Activating Soulfulness: Igniting Your Limitless Possibility

Darius: Hello and welcome, everyone. You're tuning into the You Wealth Revolution Instant Awakenings and I am so excited. This is Day One of the awakening and we literally spent the last 15 minutes, if you were on early, in an incredible intention session and awakening circle for peace in the Middle East and your own awakening and we had people all over the world literally submitting what's going on in their life, their challenges, their needs. We're going to do this every single day you get on with and we submit that into the high energy circle to bring more light, to bring more love into your life.

If you are new here with us I just want to welcome you and ask the question: if there's ever been a time that you maybe were told you couldn't do something or maybe there was a desire in your heart that was do great and you still feel that desire, you still want to make something happen in your life that matters to you, and you're wondering if maybe that light has been turned off or maybe it's not possible anymore; there's that thought coming in. I want you to know that it is possible. I want you to know that here we will stand with you, we will stand for you and we will be your light, your higher energy, to raise you into the life you were born to live. And that's my mission, my passion.

I'm Darius Barazandeh, the host and founder of the You Wealth Revolution, and welcome.

Today we have an incredible guest. So what I would love you to do is share this with your friends and family. Go to youwealthrevolution.com/now - N-O-W and at the very bottom of the Now page there's also a sharing app where you can share with friends and family. Just say: 'Hey, we've got an incredible call with Panache Desai. Exercises and processes and things that are going to be happening to move energy and to transform your life.'

You can also submit your questions to us, because I want to hear and know what you need to know from Panache. What are you needs? What's going on in your life? There's also a question and answer box there on that page and much more. So you can go there - youwealthrevolution.com/now - N-O-W.

And we are going to be talking about the truth about activating soul fullness. How do you activate your limitless possibility? How do you ignite your limitless possibility? And I have a few questions for you. What if your soul was informing you of your health, finances, job and relationship? What if you could harness the limitless, the abundant, the endless energy of your soul and make it a part of your daily life? And I'll say this: what if by doing that your health, your finances, your job, your relationships change?

We're seeing it more and more. Science is already talking and proving that all of these things are very much connected to the energy of the soul, the energy of the heart, the energy of the infinite self. And what if everything you dreamed of was possible by connecting in this state?

Now, Panache is here. He's one of our most popular guests and an incredible phenomenon. He's going to show us and help us to navigate a bridge tot his infinite energy that lives inside of you. You are going to be able to meet with any limitations you have, that you believe, that you perceive, with tenderness and openness and you're going to access vibrational doors to your soul so authentically that it becomes your new normal.

Panache Desai is a contemporary spiritual leader and an inspirational visionary whose gift of vibrational transformation has drawn thousands of people from around the world. Not aligned with any religious or spiritual tradition, he acts as a direct line to divine consciousness, helping in empowering people to free themselves of pain and suffering, sadness and self-limiting beliefs.

Born and raised in London, England, Panache spent his childhood surrounded by spiritual family, deeply immersed in an atmosphere of prayer and worship. After a profoundly transformative experience more than a decade ago, he has committed his life to being a vibrational catalyst empowering humanity in the deepest states of connection and awareness, and helping people everywhere to directly experience divine connection for themselves.

He travels the globe providing experiential programs and inspired living workshops as well as worldwide monthly webcast series. He's young, hop, funny and often irreverent in his approach and very much unlike any spiritual teachers you may have heard before but you're going to feel his message in your heart.

He's been featured regularly in print, online and in broadcast media. He recently appeared with Oprah Winfrey on the Emmy award-winning series Super Soul Sunday. He is considered a top-tier faculty at Omega Institute and a featured speaker on many different incredible shows and teleseminars and networks like the You Wealth Revolution, and he's collaborated internationally with recognized spiritual teachers such as Reverend Michael Bernard Beckwith, Elizabeth Lesser, Brian Weiss, James Van Praagh, Alan Cohen, James Redfield, Colette Baron-Reid, Neale Donald Walsch and myself, Darius Barazandeh.

On behalf of the You Wealth Revolution as we kick off this amazing new awakening season, let's send a huge amount of love to our guest and friend Panache Desai. Let's do that on the count of three – one, two and three.

Panache, welcome back to the You Wealth Revolution, my friend.

Panache: Darius, I'm beyond excited to be here with you and all the callers that are here to just blast through their limitations. The energy's off the charts and I can't wait.

Darius: It's amazing. And what I feel is different about what's happening now is that... we've talked about this privately, Panache. We're all at a different level now. We've all, everyone, even if you're new, have come in and has almost bootstrapped from the work we did previously. So it's an incredible time. It's an incredible time to be alive.

What's different that you're sensing on your side, Panache?

Panache: Now it's easier for people to connect with their spirit, to establish their connection with the only thing that really matters, which is their spirit. And people are realizing now that the more they connect with the soul and their spirit, with their infinite potential, the more everything in their life just takes off.

So we're now moving away from this outward focus of money or health or relationships or love. We're moving away from that to focusing on connection. And we're recognizing that this thing called connection, this thing that we're going to explore in our call today, is the most important thing. And everything else is a side effect of that connection. When we can start to live soulfully and we can start to consciously come into that place of connection, money becomes easy, relationships become graceful, health becomes radiant and luminous. You start to feel enlivened and energized and creative and it's like life all of a sudden takes off in a way that defies the mind, because what you're doing is you're accessing a space of soulfulness where there is no limitation.

So that's where we're going now, Darius, and as always you and I, every time we kick off a season, it just takes everything into a whole other place, and we'll be going there again, brother. We thought we went there the last time. We're going there today and I can't wait.

Darius: We have had so many people writing in, so many people with huge transformations. And this activation that's happening to people – sometimes instantaneously - all across the planet as we put out this energy.

Define for me what is activation? What does it mean? Is it an event? Is it a process? What is it?

Panache: Well, this moment is a moment that everyone existing has created for themselves and some would say that this is the most important moment of all. It's a moment in which you consciously recognize yourself as your soul and your spirit and your infinite potential.

Now, why is that important? Because that is the place from which everything originates. It's the place from which all possibilities come into being. And when we start to come into resonance with that place literally everything becomes available to us.

So where we're going is not... you know, we're not navigating the mind. We're not navigating the body. What we're doing is we're directly connecting to the spirit and we're allowing that to inform the mind and the body and everything else that's been going on.

And that's what's been happening in vibrational transformation, Darius. People have just been tapping into that place of oneness, of connection, and literally where there was once suffering that experience of suffering has gone. Where there was once lack, that experience has lack has gone.

So that's what you're feeling right now, that every time we get together on these calls this vibrational communion is already well underway. And you're already receiving. I would encourage you to open your palms and just breathe and just be available, because this moment, right now, that you have created has the ability to transform your life forever.

Darius: I think so many times people are waiting for something to happen and actually what you just did – asking us to open our palms and receive – lets us know that it's actually happening right now.

Panache: Yes. And also I'd go as far as to say that it's already happened and now you're just experiencing what's already happened.

You see, often in life it's like we're waiting for something and we're striving to get that thing. Well, spirit and soul and energy and this hidden dimension of who we are doesn't operate that way. It's almost like when we stop and when we relax that dimension begins.

So I would just like to encourage you all to just take some deep breaths and just know that by virtue of the fact that you're here you signed up for this. You committed to being here. You invested of your time to be here; that it is done. And now you are just consciously coming into awareness of the fact that you've already received.

Darius: I'm just going to allow everybody to be present to that. And let us know what you're feeling and what that means on the sharing app, the sharing page, because I want to feel and know what's going on.

Panache, as we talk about this idea of activation and if it's already happened and is happening and we're re-collecting all of that energy and feeling it now, what does it do, what do we feel physically, mentally and emotionally as we start this activation?

Panache: Well, the very second we come into this remembrance and we come into this place of soulfulness... I mean, just image your soul is whole and complete. It vibrates at the resonance of love beyond any definition of the word 'love' that I could use that would do it justice. So this part of you that's whole and complete begins to inform your mind, begins to inform your body, begins to inform your finances, begins to inform your relationships, begins to inform every area of live and living. So instead of coming at life from a place of brokenness or needing fixing or needing healing, you start coming at life from a place of wholeness. You start operating on the level of your soul. And when you start from that place, Darius, and you start attracting possibilities and opportunities into your life, they're exponential, because there are none of the filters anymore. There's nothing that you have to navigate. There's nothing that you have to kind of go around. It's like this is direct access to infinite potential.

And then coming from this place then the universe meets you in that vibrational place. So literally you're being given access directly to yourself, to the fullness of who you are, to this part of you that is presence, this part of you that is divine, this part of you that is just brilliant.

And now what's happening is that that is starting to filter up into every other area and then life just becomes beautiful. You relax. You're not stressed out anymore. You're not struggling anymore. You're healthier, you're consciously making better choices for yourself, you're eating healthier, you're working out, you're exercising, you're loving yourself more, you're getting a massage, you're not scrambling from paycheck to paycheck every month, you're not waking up hating the fact that you woke up another day. You're waking up celebrating the fact that you woke up another day. How good can it be today? Your entire perception of self shifts. Your entire relationship with your reality transforms, so much so that you become unrecognizable to yourself and those around you. And it's so powerful and it's so instantaneous and yet so beautiful in how it unfolds that literally layer by layer everything that was once a limitation begins to fall away. Everywhere where you were keeping yourself small and not playing full out begins to fall away. You start loving yourself so profoundly that you only bring into your life the highest and the best, that you only bring that into being, because the universe is vibrating back to you your own personal frequency. That's why this soulfulness thing is so powerful, because if you're vibrating soulfulness...

Everyone just be with that for a moment, because it's huge. Just imagine if the universe was vibrating back to you the fullness, the wholeness and the completion of your soul in the area of your finances, for example. What would become available to you then? If it was no longer about mental constraints or limitations or what you've been told; finances were no longer based on how it's been in the past; no longer based on what the global conversation is about money, but actually finances were based on your soul and your spirit, that infinite part of you. What would happen in the area of your finances?

Now have a look in the area of your health. If your soul actually started to inform your health; this place of absolute love was the driving energy, the motivating factor between you in your relationship with your health, what would happen?

And then in relationships. And then just expand that out. Just imagine if this place of soulfulness was the homing beacon from which you magnetized into being everything that you've always wanted and desired that is for your highest and greatest good. What would your life look like? What would become available to you? How much possibility could you play in and what could you create and what could you bring into being from this space?

I mean, it's just unbelievable, Darius, when people step into this place. Absolutely unbelievable.

Darius: People are feeling that right now. We had Debbie write in. She said: 'I'm feeling so warm. I'm feeling the energy of love.' Another person is saying: 'I'm feeling the energy of expansion. I'm feeling tingling in my toes.' She's asking is that energy flowing, that tingling?

Panache: Yes. Everything that you're experiencing right now is a manifestation of the energy flowing. So some of you will feel almost like an electricity. Some of you will feel really warm – literally like really, really warm. Some of you will feel really cold. Some of you may already be present to your emotions – so your sadness or your anger or you fear. And some of you may just be present to your mind – you know, just literally your mind's just doing what it's doing. And it's okay. All I want you to do is just breathe and know that by virtue of the fact that you are here it is already done.

Darius: You know, Panache, I've heard you talk about this idea of improvement and self-improvement kind of keeping us in a trap or a paradigm of never being good enough. And as I feel out the energy of this beautiful audience we have, so many dear souls have been on this rollercoaster or treadmill of 'I'm not good enough. I must improve. I must change myself.'

Panache: Yeah.

Darius: I know your message is very different than that.

Panache: Yeah. You know, people begin a journey. What brought you here? Probably it was some kind of life challenge or crisis, right? The majority of people that end up here are experiencing some form of hardship in their life.

Darius: Yes.

Panache: And that's the alarm bell that starts ringing. But the alarm bell that starts ringing is an alarm bell that is ringing inside of you. It's like your soul is shaking everything up inside of you. And that's what brings you to this call. That's what brings you here to this energy right now to even hear this information, to even be receiving this right now.

So I want you to know that first of all life is on your side. That's the first thing. Second thing is you're not being punished. And the third thing is that when you start from a place of love you'll finish at a place of love.

What happens in most transformation models and paradigms is that people don't start from a place of love. They start from unworthiness – not good enough, unloveability. They start from a place of brokenness. And then what they're trying to do, Darius, is actually fix the brokenness. So what they're doing is on the level of their identity they're trying to fix, heal or change their identity. What I'm saying is that your identity isn't the issue. You are who you are. But there's something deeper inside of you that is beyond your identity. And when we can tap into that place and unleash the light that's there and the love that's there, naturally your identity will begin to transform. And as your identity transforms then everything will begin to move through you.

So transformation if it doesn't start from a place of acceptance it's not productive, it's not useful. If you're fixing, you're healing, you're cleansing, you're clearing, you're changing, you're improving, well what part are you improving? Not the soul. The soul's already whole and complete. You're just trying to make your identity more manageable or better, but that in and of itself is what needs to change. That in and of itself it what needs to be embraced is that conversation.

So what we're doing here is providing you access to the deepest part of you – your soul, you spirit, and we're just lovingly inviting that love that is there to just start to embrace all that you are so that you become transparent, you become authentic.

Authenticity is personality and soul in alignment with each other and that's what we want. We don't want to modify the personality or fix the personality; we just want to embrace it so that it becomes transparent and then the light and potential of your soul can shine forth.

Darius: I love that. And I feel that. I feel that. I want to ask this question. It's coming from somebody dealing with abundance. For someone dealing with an abundance...

feeling challenged today, what is the Number One misconception that people have about abundance, Panache?

Oh, it looks like we may have just lost Panache, guys. I've got to tell you there are so many people packing in that we may have had our line drop for one minute, Panache. So he will be calling back in. So hold tight.

Panache: I'm back.

Darius: He's back. This is what you get when you get like 2,000 people plugged into this – or more. This is growing. The energy is huge, and a big question that I'm seeing come up is a lot on abundance. And I want to ask the question: what's the Number One misconception that you've seen people have as you travel the world about abundance?

Panache: Well, people approach abundance like it's something outside of them, and that's the issue with it, right. So you can't tackle abundance externally. You have to tackle abundance internally, because again just imagine your soul and how powerful your soul and your spirit is. That naturally vibrates at a level of abundance. So on the level of soul and spirit there are no blocks or limitations to receiving at all.

Darius: Okay. Just say that again, Panache, because I want to be sure people get that. At the level of spirit...

Panache: On the level of soul and spirit there are no blocks or limitations to receiving. And why is that? Because there are no filters anymore. You're not going through the mind, the unconscious mind. You're not going through all the emotional content. You're just directly vibrating soul internal abundance to external abundance, you see. So that's the cool part is that what we're doing is we're directly accessing the abundance that we are inside and then that naturally brings us the abundance that we want outside of us. It's all an inside job.

That's the other thing with transformation. It's not about anything outside of you. It's about coming into that space of spaciousness, love, abundance, all that you are, inside of you so that it can be mirrored back and then it can be reflected back to you in the world, you see.

The other thing about abundance, Darius, is that people start from a place like they don't have it, right?

Darius: Right.

Panache: So, so many people who are on this call that are even asking that question believe that they are not abundant. Well, I'd like to challenge you and say that you already are abundant and that you're allowing yourself to experience your abundance to the degree to which you are worthy of it. And there's a big difference, because in that conversation you're not a victim. It just means that you've got a faucet and you've turned your faucet on to the degree to which you deem yourself worthy of the water that's coming out of it.

Well, again that's because you're trying to access abundance through your identity.

Well, what if you could access abundance through your soul and turn the faucet on and leave it on? Because your soul's infinite.

Darius: Yes. Yeah, I totally feel that. I get that. So you're connecting to this much deeper part, this bottomless well of who you are. Is this really the essence of creating abundance from the heart is there such a thing? Gina from Mexico is asking how do you create abundance and prosperity in your life from the heart – not from the mind but from the heart?

Panache: Well, the heart is the energy of love, right. So basically it's the same thing. What we're doing is we're tapping into the energy of love, spirit, the divine. When I experienced the divine it was just infinite love, right.

Darius: Okay. Right.

Panache: And this being wants the best for you and just loves you, right. So when you're tapping into that place of the heart or the soul or the spirit... I mean, these are just words but all the words point to the same experience of connectedness, of love, of self-love most importantly, of self-love. And the more we're anchored in this place of self-love the more naturally our love reflects that and brings that into being in our reality.

That's the magic of this. It's not about changing your thoughts. It's not about even monitoring your thoughts. You don't even have to worry about that. It's not about dealing with your unconscious mind. It's not about dealing with your emotional stuff necessarily. It's about tapping directly into the soul and letting that handle everything, because in the presence of love only love can remain. So in the presence of abundance only abundance can remain. This is the most powerful thing there is and that's why I'm so happy that we're starting off today this whole new season with this conversation.

Darius: Yes.

Panache: Literally your connection is the most important thing there is in your life. Everything else is a byproduct of your connection. Everything is a byproduct of your connection.

Darius: I love that and I'm glad we're starting, as this is the floor and we'll only go higher and higher as we progress through the season. Big question... I want to say this. We had a question from Jan. Yes we are going to be doing a process to help you begin to connect to that source, so stay with us.

Big question, Panache: What are some signs or things in someone's life that they may see as realities when they're not connecting to that source of love, that infinite source, that truth about themselves, their soul?

Panache: Stress, anxiety, dis-ease, lack of relationships, lack of self-love, health conditions, health issues, addiction, self-loathing, self-hatred, sabotage... What else do we have? Mental limitations that override possibilities. Lack of self-belief, lack of self-esteem, lack of self-worth. I mean, it just goes on. I mean, this separation is the root... this internal separation that we're all experiencing is the root case of all forms of suffering. So if you are suffering in any area of your life – struggling, having a hard time – that means that there is a disconnect between you and your true self within you. That's what it means; that there's a disconnect; that somewhere inside of you on a mental level, on an unconscious level, on an emotional level, on a physical level, there's a disconnect between who you are and who you really are – your identity and your soul.

And what this energy does is it places your identity in complete harmony with your soul. It places your mind, your unconscious, your emotional content, everything, in complete harmony with your soul. And that's authenticity. And then at that point literally... You know, all of those things that I just said were side effects or indicators that you're not living that begin to shift.

Darius: Yeah. Amazing. We are so much more powerful... all of you here are so much more powerful than you can even realize. I remember at 17 I was told you shouldn't go to college, you're not a good learner, you're slow, and all of these things that I had been living with for years. And in a moment I had an awakening and all of that went away, because I found out who I truly was.

And our mission here is to help you be in that space, to be there no matter what's going on around you.

Now, Panache, Laura just wrote in from Richmond. She says: 'How can I, Laura, come into love when there's so many negative people around me? There's so much negativity.' And I know so many of you are dealing with that right now just all over the planet. How can you do that? How can someone do that, Panache?

Panache: You know, the funny thing is that trying to change the negativity around you is a futile endeavor, but what you can do is actually become so profoundly in love with who you are and so profoundly accepting of yourself and tap into that light within you that naturally it begins to transform you and everyone around you. And literally it happens in front of your eyes. Like those people that you label as negative all of a sudden you see them for the angels that they are. Those people that a source of suffering in your life you recognize them for the blessing that they are. It's like the full promise of life is revealed to you. And literally this shift happens inside of you – inside of you.

You can't solve the world's problems externally but you can address them inside of you. You can deal with all of that inside of you until it doesn't exist anymore within. When it doesn't exist anymore within, you won't experience it outside of you.

And that is the power of you. You're all so powerful, every single one of you. And right now if you have people around you that are negative, they're just lovingly reminding you that the truth isn't outside of you; that there's nothing to be found out there; that in fact you have to go inside. You have to tap into that place of presence, that place of soulfulness inside of you. And when you do, when you access that, you will literally make the shift from ordinary to extraordinary. You'll become remarkable in the fact that all of a sudden your life will take off in a way that you cannot even imagine. And I've seen it happen in hundreds of thousands of people around the world across the board regardless of who they are, how they were raised, what their life situation was, education, circumstance. Regardless of all of that the very second they come into contact with vibrational transformation and tap into this energy and the energy of themselves fully everything takes off in a way that is just beyond belief.

Darius: And I want to say, you know, as I remember our times together, Panache, on this very line we've had some incredible situations by this vibrational transformation. People that couldn't see started beginning to see shapes and colors. People that were legally blind. I remember a lady moving her legs who couldn't walk, and started to stand up and get out of her chair because of this vibrational transformation. And for people that are new here I share that because I really want you to get the profoundness of what we're speaking of.

Panache, for those that are new what is vibrational transformation?

Panache: Well, you see, more and more we're realizing that we're energy, we're vibrational beings. And quantum physicists and scientists are beginning to catch up with this and soon they'll be able to prove it that we're actually energy. And just a quick lesson in energy... Our soul is the subtlest level of energy. So we all have a soul yet very few of us will actually consciously connect with our souls.

Then the layer above that is the emotional layer and this is where this thing called vibrational density accumulates. And what's vibrational density? Vibrational density is your unexpressed, unresolved sadness, anger and fear. So everywhere in your life where you experienced those energies but you didn't feel them fully, they become trapped in that emotional place, emotional body.

Then above that is the unconscious mind, which is a denser layer. Then there's the conscious mind, which is a denser layer. Then there's the physical body, which is the densest layer of course, because this is where form takes place, right?

So we're vibrational beings. But when you look at that model the origin of creation is not the mind. The mind is the densest level. It's not the unconscious mind. It's not the body. It's also not the emotional layer. The origin, the root of all creation is the soul, and if you want to bring things into being in your life, then that's where you have to go is to the soul, is to your spirit, and connect there, because the more you connect there the more then you can tap into almost like the building blocks of reality and start to bring things into being from that place. Also the blessing is then there are no limitations there. You're not operating inside the confines of your mind. You're not operating inside the confines of your unconscious. You're not navigating your psyche or your emotions. You're not navigating your physicality. And that's why literally things when we work vibrationally it appears to be miraculous, because literally reality goes from being one way to immediately being another way. But people don't see what's happening obviously inside. I can see that, you see. I know what's shifting in people.

And so that's what creates that shift. That's how this dimension of the miraculous comes into being is through vibration and frequency and through accessing the soul and through living soulfully and connecting soulfully.

And then your money becomes easy. Relationships are a walk in the park. You health naturally evolves because you're informing yourself from a place of harmony. Everything takes off.

So vibrational transformation is the elevation of personal frequency or the recognition of one's infinite potential and living from that place, recognizing that we inhabit the vibrational universe and where we vibrate from is what we bring into being in our reality.

Darius: This is incredible. We have people writing in. Dee from Kona... it looks like Kona, Hawaii, says: 'What a great show. Thank you, Panache, for the great explanations. I can feel the shift in me.' And more and more people writing in saying: 'I'm feeling the energy rise. I'm feeling things changing. I'm feeling better.'

I want to do an energetic process but I've got a question, because you actually experienced some incredible things that you took people through in a group through a vibrational transformation for 21 days and it was very... some of the stuff that was happening was really profound. What were some of the stories or things that you've seen as you took and concentrated this energy with the people that chose to go deeper with you?

Panache: You know, what you experience on this call is nothing short of miraculous because it's outside of the definition and it's outside of the mind's ability to understand, right.

Darius: Right.

Panache: So anything outside of the mind's ability to understand is miraculous, right.

So just imagine what happens here in the hour that we have. Well, times that by 20... Just imagine timesing that by 3 days or by 9 days or by 11 days or by 21 days where remotely I can support you every day for 21 minutes vibrationally with the highest remembrance there is, which is that you are your soul, your spirit, and literally start breaking loose of all this emotional content that then informs the unconscious that then informs the conscious in the body. What if we could actually restore harmony and balance and we could back to empowerment and abundance and health and vitality - I mean, literally in every area of life and living, Darius? I mean, you and I both experienced it because we were on the course together.

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: People had breakthroughs that were profound in every area - money like you couldn't imagine, jobs, promotion, relationships, love, navigating a relationship that wasn't working and finding a way to either move out of it gracefully or to stay in it. I mean, regardless of what people brought to the 21 day their life completely went through an overhaul.

And the reason for the 21 days is, you know, we didn't get here overnight. We can hang out and we can spend an hour on the phone, but we didn't get here overnight. It's been years and years and years of a certain training that we've received and a certain response that we've created to life and it's engrained in us.

So the reason for the 21 days is literally if you can anchor an individual in soulfulness for 21 days, they'll stay there. They'll stay there. It's a permanent shift. You can't undo it. There's no going back.

And that's literally what started happening to people. People showed up. They didn't have any money. All of a sudden - boom! – money. I mean, we were there and the calls were just mind-blowing as to what was happening to people. Depression gone. Health challenges gone. Arguing with children and discord in relationships gone. Literally. Why? Because it's about you, folks. It's about every single one of you. And when we implement this shift in you, literally we are shifting the very fabric of your entire reality, because you're the point of attraction for all life. You're the point of attraction for all life, right. And that's the blessing in this.

And, Darius, the things that we heard... Darius and I had the pleasure of observing what was happening to people. We were moved to tears on every single call by what was happening to people. And the vulnerability and the receptivity and the courage and just this amazing willingness that people had to just stop this endless seeking and searching outside of them and just to finally be empowered as their own solution. It was just mind-blowing. Mind-blowing. I mean, diseases gone. Relationships... I mean, just incredible, incredible, incredible things.

Darius: Yeah, I remember and I still feel the vibration of that. It was. And I have stacks and stacks of people sharing what happened in those 21 days and it is profound.

I want to do this. We have a lot of people asking about starting the connection, starting the process here, doing whatever we can to restore disharmony and balance. And I understand it's been a while. Many of us have been disconnected. So how do we begin, as Jo write in, to connect to our soul? How do we start?

Panache: So just close your eyes, just open your palms and just take some long, deep cleansing breaths.

So separation, the experience of separation, is the root cause of all suffering on Planet Earth. Now, this separation... most people believe that this separation is external. It isn't. It's internal.

So we're going to bridge the distance between you on the level of your identity and your soul and we're going to do that now to give you direct access to your spirit. And we're just going to start by just resting in the awareness of our breath and just being available for whatever we're feeling right now – emotion, thoughts...you can also be experiencing pain is discomfort in the body. It's all okay. You're okay. You're loved, more than you'll ever know. And everything that you're experiencing right now is welcome here.

So we're just going to start at the densest level that there is: the body. And we're just going to lovingly start to vibrate your bodies at the level of love, just absolute love. We're just going to bring your physical bodies into complete harmony with your soul. Just stay with the breath and just keep receiving.

Now we're going to bring your mind into complete harmony with your soul. Just breathe and just allow the shifts to occur. Now we're just going to lovingly invite the unconscious mind to come into harmony with your soul. And finally we're just going to invite your emotional body to come into harmony with your soul. And we're just going to invite the energy of your spirit, of your soul to begin to expand and to begin to shine through you into the area of your finances, into the area of your health, into the area of your relationships. We're just going to invite this light and luminosity that's always dwelled within you, this infinite potential that is infinite abundance, infinite love, health and vitality and radiance to begin to just shine forth. Just going to invite this presence to just inform every area of life and living, bringing the body into harmony, bringing the mind into harmony, the unconscious mind into harmony, bringing the emotional body into harmony, bringing all that we are on the level of our humanity into complete harmony with our soul and our spirit, embracing all that we with love.

And then bringing this space into every area of live and living, everywhere you're experiencing a struggle right now. Just allow it to move into anywhere where you're experiencing a struggle right now, a setback. And I'm just going to lovingly ask you: any and all forms of internal separation just collapse. Anywhere where you have separated yourself from your spirit, you soul, the love that you are... lovingly collapse all of those energies. And we're going to lovingly just establish you in oneness, establish you in a place of love, self-love. And we're going to ask the universe to respond in kind to this signal of love, absolute love, to bring you the miraculous, to bring you the out-of-the-box leftfield possibilities, to bring you more money than you'll ever know what to do with, to bring you health and ageless beauty, to bring you so much grace and so much love and so much intimacy in relationships you come to know God in everybody that you meet, to begin to embody this so profoundly that it becomes the new normal magnificence becomes the new normal.

How are you doing, Darius?

Darius: Incredible. Incredible. Expanded, peaceful, feeling love, light everywhere.

Panache: Just send us a message and let us know how you're feeling, folks all around the world. Let us know what's going on inside of you.

Darius: Yeah, everyone just share what's going on, what's happening with you, what you may be feeling. What's different now than when you joined the call? How have you shifted?

And what the power of this really is is recognizing the energy shifts so that you begin to perceive how this moves, perceive what this feels like in your body; that the time we're together, the hour and 15, 20 minutes, we can ground you in this new way of being as much as possible. Share and let us know exactly what you're feeling.

Panache: So...

Darius: There's a huge number of people... Go ahead.

Panache: It so tangible, you know, for people, when they make this shift. It's so tangible. Because literally it's like everything begins to get lighter and brighter, and things kind of slow down. And all of a sudden the limitation... whatever the limitation was isn't even there anymore. It's like there's just spaciousness and there's just presence and there's just this soulfulness. It's amazing.

Darius: And I think there was a time that people... You know, we talk about transformation or people would talk about energy and it was like this thing that was very difficult to understand. And now it's become very tactile and real and grounded in our body and in our feelings. So we've just a ton of people writing in - literally almost jammed our dialog here... Like 30 people wrote in. One person said – Marian in Bryan, Texas said: 'I'm feeling warmth like I'm being snuggled in a favorite blanket.' Liz from Portland: 'Feeling very peaceful and expanded by love.' Judy: 'I'm quivering. I have this giddy grin on my face that doesn't want to stop.' Mary: 'I'm feeling dizzy. I'm feeling jittery but all in a good way.' And that happens. The energy moves and starts to do different things, right, Panache?

Panache: Yeah, yeah. Dizzy is literally your brain rewriting itself. That's dizzy. I always say to people that dizziness and confusion are great signs, because confusion is an old reality bumping up against a new one.

Darius: I love that. I love that. Penny from New Zealand says: 'I feel I'm being marinated in love.' Leah says: 'My palms are open and buzzing. I needed this. I needed this connection to my soul in all areas.' Well, Leah, I'm so glad we could give this to you.

Rick says: 'Awesome. Powerful. Tears flowing.' Here we have a strong man who is feeling the energy. Me and Panache cry regularly when we feel this energy.

Suzanne: 'Feeling love, sadness.' Lee says: 'I'm so excited.' Another person – Suzanne – 'Full and expanded.'

'Feeling whole' from Gina. 'Palms are burning and itching' from Laura. 'Full of light.'

We just had another 50 people write in, Panache, all of it 'peaceful', 'opening up to light'. 'My body became invisible,' says Gilda, 'and I saw me being part of the universe.' Get this: 'The tenseness and negative feelings have disappeared. I'm feeling very light.'

Alison... I could go on forever so I'm going to do a few more. 'It is as if my heart has been activated and I'm now,' – oh, this is amazing – 'hearing Panache through my heart. It is warm and expanded.'

Diane: 'My whole body finally feels alive and vibrating and there is a spacious presence around me.'

Peter, who had been out of this state of love, we brought him back in in just a moment. He says, 'I had not been fully in this unconditional state of a while. Thank you, Darius and Panache. I love you. It's so powerful and strong and shining through all I be.'

It's amazing. Literally we're getting no into the hundreds of people feeling so many different things but so much of that divine light. We literally just got 100 people writing in. I could go on forever.

Panache, what's happening in people's bodies? What's going on? It's similar but different but yet so similar.

Panache: You know, what's happening is that they're remembering the most important thing there is. So again, instead of trying to improve or fix or change or heal their identities – which is the only part of themselves that believes it's broken, by the way – they're now tapping into their soul, which is whole and complete. And this is the most important thing there is in life.

Darius: Yes.

Panache: There's nothing else. This is the most important thing there is. Every human being when they tap into this place their reality powerfully transforms.

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: This is it, and everything else is a byproduct of this. That's why they're meditating in Harvard. That's why they have all these mindfulness studies right now more and more in all these leading universities and all these corporate professionals now are beginning to realize this; that the more they're connected to themselves, the more they're connected to their soul, the more successful they are, the healthier they are, the more of a contribution they are, the more of a difference they can make. And when you look at the people that are really making a difference in the world they've all tapped into this. Either consciously or unconsciously they've all tapped into it.

Well, just imagine if we could consciously tap into it for 21 days. Just imagine that. Imagine consciously tapping into this, this state, and having this state be your normal state. What would happen?

I guess that's a question, Darius. If you tapped into this state for 21 days and you lived from this place of connection, what would become possible for you in your life? Let's get some answers.

Darius: Yeah, I'd love that. Everyone answer that question. If you were in this state and stayed in this state for 21 days, what would become possible for you? I can't see anything being impossible in this state. I can't see anything impossible in the infiniteness of love that our soul has. I don't know of any barrier that exists. But I want to hear from you what happened in your life. And it'll be a little while as people start writing in.

I want to ask this question, Panache. You talked about us having certain... and the exact words you used were... it was almost like reactions or certain patterns to the world about us that have been sort of entrenched for a long time. How can those patterns keep us from this state? What's the possibility where we see these patterns coming in and stopping us? How does that happen?

Panache: Well, here's the blessing of vibrational transformation. When you deal with yourself energetically what you're doing is actually dissolving the energy, you're experiencing the energy that keeps the belief in place.

So right now people are actually under the notion that it's their belief that's creating their experience. It isn't. It's your unresolved anger, sadness and fear. And what this energy does it is brings harmony to those energies. It allows them to move again. So, for example, Darius, like if people don't experience their sadness over time it becomes depression, right.

Darius: Right.

Panache: What this energy does is it takes that heavier dense state of depression and turns it back into sadness and then eventually it just dissipates until then naturally you have a harmonious and balanced relationship with that energy.

So it's just absolutely phenomenal what happens to people. And that happens with their anger, that happens with their sadness, that happens with their fear, it happens with everything. So what we're doing is giving you access really to the root of transformation; that it's not changing our thoughts, it's not shifting our thoughts, it's shifting our energy. And the more we elevate our energy to the vibration of love, which is what your soul is, the more we come into alignment with our soul basically, the more then everything else just takes off, you see.

So we're bypassing the mind and the emotional. We're just bypassing all of that. We're going straight to the source, directly to oneness.

Darius: And it's one of those things that once you get out of the box, once you expand, once you feel that energy deeply, it's very hard to go back in the box...

Panache: That's right. You can't.

Darius: And limit the soul. You can't limit the soul.

Panache: You can't. You can't get in there box again no matter how hard to try to get back in that box. So here's the promise, folks. After the 21 days you will not be able to get back into what you once accepted as normal. What you're accepting as normal right now is lack, is dis-ease, is turmoil, trouble, crisis, strife. You're accepting all of this as normal. After 21 days you won't be able to accept any of this as normal anymore. The only thing that you'll be able to accept as normal is your magnificence.

Darius: And we have people writing in. Another 50, 60 wrote in just about what would be possible in their life if they plugged into this for 21 days. One person – Suzanne – from Victoria said: 'It's hard to imagine. We would become such a wonderful state. It would be full. It would be love.'

Nancy says: 'For the first time ever in my life I would have true joy and possibility.'

Winfried from Minnesota: 'Limitless beingness. All world problems dissolved.'

Gilda: 'I would I've for once.' She says: 'I've had 66 years of existence. I would live, live and be all that I was created to be.'

Lisa says: 'My heart's desire would become real. What a fantastic way to live to create love, peace and abundance on all levels.'

Judy says: 'I would be open to the universe and be able to see beyond the universe.'

Lee: 'A whole new world. A blossoming business. Ease. Embracing my brilliance and success.'

And so many more.

'Health, happiness, love, joy all,' Laura says. 'Tears falling my heart. Wide open.'

Another person says: 'In 21 days I would want for nothing,' says Lisa. 'I would be fulfilled.'

Caroline: 'In this state all is possible. I would be an unlimited being.'

And so many others.

'Anything is possible.'

You know, the truth is, I believe, Panache, this is everyone's soul talking. It's their true self coming forward and sharing what the door through to that infiniteness really would mean.

Panache: That's exactly right. And also they're calling it into being. It's like you're ready. You're already on the train. And that's the blessing of this. Every one of you that's listening right now knows innately at the deepest level that this is for you and that's why you're here. And now all that's required is for you to be vulnerable enough to say: 'Yes, I'm open to receive. I'm open to receive. I'm willing to invest in myself. I'm willing to invest in myself, give myself the gifts of this time and to commit to this, because I know that what awaits me on the other side of these 21 days is unimaginable.'

Darius: Well, let's talk a little bit about the deeper work and the evolution and what this 21 days is. Tell me about how..., first of all what is the 21 days? What happens? Tell me about what takes place there.

Panache: Well, the only thing that I could come up with for it was the Ultimate Energy Immersion, because that's really exactly what it is. And literally what we do is we expand your vibration and frequency to help you access the life of your dreams. And there are lots of different components to this but I'll just skim through them real quickly. The first thing is that, you know, I noticed the need for consistency and I noticed a trend in people that were coming to see me and the people that were in the energy is that the more consistently they showed up and the more they committed to themselves the more they were receiving and the faster they were going through this transformation.

So I realized that there was a need for intense focus and consistency over 21 days and that's why we're going to hold this vibrational activation circle for 21 days, to help you live in this perpetual energetic expansion.

So literally for 21 minutes remotely 7 days a week for 21 days I focus on you and send you this energy and send you this reminder and vibrate this reminder and this love and this divine grace so that you can remember that that's who you are. And literally, Darius, everything starts to come up in people – sadness, their anger, their fear. Everything that's unresolved in them begins to bubble to the surface for them to experience. And it happens in a very accelerated way.

To kick all of this off literally there's a one-hour vibrational attunement to bring everyone into their optimal vibrational state, because we want to start from where we want to finish. We want to start from our optimal vibrational state. Then what you need in the morning is distinctly different than what you need in the afternoon and the evening. So for the 21 days you get access to a private Facebook group and literally the things that happen in this Facebook group are monumental. You can be on the verge of a breakdown and literally somebody will be in there and they'll say exactly the thing that you need to hear for you to have the breakthrough.

So this community comes together. It becomes a shared experience. And for 21 days people support each other through this experience and lovingly holding space for each other. And that in and of itself has become an incredible thing for people.

Then we do four 90-minute interactive calls just like this one where you can actually ask me questions and we can answer them, and we'll answer them with the energy and we'll directly begin to work on you and your life. And so four of those, four 90-minute calls.

Then you get... my team's put together 100% off the admission to an upcoming Panache Global Telecourse because I really want you to love yourself so profoundly that you can access all that you are. I want you to wake up in the morning and love who you see when you look in the mirror, and to live a life that you love. And not only do I want that for you I want it for your family, I want it for your friends, I want it for everyone around you. So this is an incredible opportunity to participate in an upcoming telecourse.

Then every week, because the energy's evolving... You know, I put together this frequency fix, which is basically I tap into the collective group energy and record a piece of vibrational material to support them for that particular week in exactly what they're going through.

So this is just beyond phenomenal and this is again just my wanting you to live the life of your dreams, to love yourself and to live a life that you love.

Then also what we do is this perpetual kind of connection where there's a webcast series that's thrown in too. So there's tons and tons of things that are components to this but again it's all vibrational. It's all about experiencing what you just experienced here, accessing the most profound place there is from which to make a shift, and coming from that base - for 21 consecutive days.

Darius: You know, one thing that Lisa just wrote in... She said: 'I feel heard today. I feel listened to.' And I think so many people want to feel like they are known, they are acknowledged, they will be listened to, they will be connected to, they are not alone. And one of the things I love about the 21-day program that we're talking about... There's a lot of people want to go deeper into your work. A lot of people are going to want more than just the short hour and 10 or 20 minutes that we have.

If somebody wants to do the 21-day program they actually... their name is provided to you and you actually... what do you do with those names? And I'm going to talk a little bit more about this because people are saying: 'Okay, what are you talking about? Where is all this?' And I'll give you the page so you can learn more about it.

But what do you do with their names when you get them?

Panache: Well, I get the full sheet of names of everyone that signs up for the 21 days and literally for 21 minutes every day I'm with every single person vibrationally that's on that list and I focus on them and just send this wonderful vibrationally reminder and provide them access to that so that they can go deeper in themselves. And it's kind of interesting because language is not... It's hard. It's not me sending it. It's like I go to that place of completion and I vibrate that to you wherever you are in the world and you receive it. And so many people... I mean, just the most outrageous things happen for people.

Darius: We had those people in the middle of the night I remember... the last time we did it where people said it was the middle of the night and I could feel you sending me that completion in the middle of the night and you said: 'Yeah, that was right at like 3 AM.'

Panache: Yeah. People get electricity running through their bodies and literally like they get... like people call them and say: 'You're hired' or 'You're promoted'. I mean, things just happen for people. And the blessing is that it's like all that's required in your commitment and then I do the rest. All that's required is your commitment, just your willingness to be vulnerable enough to say yes. And then I do the rest. And that's the blessing in this, you know, is that it's remote and it's virtual. And also the blessing is again... just like you're all feeling energy now. We're not distant, we're not separate. On a vibrational level we're all connected.

Darius: Right. Well, people are asking where it is and they want to look more about this and how they can go deeper into your work. And I'm going to share what we have put together through Panache for you to really experience this for 21 days, which is what so many people wanted to do. It's at youwealthrevolution.com/panachenew. That's P-A-N-A-C-H-E-N-E-W. And the reason we chose that is because this is brand new. It's a brand new 21-day program and the vibrational energy is different and more powerful.

I want to share this, because a lot of people have written in to us at the You Wealth Revolution about what's happened during the 21 day. So I'm just going to share what we had come in to our team.

Jan Cross said: 'I am confident of the abundance of my life and profoundly grateful. I recognize now that relationships are the true exchange and I have a more peaceful center.'

Another person said – Sheila: 'I noticed over the 21 days I became more active. I painted my kitchen, refinished cabinet doors, painted and glazed the fireplace. Total facelift. It's beautiful.'

Kay said: 'I'm finding that the usual triggers have far less impact upon me and I am gaining confidence in speaking my truth. I have the feeling of spaciousness. It's continuing to grow day by day. I am profoundly grateful to have had these 21 days.'

Peter: 'During the 21 days I felt as though a lot of dense energy had left my body. I feel lighter, more spacious, more connected.'

Another person just during this call wrote in and said an eating disorder that they had literally for 12 years left during the 21 days with you, Panache. And so much more.

Panache: Wow. That's amazing.

Darius: Yeah. I want to ask you a few questions. It is at youwealthrevolution.com/panachenew.

So basically what's the first thing that's going to happen for those people that decide to go deeper and live this for 21 days?

Panache: Well, the first thing that's going to happen is the very second you sign up for this it already starts working on you. And I don't normally share that with people but the cat's out the bag. So just imagine right now – registering right now. Because we don't officially start until October 6th. So that means that you get all of this bonus time of receiving and preparation and expansion even before we begin. The very second you say yes the divine delivers, the universe delivers.

So what I would say is that right now is the moment. Right now is the time. And from the moment you commit and you say: 'Yes, I'm ready to receive,' you start receiving. And almost immediately you're going to start feeling everything coming up – your sadness, your anger, your fear, the limited thoughts and ideas and beliefs. And the energy's going to start bringing everything up and out of you until there's nothing left. At that point you'll reach a place of peacefulness and clarity and you'll get to this place of peace and clarity that is unshakeable. It's sustainable. It becomes you new state. You live as a fully embodied being in human form. And then life just becomes magical.

So that's the one thing that I didn't share, Darius, because the last time we did it the very second people got off the call and signed up immediately they started receiving and it was just incredible what was happening. So if you want to get a jump on it and you want bonus days, you want to move into it... Now. You know, it officially begins on October 6th. I won't have your names and all that but just you registering and your commitment and your intention will call this into being for you already. So that's the first thing.

Second thing is look for the miracle and look for the blessing immediately, every single day, because you'll start to notice miracles and blessings every single days. If it's in abundance and money you'll start to notice abundance and money. Or you'll start to notice everything within you that's keeping you from abundance and money. Either way the end result is abundance and money.

So that's the blessing of this. You magnetize it into being. You bring it into being and that is the blessing of this. That is the absolute miracle of this. And again all you have to do is say yes, like thousands of people before you. Say yes and watch what happens.

Darius: Thea Rose just wrote in. She said: 'I've done the 21-day program and I know I am shifting, because I've been feeling moments when he sends the 21-minutes of love energy.' So Thea in Iowa City has been feeling it as it comes in. She says: 'And lately it feels like a lover showing up. It's warm and pleasurable and sets my heart glowing. I just have to sit and open my palms and let it happen. It feels too personal to ignore or disbelieve. I just love it.'

So that's one of the things that happens in the 21 days is the energy transmission. It's at youwealthrevolution.com/panachenew - P-A-N-A-C-H-E-N-E-W.

If you're on the listing page you just have to scroll up a little bit and you'll see the information there. But one of the other things that you do, Panache, is... What I really loved about it was that everybody connected online and there was a community of souls, a community of people all connecting through a very powerful medium and having this collective energy of the group. And then actually every day... or many times your team would submit something from you or you would submit something, maybe every day or every other day or as the energy needed, to the group through this forum. Can you tell us about that?

Panache: Yes. In the 21-day Facebook group every day you get like a focus. See, what you do is when you start the 21 days you're going to focus on one area of your life, one area where you're experiencing struggle. Let's say that abundance, right. That's what you're going to focus on. And then we're just going to send you the energy for that area for 21 days and that's your entry point to oneness, to wholeness and to abundance beyond belief.

So every day there's something that gets posted on Facebook, because I'm feeling everything that you're feeling. I'm completely profoundly tapped into you. So these posts that go up every day provide people a focal point, provide people a place of connection. And then also there's a community that comes round. Then also I'll check in every now and again and read what's going on and I'll share.

So this is just a profound way for people to know that they're okay, that they're loved, that they're going through something that is profound and monumental and that there are people who are witnessing it and also participating in it with them, and contributing to it too. So it's just phenomenal what happens.

But yeah, you know, vibrationally for me I'm always connected to you and every one of you. There's no separation on that level. So then we just provide you what it is that you really want to receive at the deepest level - of course which is love - and that brings everything up and out. It's amazing.

Darius: Beautiful. I've got a question coming in from a caller about what happens during the live sessions, because one of the things that you do is you have a live 90-minute session - four of them - starting each week. What happens on those sessions? Why are those sessions included? Why not just send the love transmission and leave it at that?

Panache: Because I want to hear from you and I want you to bring your life to the 21 days and that's what enables you to do. And what I've noticed about these four calls is that even if you're not directly sharing, somebody will share exactly the thing that you need to hear, and that's the most amazing thing about it. So literally when one person calls about abundance it opens everybody up. When one person calls about relationships it opens everybody up. Again, you pick the area of your life. We'll just provide you the vibrational support that you need to access that, and watch what happens. Until that becomes your normal state, you know... After 21 days it becomes your normal state and then you can just do deeper and deeper and deeper until you're just vibrating fully embodying all this in a way that you never could have imagined possible.

So that's why, because I like hearing from you and I like interacting with you directly, because every single one of you that's a part of the group represents everyone else. So that's the blessing of this.

Darius: A question just came in and I think it's a valid one. Someone's asking: 'Panache, why can't you just right now literally transform us in one second permanently?'

Panache: Because you didn't get here in one second. I can is the answer, but you didn't get here in one second. So people need that consistent support, because for some of you this behavior - the behaviors, the distractions, the adaptations that have been set in place - have become deeply ingrained in you. So then for me it's like, you know, remodeling. I have to literally excavate. So yes, of course I can. Absolutely possible. And it's not me that's doing it. The energy just does it. Yes, and it's happened that way. But for some people... you know, you didn't get here overnight. We're human, right.

It's like when you first go to the gym you can only do 20 crunches - maybe, if that. But the more you go the more crunches you can do, the more pushups you can do, the longer you can run for. And it's the same thing with energy and frequency. We're undoing everything that you've accepted as the truth so that you can just be the truth. And that is an unfolding. That is something that I've noticed over time unfolds in people exponentially based on their commitment and the consistency with which they participate.

And that's all that's required: your commitment and the consistency to participate to give yourself the gift of these 21 days.

Darius: I love it. I've got to take some questions that are coming in. Let's see what we've got. One person is saying: 'How do I access the page to get this?' And then we've got a few other questions. It's at youwealthrevolution.com/panachenew.

One person wrote in and said: 'I'm' currently in the 21 days. It's incredible. You can change your life literally. We participate in a Facebook group and they are so fabulous. So is Panache.'

Quick question, Panache, about the 21 days. Someone is asking: is it okay to participate if I'm pregnant? That's a fair question.

Panache: Yeah, it's okay. Actually it's a great time to participate while you're pregnant because what I've noticed as a new father is our children inherit our consciousness.

Darius: Yes.

Panache: They don't inherit our thoughts or our beliefs; they inherit our consciousness. So what you're passing on to your children is your vibrational legacy. And that's the part that people don't understand. So just imagine if you could start coming into that, start transmuting all of that now and just embracing all of that now and coming into such a profound state of love within yourself. You imagine the gift that you would give to your child.

Darius: Imagine if your parents did that for you.

Panache: Oh my God...

Darius: There is perfection. You know, that's why we're here, because maybe they didn't or maybe they did but still it's a profound gift.

Panache: Yeah. The only stipulations around it are that if you're currently on any major forms of medication then please consult your doctor and make sure that it's okay for you to participate that's all. That's the only obstacle to participation that we've discovered so far. If people are on very heavy medications right now, then this course may not be suited to you. But again you have to consult your medical doctor to figure out if you're okay to do that. So that's the only fine print that there is.

Darius: Yeah. Well said. One person's asking: what is the investment to be in the 21 days? So I want to share. We've actually worked out something really magical for our community. There are two ways you can do it. One way is a one-time payment of $297 and that you can do instantly. Then there's a second payment option where it's basically two instalments of $148.50 now and then $148.50 in 30 days. So if that's more beneficial for you you could do that.

For the people that do the instalments do you still...? You know, you talked about them still plugging into the energy instantly once they decide to go forward. I mean, for the person doing the instalments is it still... like they're going to getting some of that energy and connecting?

Panache: Absolutely. And again, like, the very second you say yes and you register you start receiving. We'll officially start on the 6th but you'll already start going through the shifts and changes. That's what this program does. It's just an infinite intelligence and it just kind of works on its own. So, yes, if you can do it in instalments, great. If you can do it in the lump sum, fantastic. Just give yourself the gift of doing it. Give yourself the gift of an answer and a solution and watch what happens. The very second you commit to it watch what happens. I think it breaks down to something like $14 a day.

And the reason why we did this, Darius, and we put this package together is because I don't even do private sessions anymore. My focus has entirely shifted. You can't even book a private with me. And also, you know, personal experiences are few and far between these days, but just everything that was happening and taking care of a global community.

So this is a great way for me to be able to reach thousands of people at once and support thousands of people as a community at once in this transformation in a way that I can't do individually anymore because I just don't have enough hours in the day.

So this is an incredible opportunity. It's an incredible offering. And it's a great way to access everything that you've always wanted. Again remember your connection is the most important thing there is. Your connection to yourself is the most important thing there is. Everything else is a side effect of that connection.

Darius: I've got a quick procedure... Debra is asking us – she's in Pompano Beach – she says: 'Please give me the link again. I put in the address...'

Debra, do not put a period after Panache. It's just youwealthrevolution.com/panachenew – one word with no dots or periods between Panache and New. Just panachenew at the end. And if anyone's having trouble with that you can just go to our youwealthrevolution.com/now page and that page has a button to do that.

Another person – Nancy: 'I'm in the 21 days. I feel lighter, lighter and lighter.' She's very happy. She says: 'I'm tingling. I feel warm.' She said: 'My progress is subtle,' and she is feeling big shifts from the program.

So this is amazing. I want to bring one other thing up, which is something else you do, Panache. You actually create different vibrational work and recordings – 'vibrational support' you call it – for everybody. It's different every single time and it's something you do. You call it like a frequency fix. Tell me about that and how many you're going to do this time and how they may be different than last time. Maybe you have a feeling of what's going to happen this time.

Panache: Well, I always do three and every week you get one. And the reason is that as you progress naturally you're ready to receive more. And also some of you are dealing with different things. Like if a large section of the community's dealing with emotional content then I'll create something to support them with their emotional content. But all of that is specifically created for this group to help support this group and its expansion and that's the blessing of this. This was created by you for you for you to succeed and live the life of your dreams. And I mean that. You on the level of your soul created everything that's in this package. You created me, you created Darius, you created this call. You're bringing this into being. You even wrote down the words that I'm sharing with you right now that are hitting your eardrums.

So don't hesitate. This is an incredible opportunity. When do we close on this, Darius, because this is only available for a limited time, right? When does this close?

Darius: I do believe it's going to be closing actually right after... probably right before the 6th. So there's maybe three weeks. It's going to be closing pretty soon. So we'll let people know, but you want to get in, because I know there could be space limitations on this. Also we want to keep it to a certain size. So you definitely will want to get in. It's a much larger community that it was last time, so definitely if this fits... My feeling always is if it fits and if energetically you feel like it's loving and supportive, do it and go forward if it makes sense for you.

I was in the 21 days. I found it to be incredible. It expanded me in many ways. I felt such a huge outpouring of love from everybody in the group. I felt Panache literally work miracles on people, and I felt the brilliance of this man as he worked through patiently the things people were experiencing. It was astounding. And I saw him intuit things from callers that I could never have imagined. It opened up abilities in me as I started watching and seeing this happen and started feeling energies come in and being able to read similar energies that were being read on these calls. So it just was a whole other shift for me and I loved it. It's at youwealthrevolution.com/panachenew.

Now, Panache, I realize we're getting close to time. A quick question that came in from Christina in France. Great question, and I think it's one of the reasons that 21 days is so powerful.

Christina has seen miracles in her life. Things happen almost immediately. And I know we've all seen like these little windows and doors open up. But then she says something really troubling happens. Right when that happens things close. They delay, people back out. Situations that seemed like they were coming together miraculously fall apart and crumble. What's going on when people see that happen? And I know people are seeing that happen in their life.

Panache: Yeah, this is real simple. Fear and inner sabotage every single time. So people won't allow life to be really good. And I always say to people: just let it be good. Let it be good. Allow life to be good, because it is.

So people won't let life be good. Well, what happens is the consistency over the 21 days allows them to leave life alone and let it be good. They don't have to sabotage it anymore, they don't have to get in the way of it anymore, they don't have to be afraid anymore. And that's the consistency. It's like you know that person who said: 'Couldn't we all receive it just now in one second?' Yes, but are you ready to receive it all right now in one second?

Darius: Right.

Panache: No, you're not. You're not. And even if you received all the energy now you wouldn't even be able to assimilate it and make use of it. So at that point this is it right here: 21 days.

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: It's like saying to someone now: run a marathon, when they haven't run in five years. There's no way.

Darius: That's right.

Panache: But little by little over 21 days if you ran and you kept running you'd be able to do it. And then gradually you'd begin to increase your distance, you'd increase your stamina, you'd increase your everything.

So the consistency and commitment is the key, and loving yourself enough to receive and say yes. And just say yes and watch what happens. Watch what happens.

Darius: I've got a few questions that have come in. Jenna says: 'Will the Q&As with Panache be recorded? What if I miss one of them?'

- Panache: Yes they'll be recorded and actually you can revisit them over and over again and just experience the energy in them over and over again. And just even doing that has been phenomenal for people in their expansion.
- Darius: Now, Margaret's saying: 'I may not have access to a computer for the 21-day period where this is going to happen. I do want to do this. Any suggestions?' so she doesn't have access to a computer...
- Panache: Yeah, you don't need access to the computer. The Facebook group is the only part that you need access to a computer for and that's optional. That doesn't make or break your participation over the 21 days, it's just a nice value added to where you have a community, that people can support you. But you don't need that. That's not essential. You'll receive the energy remotely every day for 21 days and that's the most important thing. That's exactly the most important thing.
- So yes, the calls will be recorded and the mp3s will be emailed to you so you can access those. So yes, everything will work itself out. But the most important thing is the 21-minutes for 21 days of energy.
- Darius: Someone's asking about their son who's 8 years old and he has a learning challenge. She's wondering if this would be something that he could be a part of.
- Panache: Yeah. But more than him needing to be a part of it, you need to be a part of it, whoever sent in the question.
- Darius: Okay. Tell us about that. Why?
- Panache: Because in them being a part of it they'll naturally take care of everything in their son. That's what happens. So yeah, I mean, you can both participate. In fact, I highly recommend it. Absolutely. But more than it being about your son, you need to sign up for it. I'm not saying you need to sign up for it but I would recommend it because I just know what it's like being a dad and know how much we love our kids and how much we want to just give them the best. Well, you know, it's not about giving them the best materially; it's about giving them the best vibrationally.
- Darius: Yeah. I agree. For those of you that don't know, Panache and I we literally had... our wives had... you know, these kids come into our world literally – what? – in a matter of like a week or two weeks these came into our world.
- Panache: Yeah. The girls are going to be 1 on the 23rd and I think your boys were born shortly thereafter, right?
- Darius: Actually they're going to be 1 on the 19th, so we're getting ready for a birthday party.
- So, you know, the truth is that this energy and this goodness that we give not only to our children but to the rest of the world... I mean, my kids have kind of shown me a mirror into maybe where my energy's been off. So it's like that with all of us. And I continue to do work, and I know, Panache, you continue to expand and we continue to expand together, because this is the journey, this is the work, this is the love, this is that effort we have in our heart to be more of ourselves.
- So this fits for you you can go to youwealthrevolution.com/panachenew and be a part of it. If it's not for you, then that's fine too, and know that during this session the energy that we opened up, the light that we opened up was real and it is part of where we want you to connect to.

Joan says: 'I say yes, yes, yes, yes, yes! I love it and I love all of you.'

Panache, any final words for the people here? Anything that you feel coming up for maybe that person that's not sure – maybe not even just sure whether they could have a better life?

Panache: You know, every time in life when life becomes a challenge or a problem you've given up on yourself. And I've realized that it's so nice to have someone that won't give up on you, just lovingly supporting you for 21 straight days. So where you stop they're just there with a loving hand just ushering you on into more, because they know what's inside of you, in the most loving, graceful way possible. And I think we do that for each other. And this is my wonderful honor and blessing to be able to be that voice for you, to just lend out a hand and say: 'You know what? This is where your limitations end, but beyond the edge of your limitation is everything that you really want. Let's go. Let's keep going and let me show you what's on the other side of it.'

So regardless of whether you're having financial challenges, health issues, relationships, issues with your children, promotion, whatever it is, bring it to the 21 days. And as far as is it being a question of being a fit for you, this is the most important thing there is, and what you'll begin to realize is that nothing else matters other than your connection. And the more you begin to tap into this space the more you'll begin to realize the blessing and the miracle that you've always been.

You will love yourself so profoundly that you won't accept things anymore that aren't in harmony with that love. You'll start to eat better, you'll start to take care of yourself, you'll start looking at yourself differently. Your posture will change. Everything about you will shift. Your energy will shift. Everything around you will begin to be uplifted as well. And that's the blessing of you.

So it's absolutely a fit for you because you soul created it for you. Take the leap. Say yes. Leap in and watch what happens. And again, if you register now you get the bonus time between now and the 5th is when it closes. The 5th is the dropdown close date for this. So if you're not in by then you're out. This will go away, folks. Don't miss the opportunity. Take advantage of it.

Darius: I want to mention one thing, Panache, that we didn't mention. This is the last time in 2013 that this is being offered. So it's not going to happen again until 2014. So if you are here and you want to get a jumpstart of 2014 or you need help now or you want this energy now, this is the last time in 2013 that Panache, you are doing this for us. So this is it. You want to get it now. It's not going to happen in November or December. It is happening only during this October timeframe through the You Wealth Revolution. So I just wanted to let everyone know that.

Panache, I love it and I love what you did here. We already still have people writing in talking about the energy shifts and what happened. Very excited about this. I want to thank you for being here. I want to thank you for energizing the circle, for being a part of the event, and kicking it off and also loving everyone so deeply as you always do. Thank you so much, Panache.

If there's somebody here that's discouraged, somebody that feels like maybe their best time has past or maybe that they're just disconnected, any words for them?

Panache: Well, Diana Nyad just swam from Cuba to Florida at the age of 64. When somebody does that they begin to reintroduce possibility into the lives of everybody. So you're never too old. You're never beyond the point where you can come into this abundance or love or relationship or whatever it is that you want in your life. You just have to keep going. And that's the blessing of this. Every single day you get up, you keep going, you keep receiving, you keep expanding for 21 straight days. You are shifting in the most profound way possible and age and wherever you are – your geography – none of these things are a limitation when it comes to the soul. Access your soulfulness. Come play with me for 21 days and I'll show you a version of you that you never knew existed.

Darius: Thank you, my friend. Amazing.

Panache: Thank you, Darius. Love to everybody.
