The Holographic Universe:
Redesign Reality and Construct a New Life Pattern
Q&A

Darius: Hello and welcome everyone. This is Darius Barazandeh. You are tuning in to the New Wealth Revolution. I am incredibly excited to have you here and to be a part of this which we are here with Mashhur Anam. And one of the things that I want to do every day and I'm going to set this intention that we do this is, is that we really ground ourselves in the truth about us.

So I want to start out with just a little prayer before we jump to this incredible session with Mashhur. The prayer really is something to help you find really your divine knowing and your divine truth. I set the intention today that in what we do together you realize and know how special you really are, how amazing you are, what an incredible gift of divine light you truly are; that you be shown during this call something special, something you've never seen before, that a space opens up and a way be made where maybe it looked as if there was no way that could be made; that you find in yourself the truth for how incredible and amazing and all-powerful you are; that inside of you that spark of greatness, of divine love, of divine knowing that maybe has been closed off, that that spark comes alive today and it becomes your essence, everything that you are. This is my wish for you. This is our mission at the New Wealth Revolution. And I just want to set the intention that these things appear in your life today.

Now, today we have an incredible session with Mashhur Anam. We're going to be talking about the holographic universe, redesigning your reality, and constructing a new life pattern.

This series, this whole redesign your reality has been created to help you gradually raise your vibration and operate from your heart space and harmonize your personal energy field and energetically resolve old, incomplete tasks, reprogramming your neural networks for success and raising your abundance and relationship thresholds, which will align you to so that can easily attract the things you want and so that some of the most powerful methods to redesign your life actually are yours at your grasp and you can use them instantaneously.

This is a big key with Mashhur's work is he literally creates these processes that you can download and utilize instantaneously. So you know, ask the question: Are you really firing at all aspects of your being? Are the neurons that are connecting you to the life you want, to the love you want, to the finance and wealth, are they really firing? Are they really coordinating with all time, space, reality to make this a possibility? Or at some level are you like many of us, holding it back? And this is what we want to free you from.

Today our guest is Mashhur Anam. He's an alchemist of life transformation who's guided by a belief and a deep, deep knowing that anything is possible. Over the years, curiosity, exploration and pure desire to help humanity raise its collective consciousness, he's explored the holographic nature of our universe and uncovered a multitude of algorithms, equations and technical truths about how the mathematical universe works, and these truths have allowed us to literally change people's lives through his work.

His background in technology coupled with extensive exploration in multidimensional existence has helped him bring forth holographic tools and programs. Some of them you've probably heard about - the Rings of Harmony, the Harmonic Shield, the Holographic Vision Board, Liquid Luck and more. These are complex in nature but very simple and easy to use and anyone from any background can launch them and work with them.

During this most important time in our planetary transformation, these tools can be used to transform lives, raise vibration and expand consciousness and reprogram our abundance matrix, redesign our relationship patterns and restore inner and global harmony.

In the last few years, Mashhur has developed incredible programs, not only for individuals like us but even industries so they can become more harmonious and connected - computer industries, retail stores, garment industries, national health park development, even marketing companies in Asia and North America to create environmental harmony with their world.

So if you're ready for something amazing, be on this call, stay to the end, share it with your friends and family at www.youwealthrevolution.com/now.

I want to say this too. Mashhur is actually going to be doing an installation towards the end of the call, so you'll want to be there as well. And as usual we want to hear from you, we want to help you, we want to guide you and make this all about you.

One person said this – Kathleen: 'I can't say that I completely understand it all. But I do know that I've tried many modalities including the fact that I am a Reiki master and your method is one of the very few that has ever worked for me. I am truly experiencing major shifts in myself and my life. It's due to your work. I can't thank you enough.'

Marita, who had some family challenges, said: 'There's been a quantum shift in my family dynamics because of the limitations of words. I cannot adequately describe the incredible changes in my life since using the tools. I was initially trying to attract monetary abundance, which I am now receiving abundance in so many other ways. It's all connected.'

So let's get ready. Let's send Mashhur a huge amount of love and on the count of three – one, two, three - send him that love.

Mashhur, welcome back to the New Wealth Revolution.

Mashhur: Oh, thank you, Darius. It's great to be here, and thanks everyone for joining.

Darius: I'm very excited because today we're going to get back to some of the... I think the most amazing truths about your work and about the universe, and we're also going to be doing some very cool installations. So let's start the ground work, Mashhur. And the first question that I have, that's coming in from a lot of people is: What is a hologram? Because today's topic is the holographic universe and redesigning reality. What is a hologram?

Mashhur: Well, a hologram is basically a projection of light and information. You know, these days if you we look at science fiction movies or a lot of technology that is being developed, we see projection. So a hologram is simply a projection.

Now, when we talk about the universe being holographic in nature and then scientists talk about this holographic model, that means the projection has to come from somewhere. Now whether it's coming from our highest level of consciousness or a different plane it doesn't matter, but what's important is to know that this is holographic. That means codes can be rewritten, things can be updated. Whatever projection we see and feel and notice, they can be changed. And once we start to tap into that source code or the information that creates this projection, we can shift anything.

And what we need to really believe is it is simple. We need to move away from that old style belief that things need to take a long time and it's hard to change, or patterns keep repeating and they come back. Those are all belief systems. We need to start to really disconnect from those and start to focus on possibilities.

You know, all things are possible, so let's have fun redesigning reality. And that's the other important part, you know. We don't want to redesign to run away from something. That creates resistance. We want to rise above situations, learn from them, and think about what it is that we would love to experience? Let's talk about possibilities and then from that space, from the heart space, let's start to redesign reality.

Darius: We've got a ton of questions coming in. One person says: 'How do I create a hologram? How do I do that? How do I become abundant in every area of my life?'

Another person says: 'I want to heal my body.'

Another person says: 'How do I get rid of the beliefs that seem to be stopping my personal wealth and health?'

So, I mean, these are all the issues that are coming up for people and I would encourage everyone to keep sharing.

Tell us about how these holographic tools work and how specifically they can get us over those beliefs or those energies or those feelings that seem to be keeping us stuck in the same reality that we may not want anymore, that we may not even be anymore. How can those tools work?

Mashhur: You see, the holographic tools are built with the same information that creates us and the planets and the systems that we see around us. That's why we can interact with them. There's an intelligence matrix built in.

You know, think about a metal detector at an airport. When you go through that, if you have certain metals, the detector picks up. And the tools and programs are basically programmed that way so that they can pick up disharmony, whether it's abundance-related or relationship-related, health-related, that's what they're doing. They're scanning the energy field when they're activated and they're activated simply by using a command.

So they scan the energy field and they isolate patterns of disharmony, things that are not beneficial anymore. Then they apply sacred geometry, sound vibration, light matrix, different frequencies and many other geometry and algorithms and equations, and the goal is to transform patterns of disharmony into something that is harmonious for us. The process sounds complex, but really it is simple. You're taking something that causes disharmony; you're applying something to transform it into something that's harmonious.

Darius: And this way of doing it... I love the idea of being harmonious and sort of being in flow and the whole idea of just sort of changing the hologram first. How is this different than the conventional methods and tools that many times we see being used? Many times, you know, we've shared here many different tools. How is this different in your opinion?

Mashhur: Well, the conventional tools are great. They have worked for us for thousands of years. And the trick is now we are talking about moving into a multidimensional environment, the fifth dimension and beyond. You know, these are common words people use. But in order for us to do that, we cannot simply be restricted to three-dimensional technology. So that's why we're talking about multidimensional technology.

Now, I would give you an example. Let's say I'm playing a DVD and I'm watching a movie called My Life. And if I don't like it, then I could put flowers around the TV, I can put fragrance in the room, I can put nice paintings around me, so that I'm surrounded by nice things to make me feel better, but I'm still watching that same movie that I don't like. That's the conventional method.

With the hologram, we are working with the source code that's creating the projection. So what we can do, we can eject the DVD that's not beneficial anymore, we can play a different DVD that we would rather experience.

So that is a huge difference, because we can change the projection of our reality. All things are possible. All things exist. It's a matter of shifting our consciousness from where we are and what we are experiencing to something else that we would rather experience.

So that's why these processes, especially when people operate from neutrality, non-judgment and heart space, they work really, really fast for them.

Darius: And so people, you know, let's say they've been wanting to manifest, they've been wanting to manifest a relationship or money or new opportunity or maybe just wellness and just more of vitality. Can this actually begin to move that in faster because it's working with a hologram?

Mashhur: Absolutely.

Darius: Okay.

Mashhur: Absolutely. See what we are doing is first of all we're connecting with our heart space instead of the head and then we are focusing on - especially in this series - we're focusing on the question: What would I love to experience today? Not what do

I want to change or what do I want to release or transform or what do I want? 'Want' still means I don't have it, let's create that. And subconsciously a part of us thinks: 'Well, that might be a lot of work.'

So that's why we are asking the question: What would you love to experience? That means it's already here. Shift your awareness to something that you would love to experience. Once we align with that new option and vibrationally when there is a resonance, that new option shows up in our reality. That's just simply how this universe works. You know, there is no exception.

When we can align with a particular vibration, that has to show up. So when we focus on the ideas about the things that we would love to experience and really move into those feelings, those thoughts, those emotions, and align with them, they will show up. And these particular tools and programs are designed to release old patterns, transform blocks and download or, let's say, upgrade our software with multidimensional information, download higher vibration, so that it becomes easier for us to operate from that space, time continuum.

Darius: Now, some people have been asking about sort of like the situational environment they're in. It's almost like they're connected to a certain way of thinking or a certain vibrational pull like, you know, each planet has a gravitational pull that will pull a satellite or a spaceship in when you get too close. Is there something that's similar to that that kind of keeps people stuck in that pattern, because there's a very strong draw to being in a certain way of being and perceiving that can keep us stuck? How do we break out of that and what is that?

Mashhur: Absolutely not. That's a great analogy about the gravitational pull. Morphic fields are group consciousnesses. You know, they're similar. And if you think about a particular belief - let's say, I'm not good enough or nothing works for me, or things always go back to square one, or other people can do it better than me, or whatever that belief is. If they are pulling you and that belief is also powered by millions of people, sometimes billions of people, and if that pull is something we are experiencing, first thing is we need to notice that there is that pull, then we can start to disconnect from it.

That's why I really ask people these days to make a list of the beliefs that are not working for you, make a list of things that you would like to transform, things that you would like to let go of. You know, what they have experienced in their family, in their parents, in their grandparents. When they make that list and really when they take, let's say, 30 minutes or an hour really to go deep and create that list once, they can identify the pattern. They can identify what's showing up over and over and over again.

Once they identify, then they can create a strategy to transform them with these tools and programs so that they no longer bother them, because then we can redesign our option. We can start to focus on creation energy instead of all the old patterns. And that's the other reason why people get stuck, even sometimes when they have a lot of great systems that they're using, just constantly they go back and think about what are some of the things that happened, why that happened, who should have done what; you know, how it was unfair. The more people think about these... And we all do that. You know, the more we do that, we start to create those connections again. Then we go into an infinite loop of releasing and transforming and then reconnecting.

So let's not reconnect anymore. Let's just make that list once and really start to disconnect from each and every one of these items in your list and let's focus on creation energy.

Darius: Okay. We've got Mary, we've got Karen, we've got Carol, we've got Cathy, we've got Marvin, we've got quite a few people talking about manifestation and really manifestation of abundance. How do we manifest abundance? How do we create abundance? How do we become abundant? And so let's talk about that, the concept of abundance and how we begin to use some of these tools as they relate to bringing in abundance.

Mashhur: Absolutely. You know, abundance is actually our true nature. You know, we have moved away from abundance and we are in a vibration of lack and limitation. And we get these programs as we grow up. You know, we see information in the media, we hear information from other people and they get programmed in our subconscious.

So first thing is to note is that yes, all things are possible. Then as I was talking about making that list of things that are not working, you know, let's create that list. But I also talk about the other list, about what are the things that you would love to experience. That's the question I ask: What would you love to experience? And create that list. Because if I do not send out a signal out into the universe about the things that you would love to experience - the abundance, the relationship, the finances, the health and wellness, things that I'm looking for or things that I would love more of - unless I send out that signal on a continuous basis I can go back to old patterns.

So first step is really to look at things that are not working, then use the tools and programs to disconnect from each and every one of those items. But some of the powerful ways is... let's talk about that Access Infinity, that meditation that I ask people to start their day with. That journey or the meditation puts people in a heart space vibration and from that space, by melting into the sun, by using the sun's energy and our heart's energy we focus into our entire universe. We just start to radiate our intentions out to the entire universe. What would I love to experience? That's the question. And I don't ask people to think about all the things that are going wrong or all the things that they would like to change. It's simple. What would you love to experience?

Darius: Yeah.

Mashhur: 'I want to be debt-free' is not a positive experience that you would love to experience, because if you break down the word, would you bring the word 'debt' in your reality? Probably not.

Darius: Probably not, yeah.

Mashhur: Yeah. So if that's the case, if I said 'debt-free', debt is still that vibration. It is still the same.

So my goal is to experience a constant flow of abundance. So that is different from being debt-free. Having plenty of money is different from debt-free. So that Access Infinity meditation actually puts that, or helps people to send out that vibration, and I ask people to do that every morning. It's just a simple 12-minute journey. And people can stay in the vibration longer when they have more time, but at least spend that time once a day, you know, focusing on things that you would love to experience, radiate out the feelings from heart space, and then I ask people that question in that same meditation, or just send out that question actually into the universe: I wonder how my path of maximum harmony may unfold.

So it's generating curiosity. And when they operate from that space, things work really, really fast.

Darius: Yeah. So it's really taking that time. So everyone trying to manifest abundance, you want to create that space where you really take that time to create from this space of all possibilities, create from this space of infinity.

Now, Mashhur, there is another piece of this because as my life travelled I met so many people who it's almost as if something happened at one point in their life and the past seems to continue to almost haunt them. It's like there's this energy that's locked away from another event or a time in their life that just haunts any new vibration they try to create. What do we do about that? How do we complete and heal the past?

Mashhur: Well, you know, that's why we have also that Complete the Past processing. What did I call it? Yes, Complete Your Past. That's a processing. Because that keeps us stuck. Really, old patterns, old beliefs, bad relationships, losing money in a business or not getting the right promotion or, you know, having some kind of trauma.

So we get these things imprinted in our subconscious when they happen and it's almost like a panic signal that goes out from us, like the core of us. And we need to start to change that.

Darius: Yes.

Mashhur: We really need to feel that, heal that, and rise above that, because otherwise we go back to that old pattern and we keep repeating things. That's why when we complete all those old past connections energetically then we can shift out of them, then we can focus more on creation.

The other thing is also doing a personal Feng Shui. So it's not only for the home, but the Feng Shui is also needed for our personal space, for our physical, emotional, mental and spiritual bodies.

You know, we do physical detox sometimes, but when it comes to our emotional, mental, spiritual fields we're not doing much a lot of time. So that's why the Feng Shui Your Life track or the program was also developed so that we can actually create that Feng Shui and sacred space for our own field and hold that space all the time. Then we can only allow source purity to go through us and gradually we can disconnect from all of the old patterns and old beliefs that no longer serve us.

Darius: Incredible. And I want to feel... You know, for everybody here, just to let you know that we are very much listening to what's going on, and I would love for Mashhur to take some of the questions that you write in. So if you have a question for Mashhur... We've covered some of the aspects of creating a reality and the holographic universe. Know it is truly possible, it is truly doable, it is truly replicatable.

What are the questions for you? Do you want Mashhur to look into your energy field, to look into what's happening in your life? Send in your questions now at www.youwealthrevolution.com/now and just send that in, because what I want to do is I want to be sure that you got the help that you need.

And we've got quite a few – oh my gosh - quite a few questions just flying in. Mary is having a challenge. She says: 'I want to manifest $2,250 a month so she can live on her own. She's having challenges. When you hear that from Mary or you perceive her energy - she's in Pleasant Hill - what's going on in her life? How can she begin to create that and make that a reality?

Mashhur: So for Mary, age five and six showed up around her root chakra. So maybe something that she... I don't know if she would remember. But sometimes we hear things in the family around finances and I've seen that a lot. That it gets imprinted in kids. Maybe a lack about something or any kind of disharmony in the family. So look at that. Bring in light from the sun into your root chakra. But the other thing is we're talking about abundance setpoint or threshold. Look at where you are now. Look at the last three years. Look at your savings and income and start to go through the exercises in the Raise Your Abundance Threshold program to gradually change your setpoint for abundance so you can hold more money.

So it's not only increasing the income, but it's also about being able to hold more abundance. You want to raise your savings threshold and income threshold. So it's the overall abundance threshold, and again abundance is a flow of many things in harmony, not just finances.

When people have specific goals that this is how much I really need, this is one important thing people can do: sit down, write down why is it that you would need that amount. You know, in the media industry when I worked with them a number of years ago, I justified sitting down and writing everything down that how much do I really need? What is the basic? And what I did was I connected with my subconscious and higher consciousness. Think about having a meeting. If any of it looks silly or sounds silly, do that, because this way we start to send out signals to our subconscious about what it is that's happening.

Have a meeting with your subconscious and your higher consciousness; go through the list of the items that these are the things that I would love to accomplish and this is the basic or the absolute minimum that needs to happen, needs to flow through me.

Then work on redesigning reality, changing your abundance threshold, and running the abundance programs, and gradually raise your threshold of abundance.

When anybody holds a higher vibration of abundance, that money will flow through them. It's that simple. It's just a matter of getting out of the old patterns and beliefs about all the things that happened in life and all the examples about not making enough money. But disconnect from those, think about people that are very successful, people that you like and respect. Connect with their group consciousness.

There are a lot of authors, entrepreneurs that have a great abundance matrix. Connect with their abundance matrix. Think about a USB going in from your energy field to some of these people, so you can be empowered by these people.

So it's a step-by-step process. You know, the first step is just really to notice where we are and then decide what is it that we love to experience, and then just like a game, you know, we need to create strategies about how to succeed, how to change things that are not working, and how to create new things that would be beneficial moving forward.

Darius: Very powerful. And a ton of people have been writing in, sharing different things. Lily said: 'Is there a healing energy Mashhur can do for us to open us up to the energy occurring during this season of fall?' And we are going to be doing something, right Mashhur, towards the end of the call? So that may very well be exactly what Lily was wishing for.

Mashhur: Yeah. I mean, here's the other part. I think I mentioned this last time also. There are number of stars that are sending us a lot of new and different types of energy, and the next few months are very important. Over the next few years, people will start to face a lot of challenges, and that's because that's what's inside. We need to really release a lot of the old patterns and things that are not working, so all of us who are doing a lot of work for ourselves, things will get easier as we release these old patterns.

So whenever we have things coming up, understand it's not just you. There are billions of people around the planet that will have things coming out. Because it's simple. If I cut an orange and squeeze it, what I'm going to get is orange juice every time. If I do that with a lemon, I'm going to get lemon juice every time. I would never get apple juice because that's what's inside.

So if something happens and fear, anger, judgment, guilt, shame those come out of us, that means that's what we have inside us. We're holding them in our cellular memory, in our DNA, in our crystalline matrix, and we need to flush this out. The more we use these tools and programs... They are designed in a way to release all these old patterns, and when they are gone, they're gone.

We have space in a three-dimensional way of speaking. We have space to bring in more light, so our cells, our DNA, our crystals can hold more light. Then things become easier. Abundance or anything that we would love to experience, you know, we can manifest very easily. But it's really a shift that we are going through and there is no reason to blame anybody or point fingers, especially to yourself, because we are usually hard on ourselves. So let's get those out of the way, let's notice that things are coming up, let's be grateful that, okay, when I'm releasing them, I don't need to feel them anymore, so now I can hold more light and abundance.

So let's just focus on that and by using especially the Reprogram Your Neural Network tracks, we can actually change the neurons that fire around the words money, finance, success, wealth and abundance. Because if I think about money, if some part of me goes into a panic that I've heard when I was little - 'too much money corrupts people' or 'I've seen corruption around me' - if I go into those thoughts, then guess what? A part of me says: 'Well, you're a good person. You don't want that much money.'

So we need to stay away from them and need to reprogram the neural network so when we think about money, we can think about reaching out and helping millions of people, we can think about building schools and helping countries and areas where people really need help. But certainly before we do that we certainly need to help ourselves first. So know that everything is possible. Look at where we are. Let's change this. Let's create a strategy for the next few months to go through different programs and tracks step-by-step and let's rewrite our abundance matrix.

Darius: Yes. I agree, I agree. Now, we had Lynn just write into and said: 'Why is it that so many tasks and events to me seem overwhelming? Things just pile up. They're undone. The smallest task of paperwork or home repair seems impossible. Please can Mashhur tell me what might be going on with me?'

And certainly with Lynn and anyone else going through this, what is going on and what do you perceive from Lynn's energy field standpoint?

Mashhur: There is a lot of information in the emotional and mental field stored for maybe, you know, probably throughout the entire lifetime. So what I would first recommend is work with the sun. Think about creating tornadoes with the rays of the sun and bring those tornados - and we're going to do something like that in the exercise soon. But allow yourself to go through the tornado and just think about floating in the middle of that tornado. Allow the sun to basically take everything away that's not beneficial, and use the Feng Shui You Life tracks more when you... let's say, over the next few weeks to really harmonize your emotional and mental field.

Because when I look at your field, emotional and mental fields look much wider than they normally are. That means you're storing a lot of emotions and a lot of mental chatter in these fields. They show up in our energy field. So we need to kind of Feng Shui the emotional, mental fields. Not only eat and drink healthy food, but we also need to think about the other fields.

Darius: Okay. Very powerful for Lynn. Is there anything from different ages or times that maybe are influencing that for her that you're seeing?

Mashhur: There is an English timeline that I see. A lot of worry and fear and doubt. It could have been war time. I'm not 100% sure, because I would have to kind of investigate that a little more. But focus on that life time also. Use tools like the Rings of Harmony and other tools that most people have. Just focus on those timelines. You can create the tornados for those timelines. And here's the other thing. Any of these holographic tools and programs, you know, they are independent of timelines or planets or galaxies. You can use them anywhere - past, present and future it doesn't matter. So use them, harmonize those areas.

Darius: Very powerful. Okay, we've got another question coming in from, let's see... A bunch more came in. Okay, let's see. Another person wrote in. She said: 'I seem to be,' - this is Gina - 'I seem to be very scattered, not accomplishing anything and I don't know how to turn things around. Even my energy and health seem to be affected. What's going on and how do I begin to change?'

I love taking everyone's questions. I just feel so much... You know, we are just literally creating a whole new space for everybody. So for her, for Jean, what's going on and what would you recommend?

Mashhur: So for Jean also the important question is: What is it that you would love to experience? You know what you are experiencing now and what you don't want to experience anymore, but create a list. In the PDF that comes with this program, there are some worksheets where people can enter information. So think about that. What is it that you would love to experience? And work with the energy of the sun. Do the Feng Shui for your energy field and start to focus from your heart space. And run the tools for your work environment, your home environment and your thoughts, feelings, emotions that are creating disharmony in you. And notice them, unplug from them one by one, and start to focus on things that you would love to experience. That is really powerful. When you focus from your heart space and start to send out that vibration constantly, it becomes very simple.

Initially, we may go through a lot of mind chatter and go back and forth, but when we create a routine that every day for at least this... You know, this Infinity Access meditation is only 12 minutes long. But when we create that intention that every day I will focus on that meditation for at least 10 minutes, 12 minutes or 20 minutes, whatever time is allowed, when we do that and focus purely from our heart space, send out the vibration of the things we would love to experience, the universe responds. We start to get back more of that energy.

So really it's about releasing old patterns - and they're going to come up. What we have inside us, you know, the stars are helping them. It's not like the stars are bringing up some stuff we don't want to go through. We need to go through and clean up anything. Because if we have bacteria inside you that's not helping you, you want to give these out, you want to flush these out. So that's what the stars are helping us to do. And really focus on yourself.

Even some of you - you know, Jean, Mary and others - even some of you don't have much time. Still make that intention that 'I'm going to spend at least 15 minutes for myself, or at least 30 minutes for myself.' Do that. Create that for yourself. Make that obligation to yourself, not to anybody else, but do that for yourself, because once you really can get out of some of these densities and transform that, you'll be amazed how the next few years turn out.

Darius: Incredible. And I've heard this again and again that life flows so much easier with these tools. So I want... Karen, who... You know, Mashhur has worked with so many companies and individuals to help them increase abundance. It's not just people like me and you but even large companies. So there's something here for Karen I want to get to. She says: 'How can I have more clients for my business?' Karen's asking. And she says: 'Mashhur, do you see a financial block?' This is Karen in Concord who's asking this question.

Mashhur: Either... well, there's a male figure, either a father or grandfather. Think about your relationship on what they have gone through. There's a subroutine that it's executed around money for you. So run the Rings of Harmony around that, bring in the tornado from the star... from the sun – well, you can do it from the star too if you've worked with them. But start to do that and focus on creation energy. What is it that you would love to experience? And that should not be: 'I want be, let's say, I want to move out of density'. It should be things that you would really love to experience. Maybe a new home or maybe helping people around the planet or creating schools. Whatever they are write them down and work on rewriting your abundance matrix. Gradually, step-by-step, start to do that on a daily basis.

The way we would go for jobs or businesses or do things that are time-sensitive, we also need to take that time for ourselves to work on ourselves, because either we can spend the time now with these tools and rewrite our abundance matrix or we can go through a lot of density for the next few years. Let's not do that. Let's disconnect from those because options are available now. So really focus on creation energy, and when you run the tools, run those for your family members, run those for your ancestors, like doing the Feng Shui not only for your energy field, but do this for your ancestors. Go back ten generations, twelve generations.

You know, you may notice a difference over the next few weeks or few months, but when you start to notice them, make a note of them mentally and they become your reference points. So whenever in the future you do other things, then you can be powered by these reference points that, okay, the last 15 times all these great things happened to me and I know the same will happen again. So we build up reference points of success.

Darius: Yeah. I love that and I believe that to be so true for everybody here. One big question that seems to be coming up is really getting into the heart space. And I know one of the things we're going to be doing is an installation that's going to actually help people create and move from a different space.

Margaret's got a quick question about getting into that heart space. She says: 'Is there a way that you can tell when you are in your heart space?' I think that's a brilliant question, Margaret. How can you tell, Mashhur, when you're in your heart space? And then from Margaret do you see anything that may be blocking her from being in that heart space? She is in M-I-S-S-I-S-S-A-U-G-A - Mississauga? I'm terrible with pronunciations.

Mashhur: I think that might be in... I think it's in Canada, yes.

Darius: Okay, Canada.

Mashhur: I think that's in Ontario most likely. Well, first of all an image from the Civil War showed up.

Darius: Oh wow.

Mashhur: So focus on that timeline. Also a timeline in Portugal. Look at Google maps and look at which city in Portugal attracts you. So run the tools around those timelines and around you and all the people that you may have interacted with. That's one thing.

But when you talk about being in heart space, initially we can sort of fake it. Think about being in a heart space, focus on your heart, and notice consciously... make that effort to consciously see the environment in a different way, the way you would see with your eyes. When you see from your heart, think about the environment is more wavy, almost like a heat wave going through you. So this way, by doing this, you are actually sending out a signal to your subconscious that when I'm in my heart space this is how I see my environment. So however you notice the difference...

Initially you may want to just create a difference mentally or visually this way, you know, especially... If you don't see that well yet, then do it in another way. Think about a particular feeling that you may generate from your heart space. So, by doing that you can tell the difference. You know, from your eyes, when you're looking through your head, your eyes in your normal waking state, then the way you see things could be different from how you notice things from your heart space. It's more vibration-oriented. So that's why I was saying think about the environment around you is more energetic, it's more wavy, it's fluctuating.

So you can create that visual for you and then at some point your subconscious picks up that instruction and automatically does that for you and automatically generates that feeling. So when you focus on the Access Infinity meditation, notice your thoughts and your feelings - primarily your feelings when you're in that space. So that's how you are going to initially train yourself and then it becomes automatic.

Darius: Incredible. Okay, so we're getting some very powerful suggestions and I love that, because what this really is about is changing the hologram, changing the way that we interact with this holographic universe.

So get this. If we are coming from that place or attached to that morphic field or we have that neural connection to poverty, to lack of abundance, to heartbreak, to loneliness, to frustration – all of those different levels of interaction of our being. If we are coming from that space, the hologram, unless we create an alternate, gives us that.

And so one of the things that we talked about with Mashhur... I said: 'You know, I want people not only to get a taste of your work and really understand how powerful it can be - I think everyone gets this – but I want them to have a tool today that they can begin to use, maybe in conjunction with a deeper work or maybe just leave today and have an amazing tool.'

Can we do a gift installation today, Mashhur, for everybody on the line? And everybody that hears the replay I've got news for you. This is going to be just as powerful whether you hear it live or on the replay. Mashhur, can we do that?

Mashhur: Absolutely. We can use a fun tool and start to work with it. So we can do a short journey if you'd like.

Darius: Okay. Yeah, I'd love to do it.

Mashhur: Alright. So let's do a little bit of processing. Let's close our eyes and let's breathe in and out deeply and gently a few times. I'm going to activate the Harmonic Shield for each and every one of you to create a sacred space of neutrality and non-judgment. And I will place all of you inside a group harmonic shield and as a group let's journey to the center of our sun.

The way trees need sunlight, the planet needs sunlight, we also need sunlight. Our chakras, our meridians, our cells, our atoms, the mitochondria in our cells, they all need sunlight. So work with the sun every day. Let's flush out energy fields with the rays of the sun. Notice them going through your cells, your atoms, your DNA, your chakras and your meridians.

And I'm going to create a large tornado with the rays of the sun and allow that to go through your physical, emotional, mental, spiritual bodies. Your thoughts, feelings, emotions, all old patterns that are not beneficial anymore, notice the tornado going through everything, every cell, every atom. And focus on your heart. Think about being able to see through your heart.

What does your environment look like? If you're not sure, you can just think about your environment looking more wavy. There's less mind chatter. There's less thought. It's just a feeling of noticing. It's peaceful. And know that all options are available.

And I'm going to look at your connections to lack, limitations, and let's disconnect those. Think about the word 'success'. Keep repeating the word 'success'. I can notice what gets highlighted in your energy field and what sparks, what neurons light up. And the neurons that are not connecting you to something beneficial, let's gradually turn them down. Let's them make a less reactive to the word 'success' or the vibration or the feelings around 'success'. And let's scan for neurons that are connected with success patterns. Whether it's for yourself or others, it doesn't matter. We want those neurons to fire up. Think about golden light going through your DNA, your cells, your atoms. This light is bringing in new information for you for the next few years around success.

Now I'll give you access to a tool called the Golden Frisbee. I'll give you an installation file for your consciousness. You can call it anytime by saying 'activate golden Frisbee'. And on this Frisbee, on the top of the Frisbee, there's a space where you can put your goals or your intentions. Place one goal on this golden Frisbee. Now let's gently send it out to the center of the universe. It gets processed there and you get information back and it automatically gets integrated for you. There's nothing to do. Whether it comes back immediately or later, it doesn't really matter. You can receive when you're ready to receive.

Now let's focus on your heart space again and let's ask the question: What would I love to experience now? Think about one thing you would love to experience in life now. What would they do for you? How would that help you? How would that bring out your gift and talents? When you have accomplished that, what would it feel like? How much joy can it bring? Start moving to that vibration of that joy and being grateful and being happy and being abundant.

If you have any difficulty, you can certainly connect with some of the highlights in your life, some of the greatest moments. And think about ten times that, hundred times that. Start to notice your feelings from your heart space and notice the ripples going out from your heart space and this entire universe is vibrating with your intentions, your goals, your desires.

Think about the light of your heart expanding and gradually it's becoming bigger than this solar system. It's becoming bigger than this galaxy. It's filling up this entire universe. It is your entire universe. And let's just hold that vibration for maybe 30 seconds about the thing that you would love to experience.

And let's breathe in and out, deeply and gently a few more times. Now as a group let's come back to earth and the present moment. Rub your hands together and gently open your eyes.

Darius: Wow. I'm here. A lot of people writing in just a huge amount of comments. That has to be, Mashhur, one of the most powerful activations that we've ever, ever done. I'm still, as I look out, I'm just feeling myself and seeing myself surrounded by this beautiful white pink light, and just vibrating at a space of those things that I want to create and I feel like there's a different field of energy around me is what I feel like. It's a very different space. It's like you said: plugged in my USB cable to a whole other network. And I think this is what is what is going on here, right, Mashhur? I mean, people are plugging into a totally different network.

Share what happened, what's going on, what maybe was the thing that you totally wanted to experience or that you held out as that space that you wanted to be in. So share that with us and just kind of let us know where you're at. Are you still there? Are you okay? What happened during this incredible process?

Mashhur, what happened to our bodies and our fields during that process? There was a lot going on, I could feel it, and I can feel it from the audience.

Mashhur: Well, see, one of the things that happened is people decided to tap into their heart space. And when we expanded our light we filled up this entire universe. Each of us has our own universe, like our own laptop, our own workstation, our own home. We have our own construct of a universe. And my universe can look different from your universe based on my thoughts and feelings.

So when we fill up that entire universe together we are combining all of our heart space energies and, you know, those of you who had questions about heart space, think about those feelings, what you've noticed. Maybe that's how you feel your heart space. Now you have a reference point about what it may feel like.

So when we do this, we send out energetically a vibration about our desires to all times, all points in our space time. So when we do that from a place of neutrality and non-judgment, we can allow the information to show up very easily because all options exist. It's just simply a matter of allowing the right information to go through us. That's why I ask, you know: What would you love to experience? Because all possibilities exist.

So when you focus on one particular thought and when people get more used to it by using the basic and advanced versions they can move more into sending out multiple vibrations at the same time. But initially just focus on the one thing. Bring down the vibration and hold that. You know, the more we hold that vibration, the easier it gets for our consciousness to shift from this reality and create another – almost like a mirror-effect and shift to another reality consciously which holds the answers that we are looking for.

It's a very powerful process and it's simple, but we just need to get used to it and we need to take time to create a routine to actually do them. You know, a lot of times what happens is people have all the tools, all the programs sitting on their computer. If nobody is using them, then nobody is getting benefit from them. So really use them.

Darius: Yeah. And this deeper work that you do is really about plugging in and then letting you go in, and using the tools with them to transform their energy and their reality. So it doesn't need to be a difficult process. It's not. It's a very harmonious flow.

One person, Jane in London: 'I saw a golden light. I was moving through time, through space.'

Another person wrote in and said: 'This is my first time and I went from being scared to grounded in confidence. I went from worrying about a disaster to feeling magical.'

We had another person write in and said: 'Thank you for helping me welcome success. I feel expanded. Beautiful energy.'

Judy Cowling from Chino said: 'Thank you for the infinite bliss of connectivity and universal reality.'

Jean said: 'I have gone from I can't to I can.'

Another person said: 'I am expanded. I feel beautiful energy.'

Another person, Samaria, says: 'Love, harmony, beauty, phenomenal joy and gratitude.'

Mrs. Blaze said that... Mr. Blaze, excuse me, said: 'I feel light as pink, rosy light. This is the future of humanity, the new network indeed.'

Another person wrote in and said: 'I feel so much brighter.'

Another person said: 'I feel expansion and calmness.'

This is in every direction people are feeling this. So keep sharing what's going on, what you felt during this, so that we can be sure that you get everything you deserve.

You know, one of the things that I love to do by sharing this is really connecting people to the fact that these energies are changing lives, these energies are changing the way people feel instantly. And you can go from being in a place of absolute desperation to a place of huge possibility and reality can change that fast. That fast. Wow.

One person, Lori, said: 'For the meditation I brought up past, negative events that were filled with fear. I asked to experience harmony from those past nightmares and now I feel at peace and I did see the golden Frisbee fly around and now I feel great.'

I want to hear what happened with the golden Frisbee.

Another person Monica: 'That was amazing. Thank you so much. I had a smile on my face.' She says: 'I want to create more and more golden Frisbees and I want to activate them.'

Another person... You know, a lot of people were just seeing huge things happen. 'I felt light. I felt energy.' It's just all coming in. Mashhur, I mean, is this normal when you do this kind of process for people to begin feeling that? And how long does that generally last?

Mashhur: You know, we want to move into a stage where this is about we hold 24/7.

Darius: 24/7, yeah.

Mashhur: That's where we need that multidimensional existence. You know, normally people feel a lot, and the trick is there's a lot of people still who may not have been exposed to the energetic side of things. They're pretty new. Or they are saying: 'I don't feel anything. I don't see anything.' It's because simply they haven't noticed how their body responds. So that's why I ask them: What sensations do you get? Where in your body? When you focus on those then you may notice. Because somebody's palm may just feel tingly when they're expanded. You know, they don't have to see light - or maybe they will - but maybe there are other ways.

So notice your sensations. Notice how information shows up and then you can build on top of that. But it's pretty normal when people are expanded they will feel this, they will feel the joy, harmony and really think about this heart space, you know, feeling like this, and think about feeling like this all the time. Think about being able to hold this all the time.

Darius: Yeah. I want to talk about how people can begin to make sure at all levels they hold this, and I know that this has been one of the most popular programs here at You Wealth Revolution – in fact, maybe the most popular - because it really goes deep at all levels and this feeling that people are starting to feel, this goodness, this life-changing vibration is something they'll begin to experience at all levels of their being, and it's really about taking this and expanding.

I want to share first of all kind of where it is, because it's pretty special. It's at www.youwealthrevolution.com/mashhur2013.

And, Mashhur, tell us about the deeper work. I mean, taking what we did here and moving it to another level. Accessing Infinity, Feng Shui For Your Life, Completing the Past, Reprogramming the Neural Networks, and much, much more. Even your own... Gosh, even your own incredible processes that you use are all included in here as well.

Mashhur: Yes. You know, the interesting thing is this package... this is one package but it's actually two. There's a basic version and an advanced version. And the difference is the advanced version is also encoded with music and the background music has a lot of information encoded, a lot of holographic data and instructions to help people expand, open up higher chakras, allow more love, joy, harmony and abundance in life.

So there are two versions. And what I ask people is to certainly focus on the basic first before they go into the advanced version.

So the first item is the Access Infinity meditation. It is very, very powerful. It's just a 12-minute long meditation and what people do is really access their heart space the way we have done earlier today, and from there people want to start to send out vibrations about their desires, about what they love to experience. So when they start to send out that vibration and they can start to access the creation matrix instead of all the blocked patterns, then the universe can respond very, very fast.

So this is a very powerful way to quickly shift awareness, to get out of stress anxiety and detach from old patterns that are not beneficial. So it's just a 12-minute simple process and I ask people to start their day with Access Infinity. However, if the morning is hectic, do it at night. Do it at a different time of the day. But really get into the habit of doing this every day until you start to hold that vibration. The more people do this, they feel that they can maintain this love for longer periods of time, you know, the way some people were asking earlier.

Darius: Okay. Very, very important to be able to hold this, because it's in holding it that we begin to see things change consistently. Let's talk about the New Life Pattern and Accessing Infinity. Tell me about that piece. That's Item One here. Tell me about it.

Mashhur: So this is really helping people to expand their consciousness. The next few months are really important for us to open up to new possibilities so that we can create a foundation for the next few years and maybe for our life. But as we release old patterns and as we start to focus on the creation energy, we can really focus on redesigning our reality, because all options are available. So we can learn to shift our awareness and move through different grids in space time and different options.

So this meditation is really, really powerful for that and the more people get used to it then they can access this anytime, even without the meditation, because they're just used to this and their field vibrates at that level. So when we focus on that question – you know, what would I love to experience? - not tomorrow, not next month, next year, just now. What is it that I would love to experience? And constantly, at any given moment we get used to that vibration, what would I love to experience at any given moment? So we start to send out that vibration 24/7 and then it becomes so simple for us to really hold that energy and really design our new reality.

Darius: Wow. That's the first piece of this. I mean, is that really the grounding point? Is that one of the most important things that people can begin to start doing?

Mashhur: Absolutely. And this is why I ask people to start their day with this. Because when they actually set their foundation for that day using this meditation, the rest... you know, it doesn't even matter what shows up. But they can know that they're starting a great foundation and it can only go up. So even if things come up throughout the day, because we can still release and transform a lot of the old patterns and they may come up, but it's our opportunity to flush them out so really then we can hold a lot more light inside us.

So that's just one item and it is just so powerful. You know, sometimes I spend 30 minutes to an hour a day with this, especially when I go into the hologram, redesigning, reprogramming things, creating new programs. I use this all the time and it's really fun. When we get the idea about that especially like the advanced version with the music, to me it's awesome and really we can have fun with that.

Darius: Yeah. A big question for a lot of people is like the stuck energy and that energy that really is not theirs that they seem to be plugging into, that they want to detox from, that they want to leave some of that energy by cleansing out their chakras. I think Item Two is about that as well, right? It's about cleansing and harmonizing. Tell me about Item Two on this page.

Mashhur: So the Item Two is great for that, any kind of detox, deep cleansing. The basic version goes through the first seven chakras; the advanced version goes to the higher chakras, also the first two all chakras.

So when we use Feng Shui Your Life we actually balance the flow of the elements - earth, water, air and fire - for our energy field and we can start to detox and raise our vibrations instantly and we can get used to redesigning our environment. The awesome thing is for the... when it comes to the advanced version, people can also play that and harmonize the area or harmonize their home - they can do the Feng Shui for their home - but it also starts to radiate the energy out to the neighborhood, to the city state. So the more we use that we will notice that the environment around us is also changing.

Darius: Okay. Very powerful. The next piece here is Completing the Past. This is something done energetically, right? So you talk about a few different areas. And this is a great list. Financial commitments. How do we complete them so that we get a flow of abundance? How do we free ourselves from energetic and physical burdens? How do we harmonize past relationships? Heal your heart, energetically heal broken promises and commitments, integrate energy and information from the earth and the sun to harmonize past events. Do we have to go back and relive all of these events or can we simply harmonize them and get them out of our fields forever?

Mashhur: Well, that's the idea. They come up because we are holding them inside us. So by integrating the energy from this track and by working with that on a regular basis what we do is we heal all this broken stuff. They're like broken electrical sockets. You know, it's just something waiting to happen.

Let's not do that. Let's harmonize them. Let's heal them. Let's complete these past connections whether they are commitments or broken promises or things we have said we would do but didn't, or something that happened that was not beneficial, anything that created trauma. It doesn't matter what they are. But we can create that list and then go through the list one by one and really complete those items energetically.

I also ask people to take physical actions when possible because this way they're not avoiding something, because then we can really harmonize that. Because, you know, the subconscious knows, your heart consciously knows, so there's no way people can trick their higher consciousness and get around something. It's time to take responsibility. The things that we need to do and say, let's do that energetically, harmonize that. But when we can take physical actions we also send out signals to the universe that look, this is what I'm doing. I'm harmonizing this at all levels, so allow the information to go through me easily.

So it's a very powerful one and again we have the basic and advanced. Advanced is encoded with music. And all people need to do is really make the intention about what is it that they're completing and listen to the track. There is nothing else to do. Just sit back, relax, be in your heart space and listen to the tracks and answer questions. That's it. It's that simple.

Darius: You know, I get the feeling of release for a lot of people and just freeing from the past is a big one. So if there's anybody here that you're feeling like things in the past are still coming up or you're reliving that, this may definitely be... Item Three, the one that's going to really move you into that space you want to be in.

It's at www.youwealthrevolution.com/mashhur2013. And all of this is included in the package that Mashhur is offering, the deeper work.

Item Four, The Neural Network. I mean, we talked about this a little bit that we have holographic technology now that can change the firing of neurons, deactivate those that are corresponding to failures, to pains, to heartache in our life and create new patterns. Let's talk a little bit about what's in Item Five as we keep redesigning our reality.

Mashhur: Oh, absolutely. This package was designed around this program and really, once we are harmonizing the environment, the Feng Shui for our home and office and our energy field... when we are doing that and we are completing and healing ourselves, our past, then we need to really reprogram our neural network. There are things that are firing. They're neurons that are firing automatically and when we go to experience this, it happens, you know. It's just how we are built in.

Let's say on a highway and I take an exit and I see a traffic jam - I see too many cars and it takes me an hour to go through that. Next time I'm going to take the same exit I'm going to ask myself: 'I wonder if the traffic jam is going to be there.' Let's say there's a traffic jam again. The third time, guess what? The neurons fire along traffic jam. Automatically my system is telling me there is going to be a traffic jam. The fourth time, you know, it's just automatic. There's a traffic jam. I know there's going to be a traffic jam. And people are frustrated.

So that's how it works. When these neurons keep firing, you know, because they're running automatic programs in the background, you know, they are not beneficial for us. So we want to change them and we want the firing to happen around the beneficial neurons. So when it comes to abundance, we want all the neurons that are connected with, let's say, great things to fire up.

And really in this program what I ask people to do is I ask people to keep repeating the words 'money', 'finance', 'success', 'wealth' and 'abundance' over and over and over again. And what I do is for each one of these words I look at... or in this track the process looks at the areas in the energy field that get highlighted or the neurons that get fired by these words, because words are sound, sound is vibration.

So when we see that there are a whole bunch of neurons that are firing up that are not beneficial, that are not connected with success, gradually those neurons are dampened - and that's the term to be used in science. But think about not allowing the neurons to make the connections. Think of putting some sponge or golden light and other healing energy around the neurons so they don't fire that strongly, and gradually you reduce the intensity, and at some point they're not going to fire around these words.

And then what happens is the neurons that are beneficial and connected with success and abundance, they get re-met. So then when you're thinking about money or finance or abundance, you are empowered by a lot more new neurons that immediately fire up, that allow you to generate the right vibration.

So this is a very powerful program to really rewrite the neural network around abundance and success.

Darius: Wow. Glenda wrote in. She said: 'I felt an instant shift on multi levels and I knew I must keep going and keep going. The information was instantaneous.'

So, you know, big question that came in with somebody is separating themselves energetically from another person. As we look at this next program, Reprogramming Your Threshold for Love, there's two thresholds for abundance. How many of us want more financial abundance, more harmony in our life and money and how many want more abundance in love and relationships and threshold to love and relationships? Let's talk about those two, because relationships are coming up quite a bit.

Mashhur: Yes. So we have these thresholds or comfort zones and we want to gradually raise them and we always want to raise them on a continuous basis because otherwise we go back to the old programming.

If somebody's abundance comfort zone is between $80,000 and $100,000 and let's say that person has a really good year and makes $140,000 this year. Guess what? The car breaks down, something in the home needs repairing, someone in the family needs money. The money is going to go out because it's above that threshold.

Like those neural networks or the neurons firing, they send out this panic vibration that, wait a minute. I have gone beyond my allowed space, my allowed abundance. I don't know what's going to happen. This is an unknown territory. Let's go back and let's stay between $80,000 and $100,000.'

So that happens in abundance, that happens for relationship, that happens for health. You know, in relationship we see that we attract people with similar qualities. You know, we may think this is a completely different person but I have no idea how this person has done the exact same thing, how the exact same thing shows up.

So these are all thresholds. We need to really notice them and then reprogram our thresholds. The people get some visual guidance. There are pictures in the PDF that they can use. And by listening to these two tracks they really can reprogram the threshold for abundance and love so that more of those energies can flow through people, flow through all of us. Because ultimately all options are available. So, you know, we would love to experience more love and more joy and more abundance in life. So these tracks would help people to solidify that.

Darius: The next thing I noticed too was there's a PDF guide to help people through it so they can do it, and there's also an upcoming... we probably need to change the date there, but an upcoming live Q&A call and a help call.

Mashhur: Yeah, the PDF basically goes through an explanation, also gives people ideas about how they can listen to different tracks and go back and forth between the two versions of how they can use other holographic tools and programs as, you know, so many people actually have multiple packages. And people learn to do that through the PDF.

We had a really powerful group coaching call on the 14th and since it's a new package I'm adding one new one on November 14th.

Darius: Ooh, boy. Okay.

Mashhur: So people can go through that and we can go through many more questions. Because, you know, now as people are getting used to these tools and programs, they're coming up with all kinds of innovative ways of doing things, and people are really having fun and I love that. So yeah that's why I wanted to add one more coaching call so that we can have more fun redesigning reality and then we can go and help others.

Darius: Yeah. Fantastic. So there is a time to get that group coaching from Mashhur. That's going to be updated on the page. It's November 14th. So just in a couple of weeks. And even if you're hearing this after likely there'll be something else coming up. So just know you're going to get the help you need. That's the key. It's at www.youwealthrevolution.com/mashhur2013. It comes with everything to redesign your reality, but bigger than that, to really begin unplugging yourself from those non-beneficial connections. I want you to imagine, you know, if you've got a TV screen and you're watching something in your house and there's these images coming forward and you're looking at that as reality and that being our life and you say: 'You know, I don't like these images. They're disturbing. They don't suit me. They're not what I wish for. They don't expand my heart.' Well, you can't plug that TV back into that cable box and expect that if you don't change the channel or you don't change what you plug it into, that that's going to ever change or dissolve. It's going to keep coming through that television.

And our lives and our reality are very much like that. We can change the network. We can change the connection. We can change the channel to even simplify it beyond that, in essence detaching from these non-beneficial connections of our holographic universe.

And so this is what it's about. But beyond that there are things we carry both in our internal and in our external world that we also want to unplug from. So in our internal world we must detox our own energy field. We are the creator. We must unplug from the past and change the way we view it. That's what the free gift today, the Golden Frisbee was about.

We also must reprogram what we expect so that our neural network... we can actually from our neurons begin to fire at a level of more abundance, of more love, of more gratitude. And then we even want to get help sometimes when maybe we've done it all and we just want to be sure we're doing it right, and that's why Mashhur has given us this 2-hour coaching call that's coming up. So all of it's there. Mashhur, just incredible. And you've also offered it at a huge discount, 94% off. It's 127. A $2,283. There's a 30-day money-back guarantee.

Mashhur, any thoughts coming up or anything else that you want people to know?

Mashhur: Well, you know, I would really like people to create a three-month plan for them because the next few months are very important. Let's do a lot of release work. But focus on creation. You know, do the release work, transform everything, but focus on creation. Really what would you love to experience? Ask that question to yourself and really go through that meditation every day and focus on possibilities. This way we can set the foundation for the next few years, because the energies that are coming in from the stars are very, very powerful. We will have a lot of things coming up. Humanity will go through many shifts over the next few years. So the more we prepare, we create a universe where things become easy and they're fluid and they're more fun. So we want to do all the things. We want to have fun and we also want to be in abundance.

So, you know, just notice what shows up. No judgment. No blaming yourself or others. Just notice what shows up. If you don't like something then think about that question - What would you rather experience? – and focus on that energy. So let's be in that creation energy and really let's enjoy this life.

Darius: I love that. And I wanted to ask this big question. I mean, these are the tools that you use yourself. And, I mean, literally you came from being in a whole different industry and literally almost very quickly rose to the top in consciousness and done so well. Tell me just really quick, I mean, how these tools have impacted your life.

Mashhur: Well, unless something works for me 100% I do not believe, because my technology background goes through all these simulations and I also have a lot of people in my network that are very sensitive to energy. They see more, hear more, feel more and they all test the tools.

So when I am satisfied and I know exactly what's happening, that's when I release. Because by using each one of the tools, the first thing is I need to change myself first. If I'm looking for abundance, that means I must be able to create abundance in my life even before teaching others how to do that, because I can only teach from my experience. So they have to work for me 100% all the time.

And since we are working with the information that creates our universe, our hologram, our reality, we are tapping into the source code. That's why they work really fast. And a lot of times people start to use the tools and programs without knowing why. They don't know why and they just know they're attracted, because at a deeper level they know, their subconscious or their heart consciousness knows that the information is coming in to help redesign reality. That's why they get really attracted to using these tools.

Darius: I love it. I love it. Well, everyone, this is the incredible Mashhur Anam. We've had - oh my gosh - just a huge number of comments coming in. So many people writing in with differences and things happening in their life, and still more and more questions. I've got to say this: one of the biggest things I love about Mashhur is his connection to people that take part in his work and his caring and compassion to make a big difference in someone's life.

We had a big question, Mashhur, from someone who said: 'Can I use this to disconnect from the energies of a bad divorce?'

Mashhur: Absolutely. That is the Complete Your Past program. So disconnect but then don't entertain. Because one thing that people do is they use the tools to redesign reality but then they go in and they create an award-winning movie around all the things that they didn't like. So don't do that, because the more you keep thinking about who should have done what and what should've could've happened, you know, you tap into that old energy. So let that go. Heal that, disconnect from that, and then focus on the question: What would you love to experience? and redesign reality that way.

Darius: Beautiful. Another person's asking about smoking and kind of constructing a new reality where they no longer smoke. Is that something you've seen happen with these tools?

Mashhur: Absolutely. So the goal is not no longer smoking, because that's still smoking, but the goal is perfect health and wellness. So complete the past about smoking, bring in all the solutions. Think about, you know, giving energetic solutions to yourself so that you don't need to smoke anymore and you're healthy and you're making a decision to be healthy and think about that question: what would you love to experience?

You'd love to experience all the things, but don't send out vibration about smoking or not smoking, because they're still about smoking. So send out the vibration about perfect health, organic living, healthy and joyful environment with yourself, your friends, families and whoever you want to invite. Have fun. So focus on the experience and creation energy.

Darius: Well, I want to welcome and thank everybody for being here. This program is available at www.youwealthrevolution.com/mashhur2013. On that page you're going to see everything we talked about. It is all there, including some incredible bonuses that you can get as well. And all of that is available for you.

I just want to wish everybody just huge love. This is one of our most popular transformation programs, so if you're feeling that it's time and you want to step into something that's gentle, that's harmonious, then this is absolutely an incredible package for you.

Mashhur, thank you for being here. Thank you for coming back. Thank you for doing the installation. I mean, this is going to blow up our networks because... and it's good because so many people are going to want the installation, especially after all the incredible results that have happened from it. Thank you so much for being so generous and giving us all of this and more.

Mashhur: Oh, it's my pleasure. I love the people. I love the group. And we all have the same goal, to create a harmonious environment, to experience a planet that is filled with joy. And let's do that together. Because, you know, the important thing is we know from scientific research that it takes the square root of one percent of a population to create a shift. So when we start to come together and when that number increases and when people go deeper, then the effect is exponentially more powerful.

Darius: I love it. I love it. For somebody dealing with fear or really feeling like it's just not possible for them, any quick words or anything that you feel come up from your heart?

Mashhur: Well, all things are possible. So that's just a belief system, and there are millions of people around the planet with that same belief system. Identify what's showing up, really write down all the things that you'd like to transform or change or let go off, disconnect from them one by one, and focus on creation energy. Really focus on that energy. What would you love to experience? And if you're not sure about how to answer that, notice that. You know, the words that you want to bring in to your reality, each word has a vibration. So I want to release fear. You know, that's not something that you would want to experience. That's still about fear. What would you love? You want joy, harmony. You'd love to experience those things.

So really focus on the qualities that you would love to experience. Be in your heart space. Start to send this out every day, without judgment, without looking at results. Because initially you can go back and forth and have kind of mini tennis match with your other parts or old patterns that are coming up for you or your old self. It's okay. Know that once you are doing the things, things will change.

Just like watering a plant. You don't take up the seed every day to see if it's growing. It will never grow then. So you're just bringing in information and watering your thoughts, your feelings, your inner self, your inner joy, and allow that to come out. So really disconnect from things that are not working and stop creating stories around those thoughts. So focus on creation energies and allow this universe to deliver miracles for you.

Darius: I love it. Well, totally beyond the matrix and creating from the hologram and recreating your hologram. Mashhur, thank you so much for being here and being back. What an honor and pleasure it's been.

Mashhur: It's my pleasure. Thank you for having me.

Darius: Thank you. Thank you. That is the incredible Mashhur Anam and I think what we got today, was... it's probably one of the best sessions we've ever had with Mashhur. I mean, so much back and forth and so many readings and energetic readings and then this incredible process that we got and then the incredible tools to go and live that and go beyond that is in this holographic package.

So I just want to thank everybody and thank you for being here and sharing this space with us, letting us do this, letting us bring these tools into humanity and into the universe, because it is time that we begin to use these just like we use a pencil or a pen or a computer or a car or a phone, that these are part of our day-to-day living.

Can you imagine what the world would be like if everybody used these tools? Can you imagine the way your life would be like when you understand what Mashhur is sharing and when you use it, right? There's no doubt your life will get better, your life will change. There's no doubt in my mind it will get better. And that's what we want to bring to you.

So if this is a great fit for you, I'm just so happy and I'm so glad we were able to share. Much love. We'll see you on the next You Wealth Revolution call. To go deeper you can go to www.youwealthrevolution.com/mashhur2013.
