helped me like you.' That was Breda in Vancouver. She just wrote in right now.

And I want to let people know this is completely new. It's completely upgraded in terms of where Kenji is going and what he is experiencing now, and, I believe, as he said, more concentrated. And it's at <http://youwealthrevolution.com/kenji2013>. This is the first place that it's been offered and you don't have to go to the retreat in the mountains. You don't have to get on a plane. You can just go to at <http://youwealthrevolution.com/kenji2013> and there it is.

Can we take just a moment...? I know to describe it is tough, but there are descriptions here that maybe we could at least talk about of each piece, because they're just beautiful and beautifully put together and the pictures are just... The pictures themselves are just taking me in another direction as I just want to look at them. They're just awesome. Really amazing.

Okay, so we've got Letting Go Of Illusions is the first attunement, and this one you talk about a lot of different things – communication with archangels, ascended masters, activating the sacred triangle of light, healing of injuries, addictions, trauma. Tell me a little bit about what this one is about.

Kenji: Well, you know, we always seem to include in these retreat activations, you know, the core issues that pretty much everybody is dealing with.

Darius: Yeah.

Kenji: And the neat thing is you're also being aligned deep into your core at the same time. So we're not just like doing this thing of we're releasing all this stuff. We always bring you back from each activation with a sense of more wholeness and more connectedness.

You know, we could just do basically just a core release, but, you know, the mind still needs to like read and kind of know – okay, what does this activation really do?

Darius: Yeah.

Kenji: People don't have enough faith yet to go: 'Oh, I feel the energies from this whole package. I'm going to get it.'

Darius: Right.

Kenji: See, we're starting to get people – which is beautiful – where they go: 'Oh, I don't even know why I'm here. I just know I was called to come and I spent the money and I'm here.'

Darius: Yeah.

Kenji: I mean, we've had people that had to go through hell to get to the retreats. Everything went wrong and they still ended up there because they were determined no matter what distractions were put in their place – I'm going to be there on time. And they were.

So we love that where they just come. They just feel a calling to come. They come. They feel a calling to buy this package and they don't even know what it is – I'm just going to get it. We love that, because you're moving beyond the brain and the mind, trying to figure out – Is it worth the Money? Should I get this? If you have a feeling, get it. If you don't have a feeling, don't buy it.

Darius: Yeah.

Kenji: It's that simple really. Life is that simple. If you feel like doing this, go do it. If you feel like saying no somebody, say no – No, can't do it. Sorry.

Darius: Yeah. I love that. I love that idea. I love that truth. So it is here. There are many different items in here. I'll just kind of share what they are quickly as they've been described to us. Moving Into The Now Moment is Item Two and this is about purifying your emotions, reclaiming the supreme clarity of power, connecting with the Council of 14. Really quick, Kenji. I don't know if we've talked about the Council of 14. What is the Council of 14?

Kenji: They were the original council that helped me to work with this energy that I began to work with on a telesummit. So it was two years ago, starting with Sheila Gale and then going to Adoley and then you and Jeneth, etc. So that was... I have a knowing. I've got other councils. But initially it was the Cosmic Council of 14.

Darius: Wow.

Kenji: They have no bodies. They have no names. They're an energy presence that brings forth what initially was a Quantum Light Weaving vibration. So now we've moved past Quantum Light Weaving and we're moving into a sphere that has no name. It's nameless.

Darius: And now people can connect to that. I mean, I just... You know, the one thing with you, Kenji, at the end of the call I feel like I'm wrapped in a warm blanket. And actually I'm just looking at our comments. This is what Janice says. This is so funny. She said: 'I feel such peace and joy and lightness. I also feel like I'm wrapped in a cozy blanket of love that goes with me wherever I go. Thank you, Kenji. You're amazing.' She says: 'Every time I hear you it changes my life.'

And this is really for those of you that feel this and want this. I mean, this is why we include this.

Illuminating Your Halo, Item Three. Now, this you did and you did this at the retreat and this is really nourishing your glands, your internal organs, reflecting the light of your soul without distortion, receiving supportive celestial vibrations, connecting to the central sun. Any thoughts on this piece?

Kenji: Well, you know, I forget everything after I do it.

Darius: Yeah.

Kenji: So I can't even go by my memory because it's like almost blank. Yeah, this happens a lot with me. Or even happens the next day after, you know. So it's kind of embarrassing in those situations, but my staff they realize: 'Oh yeah, when Kenji does it he does it and then he lets it go, so he has no memory of it.'

Darius: Yeah.

Kenji: See, what we're learning is when you move into the quantum and then you create an intention... Now, it's not with your brain and your mind but it's on that other level. So when the soul creates the intention it's got to happen at some point in time and space on the earth plane in your body, because that's the place where creation comes from. So we realize that. So we have complete knowing that when we bring people through the activations into the place, whether it's the garden of the great ladies, whether it's the heart of the great central sun, whether it's where Shambala is, where the hierarchy has their collaboration and whatnot, it's still in that field of oneness. So whatever is created in there has got to happen at some point in time and space, and the less blocks people have the more instantaneous it appears in their life. So it could be 5 seconds from now, it could be like in the moment, it could be tomorrow, but it's not going to be like in the old therapy days where it's going to be weeks and months or years. No, this is really quick. Like, a really long time for us is like two months. That's like a really long time to see changes for us. So usually people start seeing it within that week.

Darius: Wow.

Kenji: But it keeps happening. That's what's neat. And most of the changes people don't even realize it's happening, and that's the other weird part of this whole quantum. They don't even realize they shifted, but they're different. And I say: 'Well, just ask your friends after two months from now. Ask your family members.'

Darius: Yeah.

Kenji: We have people's daughters. You know how they are, the older teenagers write in...

Darius: Sure, yeah. They get...

Kenji: They look at the flow or they go: 'Oh, I don't need that. That's like woo-woo stuff, mom.'

Darius: Exactly.

- Kenji: They're shifting on their own and they're starting to talk the language without them even realizing it. That's really funny.
- Darius: My gosh. Yeah, when you can break through teenagers that may be the biggest breakthrough there is! I love that. I mean, I just love that. And I think that's the universal language of this work is that simplicity and childlike openness to life.
- One thing I noticed, Kenji, that was different on this section too that I don't think I've seen before was a blessing. Item Eight is Angel Blessings, which has a blessings download and you talked about angel blessings. Do you remember anything about that and what can you tell me about angel blessings?
- Kenji: No, I can't really remember anything about that, but I believe what we did... Yeah, we haven't really done that too much. We did an activation where we did the protocol and then I think in the silence we asked the students to just simply receive the blessings from the angels. And they could have been certain specific ones, but what happens, you know, when you do that level is whoever shows up that wants to do it, they show up. So it's always not the same archangels when we ask for blessings from their kingdom, but it's the ones that are like event-specific, if that makes sense.
- Darius: Okay. So... interesting. Yeah, it kind of does. Okay. So when you say event-specific you mean like for that particular event certain angels, certain energies show up that need to show up based on what's going on with the people there and what they need.
- Kenji: Exactly. And the ones that are going to buy the show package in the future. Exactly. So it's all calibrated in the oneness. So we go on these timelines. We go forward in parallel realities and future realities and then we calibrate. That's a whole other training though, so not for the radio show, but we calibrate who's going to be there and how they're going to receive and all that and then we bring it to the now moment. So that's kind of an aspect of reverse engineering which will be on the next... it'll be two show packages or three show packages from this one. That's really good stuff.
- Darius: Yeah. This is an incredible journey. You have a lot here. I'm just going to through them. Vibrational Spectrums and Divine Balances, Item Seven. That's a 38-minute activation. Item Eight is the Angel Blessings. That a 24-minute activation. Item Nine is The Song of God and Rebirthing Instructions. That sounds absolutely spectacular. That's an attunement preparing the body and mind for rebirthing. Kenji, anything you can share on rebirthing? I know we've talked about that a couple of times in the past but I was just curious on rebirthing and what it means right now in 2013.
- Kenji: Well, there's kind of like two ways we do it. We actually do it hands-on where it's actually a process, a technique, so to speak – if you can call it that – where people go down face-forward onto the mat and we cover them with a blanket and they're down for like 30, 40 minutes, totally zoned out. But what we've come to know from the experience of students is they are different when they get up and for many they are physically in their face very different. It's almost like a new person is born.

So what occurs very simply is the old self goes into this phoenix rising thing. I mean, it goes into the ashes and a new aspect of you emerges. You know, that part of the soul that hasn't been in the body, shall we say, ever, that comes in.

The other way we do it is through like on these calls, these activations. So it's not any kind of rebirthing that's taught anywhere on the planet. This just came to me the way that it came to me, but we present it very simply now where there are no words for the rebirthing. It's totally done in silence. It's your higher self working with your brain, your body, your personality, your inner child, all of that. And so actually a complete rebirthing can actually occur within one session, one 30, 40-minute experience on the mat, on the physical mat. And people have told me: 'My life just changed. From that one experience my whole life began to change.' And it's a continual change ongoing. It's not like this one time 'oh, okay, now.' But it's like: 'Oh God, I'm still changing from that. I can still feel the changes eight months later, a year later.' It's so cool.

Darius: This is just astounding and, I mean, what I feel for people is that once you are connecting to that divine essence and that source it will keep coming forward. It's like you've opened the door. And this is just a huge way to continue opening that door and no matter what's happening in your life each one of these is going to, I believe, activate what you need at that moment. And I also think, Kenji, at some level they'll know which one they need to listen to, or is there some order? Because you've got here 13 activations plus a bunch of other things I want to mention. 13. How do they know which one to listen to first?

Kenji: Well, you know what I would do, because there is a sequential sanity to the sequences in a way...

Darius: Okay.

Kenji: I suggest initially that they listen to them in order, like Item One and then go through, and then they can pick and choose as needed according to your description, or they can just close their eyes and point to one that they need. But I think initially it's good to go in this kind of order because we calibrate the next attunement on the previous ones.

Darius: I see.

Kenji: So it builds upon it. So it does have a logical or a commonsense sequence. It's not just taken out of the air and like put here, Item Three and then Item Four. There's a thought-out, shall we say, unconsciously sequential calibration to everything.

Darius: Yeah. Just like you created the landing strip and the landing devices to come back, I mean, this is actually creating the inertia and the blastoff to just go deeper and deeper into that journey, each one building on itself.

13 of them... This is Kenji's newest work, more powerful than before, slightly shorter but still a tremendous amount here that's more concentrated and from Angel Blessings to Rebirthing to Voyaging Into The Field of Oneness, Time Travel Leading Into The Future, The Triangulation of Light, Shifting Your Finances And Your Financial World, The Reality of Spirit, Releasing The Illusions And Moving Into The Realm of Spirit, Merging With Love, Grace and Allowance, Deep Communion With Divine Support and even a blessing attunement to help you receive birthday blessings from the universe, Focusing On Purification Of The Ego, Blessings Of The Wind, Receiving The Heart Outside Of Duality And Space And Time, Receiving From Behind The Heart. And then you have something else here called The Energy Adjustments File. I don't know if you remember much about this but this looks like a deep energy adjustment going back to the eight cells of the body and receiving source energy from the great central sun.

Kenji: Yeah, that was basically kind of what it says. It was calibrating people to come into phase. This was done springtime, I think, here in Seattle. That's one that I recorded from my home. And I believe we did that because people were out of phase. They were just not in their body. They were out of whack, right. Out of phase?

Darius: Yeah.

Kenji: So what these activations now are automatically going to... These newer ones now. We're talking about like this month, last month and ongoing from last month, I guess, forward. They're automatically going to re-phase people back into their bodies, into where they can create their landing strip, so to speak, so they can really come back centered and focused from these activations. And in-phase means absolutely present, here and now, not kind of sort of but like really present. That's the in-phase.

Darius: Yeah.

Kenji: When you're in-phase, you say one sentence to somebody and that could shift their life. That's how much power we have now. So we have to remember our words have power, our thoughts have power, and anything can shift anybody at any moment. And if it's done in love it'll shift. Guaranteed. Anything done in unconditional love and allowance will shift whoever it's directed to. They'll probably give you a hug for it and they'll give you a thank you and they'll give you a compliment. They'll just do nice things for you.

Darius: I just... As I go through – and I would just invite everybody just read through these... just the words on these pages. I mean, they open up new ways of thinking and being. I'm reading The Dream of Remembrance attunement, which talks all about this inner quantum journey. This is like Item Fifteen/Sixteen in this package... In declaring the imprints and ancestral conditioning of breath, lung, lymphatic cancer and other illnesses. In the 7 minutes of silence you'll rediscover the soul of you and receive the blessings of your next evolutionary step and let your spirit guide you towards awakening and remembrance of your true home and destiny.

Just beautiful. That's another bonus that's here. And then there's a bunch of other things like a coupon if you want $100 off a personal phone activation session with Kenji, and so much more. This is just a tremendous package. I would say, Kenji, I looks just as thorough as any of the other ones and it seems like there's even more here. It looks amazing.

81% off. It's a $675 value, which I think is probably underestimating the real value here. It's probably, you know, I would say more like a million dollars of value because it's that powerful. It's $127 for everybody here. $127 and it's available instantly, right, Kenji? They can get it and start with the first item and begin that Letting Go Of Illusions, Item One.

Kenji: Yeah. Oh, and I want to mention one thing.

Darius: Yeah.

Kenji: Was it Item Thirteen you said?

Darius: I think one of these...

Kenji: One of those CDs? Thirteen?

Darius: Ah-hum.

Kenji: Okay. That was specifically done for cancer patients and that's always going to be for free. That's never going to be a charge on our site. But for any of you that have any forms of cancer, that's the one you want to listen to. But it was specifically done for women with breast cancer.

Darius: Beautiful, beautiful. Wow, Kenji, you know I'm seldom out of words but I'm always out of words with you because sometimes I just want to sit in the silence and just be with what we've created, the portal we've opened up.

Kenji: Yeah.

Darius: It's just beautiful. I'm going to just check see if we have any other questions. One person said: 'Kenji, you're amazing. Grateful to you for everything you've done for humanity. My life really did change in a few months through your work.' This is Soreya in Gothenburg. I guess Gothenburg, Sweden.

Kenji: Wow.

Darius: Wow. And Paula said: 'Thank you. I just bought the Special Offer.' She says: 'Should we listen to these in order?' And I think we talked about that. Yes, you do listen in order.

Kenji: Yes.

Darius: Okay.

Kenji: Initially anyway, yes.

Darius: Okay. Harpal in England. She had written us in earlier about having the issues of going to the grocery store and the energy leaving her – 'Thank you, Kenji. I'm feeling peaceful, calm. I don't want to even open my eyes. Much love and gratitude.'

Someone's asking for those that have some of the 2012 work and stuff, how does it integrate? Is the newer work beneficial to use with it? Is it a replacement? Is it just another level? Speak on that for a moment. How does the work end up integrating for new people and advanced people?

- Kenji: Well, they're all connected so they all are integrated. So even if like someone buys this particular show package and then somehow they buy the ascension package... was the package before that, it doesn't matter because it's all connected. And it doesn't matter when we did it time-wise; it's all connected.
- Darius: Okay.
- Kenji: Yeah, everything feeds upon the other. That's what's beautiful about this work. It's evergreen, organic, ever-growing, it's all connected. Even the stuff I did back six years ago is still very relevant today...
- Darius: Yeah.
- Kenji: Because I didn't know what I was doing back then! I was just, shall we say, channeling information?!
- Darius: Well, sometimes that's the best, you know. I mean, that can be very powerful. When you don't know, you know, the mind's not there and so it's all channeled, it's all divine and all brilliant.
- So Kenji, thank you so much. I mean, I wanted to just ask you one last question. I haven't asked this in a while with the You Wealth Revolution. It's a question I want to bring back. I always used to ask guests... I'd say: 'You know, if you could paint sort of the divine world with a brush to you, what would it look like or would it even change at all?'
- Kenji: Okay. I'll just give you one example. This comes from the new earth. Because we did this at one point way in the very beginning.
- Darius: Yeah.
- Kenji: So imagine this scene. Imagine in a forest or in a meadow little kids hanging out with unicorns. It still is an example of where there's no fear with the animals and humans. So just imagine that. Imagine us going into a forest and talking and petting with bears and mountain lions and talking to birds and we will understand their language and them understanding us. So that to me is an example of my paradise on earth, is all of humanity being one with the animal kingdom, being able to talk to trees, being able to grow flowers with thought and love and all that stuff.
- Darius: Just beautiful.
