Conscious Commitment and Soulful Stamina

Darius: Hello and welcome, everyone. This is Darius Barazandeh. We had just such a cool, radical, so awesome intention sessions that we did and we had so many people packing in on the lines. And I have my dear friend here, Panache Desai. And for those of you that are new and are wondering what is the You Wealth Revolution? What do we do here? Why is everybody talking about this amazing event? What we really do is we bring you into, I believe, the life that you were born to live.

There's a certain essence of energy that we generate here. And it's because of all of you and it's because of the work we do and our incredible guests today like Panache Desai. But the energy that you plug into here today, it knows what to do. It's intelligent. It knows where to go. It knows where to really turn on and activate the best parts of you, the best parts of your life, the parts maybe that you've forgotten, the dreams and the things that you believed in at a time and maybe you've forgotten, that are bigger than even your own life, that are bigger than your own needs, those parts of you that need to be activated so that the universe, so the world, can move into its next phase in its evolution.

And you know what the bonus is? You know what the reward, you know what the joy is? Is that you live the most magnificent, joyful, near effortless, abundant life possible. That's what happens when you begin to plug into that. So that's what we do everyday and we do it really, I believe, scientifically, because of the research we've done by connecting to this circle and then raising your vibration in the circle through some of the work we do. We are really changing this energetic setpoint so you expect more, you receive more, you believe more and what's possible for you.

So if you're here and this has inspired you or you know other people in your life that could use some of this help, some of this guidance, you can go to youwealthrevolution.com/now, and just share on Facebook and say; Hey, I'm part of this really cool thing. Come join me at You Wealth Revolution.'

Now, our guest today is Panache Desai. And I'm going to tell you Panache was speaking privately with me before we got on and he said: 'Absolutely we are going to have one of the deepest, most soulful, transformational sessions and vibrational sessions that we've ever had.' And I said: 'Panache, let's just start it now.' But then I looked at the clock and I was like: 'Well, we've got two more minutes, so we have to wait.' But I'm very excited, because we're going to some very powerful things that energetically I know are going to move and transform you.

Panache Desai, many of you know is a contemporary spiritual teacher. He's an inspirational visionary whose gift of vibrational transformation has drawn thousands people from around the world - now hundreds of thousands of people actually – and he's not aligned with any religious or spiritual tradition. He acts really as a direct line to divine consciousness, helping and empowering people to free themselves of pain and suffering, sadness, and self-limiting beliefs.

He was born and raised in London, England, and he spent his childhood surrounded by his spiritual family, deeply immersed in atmosphere of prayer and worship. And after a profoundly transformational experience more than a decade ago, he's connected and committed his essence, his life, every cell of his body to being the true vibrational catalyst that empowers humanity to the deepest states of connection and awareness. And you are going to get to experience divine consciousness today for yourself.

Panache has been highly sought after in print, online, and in the broadcast media. He recently appeared with Oprah Winfrey on the Emmy award-winning series Super Soul Sunday. He's also considered a top-tier faculty at the Omega Institute, a featured speaker at many different events in the Kripalu Center for Yoga and Health, I Can Do It, Celebrate Your Life, The Huffington Post, the prestigious You Wealth Revolution - which we all love so much - and he's also collaborated with internationally-recognized spiritual teachers such as Reverend Michael Beckwith, Elizabeth Lesser, Brian Weiss MD, James Van Praag, Rom Doff, Alan Cohen, James Redfield, Colette Baron Reid, Neale Donald Walsche and so many others.

He also has produced multiple recordings including Awakening Your Soul Signature, Reclaiming Your Divine Life Purpose, I am Exponential Potential and much, much more.

I am going to do this. I want to say one more thing. We are very excited today, because we've quantifying the results of a very powerful 21-day program that Panache has been doing and what people have said of Panache and through this program is just incredible. One person wrote in and said: 'There is so much to love about Panache. Perhaps my favorite is he really brings out the joy in life. His humor shifts you into a space of pure joy as much as his energy work and the community he has created is supportive and loving.'

Another person, Alan Cohen said: 'Panache is one of the most illuminated beings on the planet. His teachings pierce to the heart of truth and bypass all detours. He will empower you to know yourself, the greatest gift of all.'

Let's give Panache a huge amount of love, welcoming him back to the You Wealth Revolution. Panache, welcome back, my friend.

Panache: Thank you, Darius. It's an absolute honor to be here with you as always and to be with this incredible community, so thanks for having me back on.

Darius: I am very excited and I know one of the reasons you wanted to come on was because there's a special energetic discussion that we wanted to have and some things you wanted to share with people. I want you to get into that, but as you do, and as you begin to do that, what's happening on the planet right now as you see it, as you connect to people's energy all over the world?

Panache: What's happening right now is we're being presented with an unprecedented opportunity to know ourselves as our infinite potential. And so as much as vibrationally now we have access to greater abundance and health and love and we're moving to a space of completion, so when I see you I see you in your brilliance and your magnificence, right? That is the optimal potential of you.

What's happening now, Darius, is that people are actually beginning to embody that and live that. So what humanity is experiencing, what all of your listeners are experiencing, is a disconnect between who they really are and how they're showing up right now. And this disconnect is internal. It's inside of them, and it's playing out vibrationally.

So, for example, separation exists as an internal state. So everything that you've judged or criticized or made less than about you, actually gets stuck in your vibrational field and impedes your ability to access your soul, your spirit, that part of you that is infinite.

So right now what's happening is almost like an internal housekeeping that's going on, and we're being lovingly guided to access that potential, fully embody it and live in connection with it.

So as I'm interacting with people one of two things is happening. They're either coming into that potential and embodying it and their life is skyrocketing in ways that I cannot even articulate in words, or, seemingly, everything inside of them that they've had to deal with is arising with greater frequency and it's all arising with intensity so that they can be with it, they can experience it, they can feel it through its completion and then access their infinite potential. Either way, the experience of separation is ending and vibrational expansion is being born in the hearts and mind of men and women and basically our entire species right now.

And so it's an exciting time. It's an absolutely magnificent time. And that's why, you know, I wanted to have this conversation with you, because I want people to make the most of this window, to make the most of this. And the fact that you're here means that you're ready for it. It means that you're authentically ready to own your power and to end that separation.

Darius: I love that. And of the questions, I think, that's coming in from Suzie is: 'Why does everything seem so difficult for me?' And for a lot of people that does touch on where some people are. Why? Why would that be, Panache?

Panache: Because as the energy arises everything that you've repressed or suppressed comes to the surface and typically that's all the stuff that you haven't wanted to look at. So for right now, for those of you that you feel like you're kind of swimming in quicksand, you are. And that's the good news. And the key is to feel all of that.

So right now there's an intensity of emotional experience. People are angry, sad, scared, they don't know what's going on, and that's just intensifying, right? What I've realized, Darius, is that this is really a path for the courageous and that there is a need and a willingness to authentically walk through whatever experiences we're having in life right now. And that seemingly, when we first start to deal with these things they intensify or they almost in our perception appear to get worse, but they're not getting worse. We're just finally feeling the full magnitude of what we've repressed, suppressed, judged or denied.

Darius: Yeah. Okay. Interesting. Now, here's a big question. How can we deny this? How can we suppress this? As human beings, aren't we already connected to our soul? Isn't that already us?

Panache: Absolutely. There's a part of us that is already whole and complete and infinitely connected to everything, right?

Darius: Okay.

Panache: However, that is yet to be fully embodied in our experience, okay? And here is why. So when we look at the vibrational anatomy of a person we've got the soul – that's the subtlest level of energy – then we've got the vibrationally dense layer, which is all the emotional content that's been repressed or suppressed or that's accumulated. Then you've got the unconscious, you've got the conscious, then you've got the physical body.

And so what's happening right now is that the layer of separation is actually the emotional layer or the vibrationally dense layer, and that's what's being agitated. That's what's being stirred up in people so that they can experience that. That's also what Eckhart Tolle calls 'the pain body'. That's what it is.

So all of these unresolved emotional charges are being brought to the surface for us to just be with them and to experience them, and then through grace and inspired action transmute them and transform our experience, and in doing so then unleashing our infinite potential that also is within us. So what we want is for people to be fully embodied in this, utilizing both the principles of grace and inspired action together, because that's what's required.

Darius: So what I understood was that we are all connected to our soul. I mean, we have this but we're separated from it because of density, because of pain, because of perceptions, because of not coming totally open to what maybe has been right in our life, what's been wrong in our life, and really embracing that in love; that we've created almost like this separation between it.

Now, the good news for everyone is that once that separation is gone you instantly connect to that grace and you can be in that space of true joy, bliss and huge possibility.

Panache: That's exactly right, yeah. And that's the blessing of vibrational transformation, is that's exactly what it's done. You know, vibrational transformation allows for your development and then when you have certain structures in place then to support you, both of those work together in the same way that you've got two wings on a bird, right? One of the wings is grace, absolutely. And that's the vibrational transformation piece. That's the part that creates the space and it creates the opening. But the other piece that's just as important is structure.

Darius: Okay.

Panache: And you can't have one without the other. So right now in transformation we've got people that are just relying on the grace – the grace is going to set me free. The grace is going to be enough to pull me on, right? But that's no different than the story of the guy who's in a flood and his house is completely flooded and the boat comes, right? And the boat shows up and he's praying to God. It's like: 'Please help me.' And the boat comes and he sends the boat away. 'I'm waiting for God, right?' And then the helicopter shows up and he sends the helicopter away. 'I can't go on a helicopter. I'm waiting for God.' Well, then he dies, right?

And so here he is praying for grace but at the same time grace is arriving in his experience and he's not receiving the support and help that he needs to move on, right? And then God said: 'I sent you the help. Why didn't you receive it?'

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: So you need both. It's not longer just a question of waiting for your life to shift. It's no longer just a question of sitting on the sidelines in a passive way of navigating your own transformation. It's about now mitigating all of that stagnant energy, right? It's about now moving that through us so that we can have this epigenetic shift, so that we can experience a shift in how our neurobiology functions, so that we can experience a difference in the way in which we relate to life and how we meet life so we don't live life from our fear-based responses to life but we start to live from an open place of possibility. And we literally start to rewire our brains. We literally start to amp up our energy, and we literally start to once again believe and trust in ourselves and our ability to live fully.

Darius: As we fail to take action on the grace and the opportunities, I mean, do we end up eventually insulating ourselves from that vibration; we can't even recognize what is grace and what's not and therefore everything just seems to be chaotic when in essence many things may be in fact blessings?

Panache: Yeah, everything is a blessing, and I think often what happens is that the grace arrives but we don't take the action. It's like, you know, we've got old behaviors and patterns sort that we've become accustomed to that have been entrained in us over years - I mean, 10, 20, 30, 40, 50 years. You are used to doing something the same way, right?

Well, when the energy shifts, when you actually shift your vibration, something new becomes available to you, but you yourself have to still go beyond your own preconceived mental notions and limitations in order to prove it to yourself, right? And it's no different than when you start your job. Your boss may give you an assignment and you look at your boss and think: 'That's absolutely insane. I can't do that.' But instead of going to that place of 'the very fact that I've been given this means that I have what I need inside of me to do this, and it may not come easily, but the fact that I'm open to this grace, if I can couple that with inspired action, the solution that is already born will begin to be demonstrated through me.' And that can happen in every area. It can happen with your finances. It can happen in your relationships. It can happen everywhere. In your health, right?

So you get a trainer and you get on a diet or a workout and seemingly what they're asking you to do is like mind-bending. You may as well be Clark Kent or Superman, right? You look at them like they're insane, with two heads, from another planet, right?

Darius: Right.

Panache: 'What are you talking about?' But it's almost like the fact that you're being asked to do it means that you can. So do it. Trust in that, right?

And that's what grace opens up. Grace opens up access to possibility and potential. If that is actually completely in alignment with your commitment and your consistency, there is nothing that is impossible anymore, because the fact that you're being asked it means that you can do it, means that you can do it and means that the support that you need to do it will happen. It will show up. You'll receive that.

Darius: I love that. I feel that and I feel that's exactly the energy that people need to know right now is that confidence to step, to walk, to believe. I'll share kind of an analogy of our two little boys learning to walk. It's like they have it in them and the second they took that first little step now they're taking two. And that's kind of exactly... I'm sure you're seeing that as well, Panache, with your girls.

Panache: Yeah.

Darius: It's exactly what we're doing spiritually here.

Panache: That's right and the funny thing is, like with one of my daughters, she'll walk three steps, but then she'll realize she's walking and then she'll simply sit down, because she's like: 'Oh my God, I'm walking. Quick, sit down!' Right? And that's what happens. And this is what happens in transformation. It's like our life will get better, our life will improve and we realize it's improving, but instead of sitting down what we need to do is keep walking.

Darius: Yes.

Panache: Even if we fall over, we have to have the consistent fortitude within us to keep walking. You see, here's the thing about transformation: it is so easy for people to invalidate it. It's so easy for people to give up, to just not be committed, to not be consistent, and to just be let off the hook, and they can do any number of things, right? They can do any number of things on any given day to get off of the development, to get off of the growth, to get off of it, right? And they can use any excuse possible to do that. Or they can realize that the fact that they're listening to this call, and the fact that they're here, and the fact that they've actually taken the time to be here means that what they are being asked to do is available to them and all they have to do is say yes and then commit and be consistent. The grace will support you, the vibrational transformation will happen. But the more you can then commit and be consistent, the more you will see the fruits of that grace made manifest in your life.

Darius: I love that. I've got to ask this question: a lot of people are feeling that grace starts to move and they're feeling the energy and then it's kind of like Jean. She started walking and really feeling better, and then she looks around, like your daughter or my son, and says: 'Oh my gosh, I'm feeling great. I shouldn't be feeling this good.' She says: 'It sounds great, but explain all the craziness that's going on in the rest of the world – the senseless violence, so many children suffering tragic death, the slaughtering of hundreds of thousands in Syria, the Middle East, etc. What's going on?'

And it's like we see this and then we say: 'Oh, we shouldn't be feeling love. We shouldn't be expansive. We need to sit back down.'

Panache: Right. And that's exactly one way in which people invalidate themselves, right? Because they go to a global situation. What you don't realize is that we're a part of a unified field. And I love, you know, the aspects of science now are beginning to prove that we're part of a unified field. There are actually quantum physicists now that are beginning to demonstrate this, okay.

So if we're part of a unified field, what does that mean? That means that the answer to that conflict or that crisis that's going on in the other part of the world resides within you. You literally, folks, have the power to transform our planet. I would like you first, however, to focus on yourselves, to get your house in order, to feel everything that you need to feel, to get your health in order, to get your finances in order, to get yourself out of survival, because while you are engaged in the energy of survival you cannot even begin to take on what's happening in the world, right? So we use this global conversation as a way of remaining victims.

Darius: Yes.

Panache: What I would like you to do is use the global conversation as inspiration so that you get your house in order, so you come into authentic alignment to where your identity and your soul are working together, where you get healthy, where you start detoxing, where you start ending your own inner conflict with yourself; you start lovingly embracing all that you are. Because what you're going to notice is that there's a ripple effect, and the first place you're going to see it is in the people immediately around you and then from that it's then going to spread and then eventually it will touch everybody on the planet.

Darius: Amazing. Amazing, Panache. I mean, I just get chills thinking about that. When people do that - they discover that deeper connection - what happens? How does this affect our lives?

Panache: Well, I mean, it transforms everything basically, because, you know, the blessing about dealing with ourselves vibrationally is that the energy that holds the story of a limitation in place is gone. And so literally, when that underlying energy is felt through to completion or we have it transmuted, what happens is the story collapses. There's nothing holding the story in place anymore. There's nothing holding the limitation in place anymore.

And so our belief systems and our mental constraints and limitations are a byproduct of our vibrational state. When we address the energy, naturally the belief has nothing to hold it up anymore. There's nothing to latch onto. It has no fuel. Literally, it just collapses. And we're seeing it, Darius. Like you and I on this call have seen and experienced things and have the privilege of witnessing things that defy the mind. Well, what's happening? What's happening is that the energy, that vibrationally dense layer that keeps you separate from your power, that keeps you separate from your abundance and your potential, the potential that I see when I look at you... That vibrationally dense layer is addressed and as it's addressed then you are provided access to your soul and you start living soulfully. And literally physical conditions shift, financial situations shift. And sometimes it happens immediately and for others it happens over time.

And this is where commitment and consistency is so important, because we need to commit to this. This isn't just dip your toe in and 'Oh, I'm just going to receive the grace and that's going to be the end of it.'

No, that isn't that. You have to want it. In fact, what happens in most cases is you have to get to a point where you are so fundamentally sick of yourself and so fundamentally sick of the way that your life is that you can come into a place of acceptance around it and then from that platform do something to elevate yourself beyond where you even believed was possible, right?

Well, I'm asking you not to wait for that point. Don't wait for the breakdown. Don't wait for the crisis. Don't wait for the challenge. Just recognize that everything on our planet is evolving, including you. Stay with the flow of what's happening on this planet. Evolve every day. Focus on your development, but also have the structures in place to support you in harnessing the power of that development and translating that development into something tangible in your life.

Darius: Wow. Well, Andi has tapped into this energy. She says: 'I feel great since I first heard you and Panache and my life has changed. I am so peaceful, happy, and just living my life.'

On the other side we have someone who says: 'Each time I'm in the process of transformation something critical comes up in my life and I get back to feeling in victim mode. Why does this happen?' And I know, Panache, you're really big on that vibrational support element so people have a before where they can't fall through, but why does that energy come up? It's kind of the same thing as a kid falling down after walking, but is there something else going on there?

Panache: Because the fear kicks. Because the fear kicks in and all of a sudden when the fear kicks in then seemingly they go... This happens a lot in transformation. People go one step forward and two steps backwards.

Panache: Right? Or they'll take two steps forward and then one step backwards. Why? Because fear kicks in. And that's where this is cool. You see, people need to reach... It's like you have a wave, right? It's like, you know, when there's glass, you have a wave and there's an upward node and there's a downward node? What happens is people will hit the midpoint of the downward node. They don't go all the way to the depths of it, and then they think they're done. You're not done. And that's why things get worse or crises appear. Crises are not appearing... See, when a crisis appears in your life, the solution appears with it. And what you need to do is ride the wave of crisis to get a solution, right? And recognize that you are the solution, that it's all inside of you, because we are on the verge of realizing that too, that we as individuals are the center of our reality.

So when a crisis appears, it's an opportunity. But the very second it appears, the solution is already born, and all that's required is for you to open up to the grace and to keep walking. Open up to the grace and keep walking. Open up to the grace and keep walking, right?

Eventually our girls and our sons will just keep walking. They won't need to stop and sit down anymore. They'll just keep walking. They'll get to a point of belief in themselves to where they no longer question their ability.

And that's what I would like for every single one of you. I'd like every single one of you to no longer question your abundance, to no longer question your health and ageless beauty, to no longer question your divinity, to no longer question everything that is inherently already yours. And what's required is for you to walk the journey, to commit, to be consistent, because if you are willing to do that, and if you are willing to own your part in this, you will see a reality open up in front of your eyes that will defy your mind every single day.

Darius: You know, it's like the second they stop questioning their abundance or their beauty or their joy or their ability, that's the second they realize they've always had it all along.

Panache: That's right.

Darius: That's the second it's there. That's the second the kingdom opens up.

Panache: That's right.

Darius: Yes.

Panache: And it is always there. I want you to know that it is always there. Your infinite potential is as much a part of you as your hand or your hair. It's just deeply ingrained in your DNA, right? It's there, okay? But we need that to be firmly anchored in you. I used to get on this calls and say: 'You know, you're not broken. You don't need healing. You don't need fixing.' Well that's true.

Darius: Right.

Panache: On a soul level that's absolutely true. But what's required then is the support and the structure to make that your reality. The fact that I can see it doesn't make it your reality. You need to make it your reality. And I can remind you and support you but that's the truth. I can lead you to the water but you have to be willing to drink the water, right? You have to be willing to do your part and to go beyond and to use the energy to leverage your infinite potential, which is exactly what it will do every single time.

Darius: I'd like to talk about daily practice. Some people try one practice or they attempt it or they try something for a couple of days and maybe they get a good result and they say: 'Well, I went back to where I was before. I fell back to my vibrational 'setpoint' – quote-unquote. What is it? What happens if one practice or one method does not work for somebody?

Panache: Well, let's talk about practice first of all, okay?

Darius: Okay.

Panache: So practice is important because we are creatures of our conditioning, okay? Now, right now you are a product of your conditioning. Now, the conditioning that you've received hasn't necessarily been supportive and uplifting, okay? That's the first thing.

So what does that mean? That means that what we do everyday, what we are willing to repeat everyday, will bear fruit, right? If you look at a gymnast, a gymnast has to train every single day in order to make it look effortless when it shows up. So you can have a natural talent or ability in an area, but what's required is for you to show up in that every day, okay? And the practice is trusting in the end result and then doing what's required of you, right?

It's like you want to run a marathon but you haven't worked out in five years. Well, good luck! You're not going to go from not working out in five years to running a marathon. But what you can do is come into a place of love and acceptance from where you are now - which is pivotal, right? Any practice that you do, do it from a place of it is already so. Do it from a place of it is already so, right?

So, abundance. Explore abundance from the truth that it is already so, because it is. Explore health and wellbeing from the truth that it already is, because it is. At the deepest level it already is. And then what will happen is the rest of you will come into alignment with that. The rest of you will begin to come into a flow and a harmony with that and then the universe will deliver you that result.

And so start any practice from a place of as if it already is. Start from the truth and then it doesn't matter what you do. I don't care if you do 50 backbends every day or you do 5 backbends every day, or you stand on your head, or you hop on one leg – it doesn't matter. When you do it from a place of commitment and consistency, everything has the ability to take you to the truth - everything.

Darius: Yeah, I almost feel like once you begin that transformational journey and you do it from that standpoint it's already yours. You already are at that vibrational place. You already are there. You already have the grace. You already feel the grace there. I love that.

And a big question that I had is, you know, as you go about and speak to so many people all over the world and you connect with so many people all over the world, what's the number one challenge do you see people having? And I guess the other question is: what's the simplest solution to that challenge?

Panache: The number one challenge and the number one obstacle to you fully being all that you are is unworthiness. People fundamentally feel unworthy. They'll even explore transformation from an unworthy place, okay? What needs to be handled again is the emotion, is the vibrationally dense part of you. If you don't handle that, no transformation has occurred. Unless you shift your energy, there is no room to open up to something new.

So again we're vibrational beings and the universe is responding to our personal vibration and frequency. No matter what we want. If want to explore relationship but we're doing it from a place of unworthiness – unworthiness meaning fear, insecurity, guilt, shame, whatever those energies are. If those energies are still at play, even if the relationship arrives it will sabotage it. We won't receive it or we won't even go there, period. We won't even bother, right? We'll just give up before it starts. And that's what happens.

So that's why vibrational transformation is so cool, because what we're doing is addressing what needs to be addressed on you on a primal level, at the deepest level. Not superficial emotional content but the root cause of the emotional content. And we deal with that energy, we deal with it vibrationally, and that opens up expansiveness.

So unworthiness is the biggest obstacle. And then a lack of commitment, quite frankly. People give up on themselves. They don't believe in themselves. They don't believe in their own ability. And then they make themselves and other people wrong. But they just give up on themselves. You have to really want this, folks. This has to be your life. This has to become your focus. This has to be what you live and breathe. And it has to be that, because, quite frankly, it's the most important thing there is. And I've met everybody and I can tell you that the quality of someone's life is not as a result of what they have, but it is based on the quality of their connection with themselves. Everything in life is a side effect of your connection with yourself. If you don't have that, you don't have anything.

Darius: So true. And last time you were here it was an absolutely brilliant discussion and there's so much vibration around this truth of love and moving everything back to love and back to that deep soul love that we all have, and out of the duality that so many seem to be focused in on. Let's talk a bit about how this fits in with moving back to truth and love.

Panache: Well, I mean, moving back to truth and love is basically just returning to your essence, okay? So it's returning to who you are at the deepest level. And so again, it's like when we address the separation and we address all the energies that are keeping you from living in connection with that, well, then that naturally happens, that's the end result of it.

And so what is truth? The truth of you is that you have this infinite potential. The truth of you is that you are infinitely abundant, you're healthy. The truth of you is that you are loved beyond description. That is the truth of you; that you have this amazing light and luminosity inside of you. And that's what I see when I see you.

Now, what's happening right now is that there's a disconnect between that truth and your experience. Right now you are experiencing that truth to the degree to which you are allowing it. That's all. To the degree that you are allowing it and receiving it, right? That's all.

Vibrational transformation opens up the door to allowing and receiving in a way that is just phenomenal, and then you start living it. Then you embody it, right? And so that's what's happening. That's what unfolds. That's what's in the way of you living your truth. The truth is you're already everything but there's a disconnect between the truth and your experience. What I would like is for your experience to be in coherence with the truth of you...

Darius: Yeah, yeah.

Panache: Where your personality, your identity and your soul are 100% in alignment.

Darius: This is exactly what Jeff in Fort Collins is saying as he writes in. He says: 'Intellectually I get the concept of self-love that is already there. But in emotions such as shame or financial stress, these far override the intellectual knowing. Please help me.'

And this exactly what you're talking about; that we can know this, but vibrationally we have to receive it. Vibrationally we have to allow it to be our true essence and manifest in every area of our life.

What I'd love to do... Can we maybe do something to help Jeff and others begin to feel and know this level of awareness? We can talk about but now let's feel it.

Panache: Yeah, let's do it. And then you know what we can do, Darius, too? We can take some calls as well, brother.

Darius: Okay.

Panache: Let me do this and then we'll take some calls, and we'll actually support you all, because I know you all love that.

So just close your eyes, just open your palms and just take some breaths and just relax your bodies. Okay. So right now we're just going to address what's at the root of it, because I just don't like messing around. I love you and I want you to have everything that you are, okay? And I believe in you. And so let's just do it.

So all of the energies that are keeping the experience of unworthiness in place, we're just going to lovingly start bringing them up in you. Just breathe, just relax and just allow all of the energies that keep the experience or story of unworthiness locked in place inside of you to just arise. Just be available for the sadness, the fear, the insecurity, all of those aspects of you that have sentenced you or deemed you to be unworthy to receive - guilt and shame.

I'm just going to lovingly invite all of that to come up and we're just going to lovingly, fully accelerate those energies through to completion. Fully presenting all of the energies around the experience of unworthiness, not receiving, not being worthy, not being good enough, not being lovable. I'm just going to lovingly invite all those energies to come up, to wash through you, to be accelerated to its completion, because we can. Because our life, when we get clear is as we say it is. Because at that point our will and the divine will become one and the same. There is no longer any separation. Good.

And as this is happening, Darius, let's just have people send in their comments in the chatroom. Let's hear what's going on around the world.

Darius: Yeah, please share and let us know what's happening as you experience and feel this.

Panache: Completely collapsing the experience of unworthiness. Completely collapsing the experience of not good enough, of unlovable. Completely experiencing everything that keeps you from accessing your magnificence, everything that keeps you from accessing your brilliance, vibrationally, vibrationally, at the deepest level.

Good. What's opening up in the chatroom? What's going on with people?

Darius: People are already feeling it. I believe the density is moving.

Lisa wrote in from Lafayette, Louisiana and said: 'Oh my gosh. It was like those memories of unworthiness just floated out of my body like a ghost.' So just continue, everyone, to let this do its thing. I'm going to be quiet and let Panache continue.

Jenna said: 'I feel the pain in my heart, but now lots of energy running through my head and my body.'

Just be present to what's coming up and letting it move, everyone.

Panache: Yeah, just stay with the breath and just keep allowing for this to happen. Just keep allowing for yourself to just allow the energies that keep unworthiness in place to wash through you. Just allow the energies that keep the experience of unworthiness in place to wash through. This is the most important thing there is is being available for the energy that keep unworthiness in place. Just let it wash through you. Let it move through. Let it all collapse.

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: Let it all collapse.

Darius: Yes. Sweet Harmony in Pennsylvania says: 'I'm getting it. I'm understanding it on so many of my levels. My vibe is changing and I'm so grateful. This is just what my soul's asking for,' as her vibration changes and she feels it.

Panache: Beautiful.

Darius: Some people are crying. Karen is feeling deep love and gratitude and she's crying. And other people are having a little challenge letting the energy move. They want to stuff it down. They want to hold it down.

Panache: And to those people I would say what are you getting out of that? What are you getting out of not having? What are you getting out of not being all that you are? What are you getting out of not living your greater potential? What does it allow you? What does it allow you? And ultimately, when you look at it, is it worth it? Ultimately, when you look at it, when you look at your life and you continue to view your life through the lens of limitation, is it worth it? And then when you start to look at what is available to you and you start to view your life through the lens of expansion, through the lens of vibrational transformation, then what opens up to you? Then what becomes available?

Darius: Yeah. Keep sharing everyone. Jenny just wrote in. She said: 'Panache always ignites my memories of divinity. Whenever he speaks I feel like 'oh yeah, now I remember.' He helps strip my humanity and reveals my true self. Much love to you both.' Yeah, that's exactly what we're talking about.

Panache: That's right.

Darius: Exactly.

Panache: Good.

Darius: Fantastic.

Panache: Let's take some calls. I'm excited.

Darius: Okay. So you guys can keep sending in your comments. Let's take some callers. What I'm going to do... I'm going to lower everybody's hands. Any special instructions, Panache, for the callers?

Panache: No. Just know that as soon as you put your hand up we're going to handle your unworthiness, because that's what's up for everybody. And we're going to balance both of these wings, right? We're going to balance the wing of grace and we're going to balance the wing of inspired action.

Darius: Okay.

Panache: So both work together, because aspects are required in order for you to sustain a transformation.

Darius: Okay. We've got the beautiful Bonnie and she's in West Bend... it looks like Wisconsin. Calling from a 262 area code. Let me make sure I can get her. Okay, Bonnie, are you there?

Bonnie: Oh my gosh.

Darius: It's you!

Bonnie: Yes. Oh my God. Thank you.

Darius: Yes, yes, yes. What can me and Panache do?

Bonnie: Oh my gosh. This is so much. I would just like Panache to do whatever.

Panache: Okay, let's do it. Let's completely renovate, shall we? Just breathe, just relax, and we're just sending the energy and as best as you can just describe to me what's happening, okay? Are you ready?

Bonnie: Ah-hum.

Panache: Fantastic. Okay. Good. What's going on inside your body?

Bonnie: Right now I'm feeling very warm and almost sweaty.

Panache: Good. Excellent. What I want you to do is stay with this and keep riding this wave of energy throughout the rest of the call, and just know that the energy is bringing into resolution everything that you really want at the deepest level.

Bonnie: Okay. Thank you so much.

Panache: I love you, sweetheart. Thank you. Thank you for calling.

Bonnie: Thank you. Thank you.

Panache: Yeah. Excellent. Cool. Let's do another one, Darius.

Darius: Okay. We've got Janice, last name D, 916, Sacramento, California. Janice, what can we do for you?

Janice: H., I'm ready to step into the full me.

Panache: Let's do it. Alright, Janice, close your eyes, open your palms. We're just going to send you the energy that is going to unlock the potential that's always resided within you. Are you ready?

Janice: Yes.

Panache: Fantastic. Good. What's happening inside of you?

Janice: I feel like things are walking on my fingers or walking out of them.

Panache: Yes.

Janice: And there's energy... a feeling like my... I can feel my heart and through my arms. I guess through my fingers and out.

Panache: Fantastic. Good. So what I want you to do is just stay with the experience and just continue to allow the energy to do whatever it needs to do and just know that what you are asking for is on its way.

Janice: Thank you so much.

Panache: Thank you for calling in. Thank you.

Darius: Wow. Wow.

Panache: Cool.

Darius: I love that.

Panache: Let's do another one.

Darius: Thank you, Janice. I love seeing you, Janice, on the calls, so keep being with us. Okay, we've got... it looks like Kay and the last name is L-E-N and they are at 416 area code in Toronto. Kay, are you there?

Kay: I'm here. This is joyous.

Darius: Okay. Hi.

Kay: The most amazing men on the planet.

Darius: Thank you. Thank you.

Kay: Panache, I think what I would treasure at this moment is to anchor what you're sharing, because I feel terrific right now, but when I hang up the phone...!

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: Well, here's the blessing of this work. It doesn't go away when you hang up the phone. And that's the blessing, right? Because what happens is when we shift vibrationally, that is a permanent, sustainable shift. You don't go backwards. So what happens is vibrational transformation allows you to keep moving up the evolutionary spiral. So it's impossible to go backwards. You're continually evolving because we've addressed the energy. So at that point that reality collapses and everything opens up.

So first of all I just wanted to address that, because I don't want in any way for you to believe that you can go backwards or when you get off the call something else is... The divine is always present, so that conversation implies that wow, the energy's only present now but when I get off the phone it's not going to be, right? No, it's available all the time. Just open your palms and just breathe and tune in. It's there. It's you. It's you. And just the willingness to do, already that's the commitment, that's availability, allows the grace to come flooding in. I just wanted to address that.

Just close your eyes. Just take some breaths and just relax.

Kay: Okay.

Panache: Are you ready?

Kay: Yeas I am.

Panache: Fantastic. Okay. Good. How are you doing? What's happening inside of you?

Kay: I feel cleansed.

Panache: Good. Excellent.

Kay: And vibrant. I feel electric.

Panache: Fantastic.

Kay: Oh, cool.

Panache: Stay with those energies and just continue to allow them to wash through you and allow them to expand inside of you, okay? And just know that what you are asking for is already on its way. Alright?

Kay: Thank you. Thank you. Thank you so much.

Panache: You're welcome.

Kay: You're amazing. Thank you.

Panache: You're welcome, sweetheart. Thank you, thank you, thank you.

Darius: Wow, fantastic. Okay, we've got Carolyn Johnson... Can we do another one?

Panache: Yeah, let's keep going, man.

Darius: Alright, we've got Carolyn here in Troy, looks like Michigan. Carolyn, are you there? Hold on. Hold on a second, I'm so sorry.

Carolyn: Oh!

Darius: Yes, I can hear you.

Carolyn: You can hear me. Good. I would like support. I'm trying to start a business and... not trying – I am starting a business - and I'd like support in really knowing it's my time to rock the world; it's my turn.

Panache: Okay. So basically you don't believe in yourself, so let's take care of that. Just breathe and just relax...

Carolyn: Yes, thank you.

Panache: And we're just going to address all the energies that keep you from believing in yourself, okay? Because in order to rock the world... See, rocking the world doesn't happen from a place of egoic compensation. Rocking the world comes from being so comfortable in your own skin that it doesn't matter what happens in the world. There's a difference. And that's what we want.

Carolyn: A-ha!

Panache: So just breathe, just relax, and we want you so at home in yourself that you are rocking you in every dimension and in every possible way, and people just can't help but just go: 'Wow!' That's what we want. Just breathe, just relax, we're going to send you the energy.

Carolyn: Yes.

Panache: Okay, are you ready?

Carolyn: Yes, I am.

Panache: Fantastic. Okay. Awesome. What's happening inside of you?

Carolyn: Woo! It felt like I'm itching on the inside and stuff is coming out!

Panache: Good. Excellent. So just know that what you've asked for is going to continue to expand, that sometimes all that's required is asking. Now, the energy is going to continue to expand and bring you into harmony and alignment with what it is that you want, but then what's required is for you to then take the inspired action too, okay?

Carolyn: Okay.

Panache: So as the space opens up, continue to take the inspired action to move towards what it is that you want. And be open to it showing up in ways that don't even necessarily make sense, or ways that aren't even necessarily related to what it is that you want. Sometimes life brings you an answer and a solution in a way that isn't even obvious but it's a necessary and an important part of your development.

Carolyn: Okay. Thank you so much.

Panache: Alright?

Carolyn: Yes.

Panache: Fantastic, sweetheart. Keep shining. Get your wow on. Awesome.

Darius: Wow. You know, I feel people just bubbling and moving, and I love what you said about inspired action, that as they're feeling their space, as they're feeling this expansion, it's then time to like almost ground that into reality and begin creating your world. You know, it's so much about making that your world around you by taking the action to build brick-by-brick the things that you want to see in your reality.

I've got Carrie in Colorado. She's at a 970 area code. Carrie, are you there? Carrie?

Carrie: Hello.

Darius: Yes, Carrie. You're live with Darius and Panache. Hi.

Carrie: Is that better?

Darius: Yes, perfect.

Carrie: Okay.

Panache: How can we help you?

Carrie: Oh, thank you. Well, everything I've been listening to today is pretty much how I'm feeling and what's going on since the floods here in Colorado. It seems like not only all of this going on but even my relationships with my children. It just seems like everything has just... I don't know what to think. I don't know.

Panache: Yeah.

Carrie: I feel really lost.

Panache: Yeah, and that's fantastic, because this phase of our evolution is not about thinking or understanding and that's why, you know, vibrational transformation is kind of sweeping the planet, because people are realizing that understanding or awareness doesn't help. It's a part of it but it isn't the whole picture. So understanding and awareness is useful if it's an entry point to us then addressing vibrationally what's unresolved inside of it.

And so what's happening right now is that you're responding to life as it's unfolding now through the lens of the mind. Now, the only problem with that is that it doesn't make sense. It doesn't make any sense. And the more you try to make sense of it, the more confused and lost you feel.

So what's required is for you to continually give yourself over to what's happening, to just keep embracing what is happening, to give yourself over to what you're feeling, to what's going on inside of you, to what's going on around you, and allowing life to impact you, because it's the impact, it's the friction, it's the place in which an old reality meets a new one that the growth happens, right? It's like if you're a Boy Scout you want to start a fire, or you're a Brownie, what you need to do is you've got to rub two sticks together, right?

Carrie: Right.

Panache: Or a Girl Scout, right? In England we call them Brownies. We have Cub Scouts and Brownies. In America you call them Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, right?

So you need to rub two sticks together. Well, that's the friction. That's the friction of grace and that's the friction of inspired action. And that's what's happening.

So just breathe, just relax. We'll send you the energy and just know that harmony and balance is on its way, but before harmony and balance can authentically arrive, there is going to be some friction and that that's okay. That's a necessary part of it. That is for your growth. That is for your development. That is for you expanding into all that you are, okay? So that's the blessing in this. So just breathe, just relax, I'll send the energy.

Fantastic. What's happening inside of you?

Carrie: I kind of feel warmth.

Panache: Good.

Carrie: It's definitely like an excitement, of energy definitely moving.

Panache: Fantastic. Good.

Carrie: Yeah, kind of shaking.

Panache: Good. Just know that that's going to keep going on inside of you, okay? Just give yourself over to everything that's happening right now. This is a moment that you've been waiting for your whole life. Allow it to happen. Allow yourself to receive, allow the energy to move through you, and allow yourself to end the separation between you and yourself. I'm excited for you and so grateful to you.

Carrie: Yeah, I've been trying to do this for quite some time too.

Panache: Yeah, and I'm so grateful that you called in, so thank you very much.

Carrie: Oh, thank you, Panache. Thank you, Darius. Thank you very, very much.

Panache: Thank you.

Darius: Thank you, Carrie.

Carrie: I love you guys.

Darius: Love you too. Oh, I love you.

Panache: Yeah. Darius, this is so cool, because this is exactly what's happening, right?

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: It's the grace but it's also the inspired action. It's the grace and the inspired action. So just know that if transformation has not occurred, then maybe one of the wings is beating out of alignment with the other, right?

Like, for example, people ask me all the time: how have you gotten to where you've gotten to in such a short period of time? A lot of grace and a lot of bloody hard work. And that's the part, right? People just think: 'Oh my God, it's just the grace and I'm not going to have to work hard.' No. You're still going to have to work hard but it's going to come from an inspired place.

Darius: That's right.

Panache: It's going to come from an inspired place that aligns with who you really are. And when it comes from an aligned place, it's not work. It's just transforms. And both of the wings begin to work together, and that's when transformation occurs. So if your life has not shifted, then one of the wings has been missing. Either development has been missing or structure has been missing. And in the absence of one of those two wings, you're not going anywhere. You're flapping one wing, but you're just spinning around in a circle all the time. And most people have been spinning in transformation for 20, 30, 40, 50 years, because they're just flapping one wing.

Flap both your wings. You have two - structure and development. Grace and inspired action equals liberation.

Darius: You know, and I think that what we do here is move people into inspired action and then into grace and into that space where they can receive. And now it's up to you to take that action. Like Janice right now. Janice, what's the next action for you? She says: 'I'm feeling very excited. The excitement is running through my heart and still coming down on my arms and my hands and I'm buzzing.'

Another person, Michelle, said: 'When Panache did the group cleansing, I felt a shockwave of energy to my head and a tremendous amount of energy in my palms. I'm playing along while he did the individual calls,' - which many of you can do - 'and soaking up that energy too.'

So many people are feeling it and feeling this shift. One lady, Lisa, in Lafayette says: 'My palms are pulsating and tingling. I'm feeling so worthy of all things good.' And I think that's really what it's about.

Now, Panache, what would you say to those people right now that they're feeling that energy, they're feeling it and then they're going: 'Okay, what do I do with this energy?' Because energy that you receive, it wants to do something in the world, right? It wants to do something beyond them. It wants to transform. It wants to expand. What would you say?

Panache: Well, the first thing is that you have to actually deepen it and authentically embody it, and anchor it inside of you. That's the first thing.

Darius: Okay. Anchor.

Panache: So that it becomes real. Now, how do we do that? Through consistently showing as our possibility and as our potential, right? Just bear in mind that for however long you've been alive the other has been enforced in your reality or has dominated, right? And that 'other' is fear-based.

What we're doing is moving into a new behavior and the new behavior is love. The new behavior is possibility. The new behavior is openness, abundance, everything that you've always wanted. That reality is absolutely foreign to the reality that dominates our experience.

So the first thing is you need to consistently show up for the greater possibilities of life and living and take inspired action to bring those into being. For example, I hear this all the time, right? 'I don't have a job. I don't have any money.' Well, then get a job. You know, it's like you can pray for grace all you want, but get a job and just know that that isn't your final destination in life, but your willingness to take that action will lead you to meet the people that you need meet to bring the next thing into being and bring the next thing into being and bring the next thing into being.

So life is not complicated. It's just we don't act on the opening. We don't act on the evolutionary impulses that's happening. It's like when someone tells you the first time: 'I'm worried about your health,' listen to them. Hire a trainer. Go on a juice cleanse, modify your diet. Do it immediately. Don't wait for something to happen that makes you modify it, right?

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: If you don't have money, get a job. Do something. Put forth the inspired action to do something, right? Don't let your ego get the better of you and talk you out of doing something simple that brings you abundance because you're here for bigger things.

Darius: Right.

Panache: No, take care of the basic. Take care of the foundational pieces, then you're solid. Then at that point you can leap off into global contribution. Until then you can't. Until then you can't.

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: You see, that's the key. Grace, inspired action, grace, inspired action, every single time. Every single time. And it doesn't matter who you are. It doesn't matter what level of consciousness you embody. You need to apply yourself to what it is that you want, to what it is that you really want, to what it is that you know is available to you. Those are the people that end up with it. There are so many people...

It's like the story of the two mice that fall into that yogurt or that milk or that curd, right? And there's one that starts scrambling and scrambling and scrambling and eventually it gives up and it dies. The other one keeps scrambling and scrambling and it turns that milk into yogurt and it walks out.

Who are you? How much are you willing to give of yourself in order to have the life of your dreams? Yes, it's definitely available to you. It's definitely a possibility, but you've got to go and get it too and you've got to go get it from a place as if it already is, from a place of inspired action. You have to do your part. And the divine will meet you every step of the way.

And I know that because I'm living the life of my dreams and that is the formula that I've used to bring all of that into being. Yeah, there's a lot of grace, there's a lot of energy, there's a lot of possibility, there's divine connection. But without the inspired action you wouldn't even be talking to me right now. You would still have not have heard of me. The message that I'm here to share would remain limited to a living room with maybe five people that show up because somebody told them that something happened. Right now, the thousands of people that are receiving this would not be hearing this were both of those wings not working together.

Darius: Yeah. Yes.

Panache: Absolutely impossible without grace and inspired action to access your dreams and to bring your magnificence into being. So the answer is, Darius, go deeper. The answer to people is go deeper. You know, when you've found a solution that resonates with you dive into it, explore it, give it your all. Go beyond your own internal dialogue and limitations and superficial reasons as to why and do it as if it is already done and watch what happens.

Darius: Yeah. Yeah, I love that. And whatever you do, do it with every fiber and essence and sparkle of love that you have in your heart, with every bit, and the magic will open up.

One person is already seeing some magic. Dave from Vancouver says: 'People are phoning me literally right now with work,' because I bet Dave has been connecting in a big way. And sometimes it can happen instantaneously. Sometimes it shows up as an opportunity that might look like something other than an opportunity. It might look like work.

I was listening to Ashton Kutcher. He received an award and he was talking about... He says he's never seen opportunities show up that didn't first look like hard work. And, you know, I say it's not hard if you're aligned to your heart and you're living your purpose and you're in love with what you're doing. When you're doing that it's spiritual, it's contribution, it's being, it's expanding who you are.

So let's talk, Panache, about kind of one of the structures you always wanted to put together, which was a vibrational community where people could get that help to really strengthen those wings. And really some of the people actually end up transforming other people in this community. I've seen miracles happen because of other people's contribution.

Panache: Well, I actually just want to take a moment to acknowledge you, Darius, because you've played a huge part in this, because your insight and your awareness has helped shift me.

Darius: Well, thank you.

Panache: And I know you always on these calls say how much of a difference I've made in your life, but I just want you to know how much of a difference that you've made in mine. And I love you for that and I cannot even articulate what you mean to me in my world. So I just want you to know that first of all.

Darius: Oh, thank you.

Panache: Now here's why that's important, because Darius has found a way through this medium of You Wealth to couple the two: grace and structure. So what you are provided here on the You Wealth Revolution every single time is grace and structure. Grace and structure.

So for me, you know, in having Darius as a friend and having the honor of communicating with him and just having him share his wisdom with me, I began to see that grace in and of itself was not enough, that grace was a part of the equation but in the absence of the structure and the consistency people were missing the transformation or missing the greater possibility that's available to them.

So for me I thought: 'Well, you know what?' And this was born of a conversation that we had, the fact that if you do something consistently it becomes your new normal and that science has proven that that timeframe is 21 days.

So out of our exploration and our dialog and our coming together, both of these worlds of grace and inspired action, this 21 Days of Vibrational Transformation was born. And I have to tell you that it has fundamentally shifted my life and it has shifted the lives of everyone that participates in it to the degree to which they commit to it and they apply themselves while they're in the midst of it.

You know, as with all things, you can be presented with something but if you don't commit to it fully and you don't give it your all it doesn't bear fruit. So I love what Ashton said about hard work, right? But the quote-unquote 'hard work' prepares you to receive the fruit and prepares you to then allow you to digest the fruit, right? It's like then you receive it, right?

Darius: Yes.

Panache: But the blessing is that the level of intensity and hard work diminishes the more you love yourself. And so I thought: 'Well, alright. How about we provide people vibrational and frequency?' Because I sit there and I receive every day. But then I also have to take inspired action to be a conduit for that in the world. And so just imagine that for 21 days. Just imagine being able to have grace and inspired action work together consistently for 21 days to bring you into a new way of being, to shift the way you see yourself, to go beyond those old neural pathways that have become deeply ingrained in you, and to lovingly propel you on into a greater level of receiving and receptivity.

And that's exactly what's been created because I'll tell you, Darius, you know, when this came into being and everything unfolded, the profound impact that it had on me has been immeasurable in my health, in my finances, in my relationships, literally in every area of my life this 21 days of consistent vibrational support and frequency has shifted me. And I realized that, wow, if that could happen in me and that could actually be sustained in me, then that's entirely available to everybody else. And that's what's next.

Darius: I love it and I want to say this: I have taken part in the 21 Days and I know the power. I saw the power in how people's lives were being shifted. I also saw the power in my own life as well. You know, there was a lot of emotional things that used to come up in family discussions and things. They're gone. You know, around certain family members I don't want to have any charge whatsoever. I'm in total peace and totally feeling love in that. And I'm on the same page with you. I've transformed my health, I've transformed my exercise routines. I've done a lot of things. But what I really feel most excited about is, Panache, you and the way you hold energy for everybody not only on these calls but on those 21 days what you do day-to-day with people was astounding to me.

I just want to say what I saw Panache able to do is he read people's energy that would call in and be able to literally pinpoint energetically exactly where they were and exactly what to say that would move the energy. I'd never seen anything like it and that's exactly what you do on these calls. You know exactly when someone calls in and you talk to them where they're at, and you shift that energy. I've seen it. I could see a difference in their field. I could feel the difference in their voice. It was amazing. It was amazing. So I just want to honor you, Panache. I've never seen anyone be able to do anything like that and I will not forget what I saw. It's just been incredible.

Panache: Thank you. Thank you.

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: And, you know, it's also a product of how outrageous this community is and what they're calling into being. Because, you see, the fact that you're calling it into being means that you're already ready to receive it. Then you just make the adjustment inside of yourself so that it can show up. And that's how courageous you are. That's why you're here. That's why you've found your way here is because you're ready to receive your heart's desire. Otherwise you wouldn't be here. There's no way. And that's the blessing.

You know, it's like what happens on these calls with this You Wealth community is like mind-blowing, literally, because people are so open and so ready. So that's the blessing of this. You know, it's an absolute honor to be here and to be in that space with you all and to see you for who you are and to acknowledge you for who you are, and then to have you see yourself for who you are so then at that point you'll never forget.

You know, the limitation loses its appeal. That box of limitation that right now is your version of normal you won't even be able to get back into anymore, because it would lose its appeal, you know. It's like the choice between infinity and limitation. Eventually there's no choice anymore. You just naturally lean towards infinity every single time.

And so that's what allows for that. That's what provides that experience. That's what brings it into being and it's an honor. It's an absolute honor and privilege every single time to be able to hold this space for people and to connect with people in the deepest possible way on the level of their soul and spirit and support them. It moves me to tears every single time. It's amazing.

Darius: We just got this in from Stacey. She said: 'I'm so looking forward to working with Panache beginning on it looks like October 6th, I believe.' And she says: 'It has already, since we signed up last week, started. The insights, the opportunities for clearing are already blowing us away. We love you, Panache.'

Now, this is somebody that's joining the next 21 Days and she's connecting to this field or to this energy group and it's already starting to flow through. Tell us, Panache, about what's going on on the 6th of October and why is it that somebody would begin to start feeling clearing and energy coming through in big ways as they connect?

Panache: Well, what happens is when you sign up for an event or you actually make the commitment to do something, the opening already begins to unfold inside of you. So even though we haven't formally started - like we start on the 6th - even though we haven't formally started, naturally you're calling the answer into being. So everything that you have to experience to receive is already coming up.

It's like, you know, I hear it all the time. When people sign up for a workshop, to come to see me, or they sign up for a private session or something - when I used to do private sessions - or they sign up for some event, already everything that needs to get worked out starts coming up. Why? Because this is about you. You're unfolding all of this and naturally your commitment brings forth the greater receptivity, and so that's what happens.

On the 6th we start this 21-Day adventure and so literally everything from the moment you say yes, the universe says: 'Yahoo! Let's get them.' Right? And then that's it. And then at that point you're done, right? You're absolutely toasted. So that's what happens.

And so on the 6th we're going to start our 21-Day adventure together. So for those of you that are drawn to this, kind of jumping on it now means you kind of just start opening up already.

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: You can just commit to it now and go even further. And I know that's true for myself. Even when I know that there's something that I need to do and I commit to it in advance of it happening, already the adjustment's that need to happen inside of me start happening. You know, it's just incredible what happens.

And so that's what's going on, Darius, in her and that's what she's feeling and that's what she's opening up to already even before we started.

Darius: Okay. Well, people are asking what the 21 Days is, where they can go, how people got to sign up already. I'm going to begin sharing all of that. It's at youwealthrevolution.com/panache2013.

Emmanuelle Prius from one of the 21 Days says: 'Every day brought more and more knowledge, more love, more light, more blessings, more power. I now know the truth in my being and I can feel the passion arising. I can no longer avoid my destiny. I am ready for the divine to reveal more.'

This was a repeated thing that people felt over and over again as they connected to this group. I saw it. I saw every day people just having breakthroughs. It was incredible. Share some of your favorite stories. What was it that maybe surprised you or one of your favorites? One maybe that shocked you?

Panache: You know, there were lots. I mean, one of the things that really opened my heart up the most was the way in which this community supported each other.

Darius: Okay.

Panache: And that to me was phenomenal. It's like this group of individuals... A part of the 21 Days is we have this Facebook community that's optional, but people do participate in it. And what happens is when you come together and you use the medium of social media with a collective intention, that medium of social media becomes a vehicle for transformation and support.

And so just watching people... Like people were in the middle of a breakdown and then all of a sudden they'd become a support and a solution for somebody else in the group. And over and over again I saw that. Literally people that were on the verge of 'I just can't do this anymore. Life is too hard,' and the next moment would be delivering the exact wisdom that somebody else needs to hear.

Also there were so many great shifts in the area of health, right? All of a sudden there were illnesses and things that people were experiencing that were just all of a sudden disappearing and people couldn't understand why or what was happening, but the energy which was lovingly transmuting all of that.

So many relationships were salvaged or enhanced as a result of 21 Days. People on the verge of breaking up from a marriage or leaving their family or leaving their work situation all of a sudden were able to shift inside of themselves to where their entire reality transformed.

People who wanted a relationship, who wanted to connect in the deepest way, all of a sudden could open up to receiving that. And again for some it was immediate and for others it opened up over time. Either way it's okay. The degree to which you apply both of those wings - grace and inspired action - is the degree to which everything you always want can come into alignment with you. And that's the magic of this.

You know, we heard story after story after story, Darius, and testimonial after testimonial. Literally hundreds of testimonials from people all over the world as to the impact of their participation in this 21-Day Program.

Darius: Amazing. I want to go through the different pieces and I think in going through that, everyone, you're going to see some of the different energies that come forward. I think it's going to be I think even just transformational talking about this, because there is an energy to what's being done here and why it's being done.

It's at youwealthrevolution.com/panache2013. And this is brand new. In essence this 21 Days is going to be unlike any other in any other time and will never be repeated again because, Panache, right, the energy of each 21 Days matches the vibration that each person needs to receive. So it is different every time you do this.

Panache: Yeah, because what you do is you bring your intention to the equation, right? So you bring your intention. So that means that you focus on an area life and living and then the energy meets you in that place. And every single time, because we're different and because we evolve, it's completely different all the time. That's exactly what happens.

So yes, the blessing is that every single time we do these 21 Days it's fresh and new, because we're evolving, we're moving on, and we're never in the same vibrational place. And so there can never be a 21 Days that's identical to the 21 Days before. And that was demonstrated actually, Darius, to a lot of people that did it the first time and then did it again, right?

Darius: Yes.

Panache: Their experience the second time around was completely different than the first time around. Why? Because we are continually evolving. We are continually expanding and we never meet life the same way twice. We never meet life the same way twice. And that is the blessing. That is it right there, yeah.

Darius: Incredible. Okay, I want to talk about each piece, because the first thing that people join is the 21-Day Vibrational Activation Circle. So literally for 21 Days, 7 days a week for 21 days you get this focused attention and intention. And to do that, you actually, Panache, you get each person's name, right? And what do you do with their name as it comes in?

Panache: So every one of the participants I basically get their names. And what I do is every day remotely for 21 minutes I sit with their names and I send them all just the highest resonance of love and potential and potentiality possible. And literally, remotely, the vibrational density starts to shake loose and they move ever closer into alignment with what it is that they truly want. And that happens every single time. And the blessing is that this happens remotely, right?

So I'm just in that space of connection. I'm in that space of absolute connectivity and my going to that place naturally then begins to expand who you are so that you expand and your relationship with yourself. And it's phenomenal, because it just literally means that your commitment is matched by the grace. And then what happens is you in your life then action the grace, action the grace, action it.

And so for 21 days, for 21 minutes every day I have the honor and the privilege of sitting with you – the most deepest part of you – and allowing that to shine forth.

Darius: Amazing. Amazing. So you have everyone's name, they understand, they feel this energy. How fast, I mean, have people reported back that they start to feel, you know, something shift or feel your energy start to work on them?

Panache: Again, for some people it's absolutely immediately and they can immediately start to feel the shift. Like serious things begin to dissolve like seemingly overnight. For others it happens, it takes time, it unfolds. Like, we didn't get to where we are overnight, right? There's a sum total of experiences that have led to us being where we are. Also it's the degree to which we again are committed and we are in action around what's happening. So there's a combination.

So for some people it was immediate; things were immediately shifting. And I remember this one story where this one lady was having a health challenge and her intention wasn't even about her eyesight, but all of a sudden she went to the optician and she didn't need glasses anymore. And so an area of her life had shifted dramatically that was tangible. And what we want is specific, measurable results every single time. We want specific, measurable results, because we want actionable grace. We want actionable grace so you can see the benefit. Then you can believe, you can trust, you can come into knowing and then who you are can be fully embodied.

Darius: Okay. Then the next piece that happens is on October 6th they actually get to spend an hour with you and this is an opening, a sort of vibrational opening, a vibrational attunement to really open up the floodgates of higher vibration into their world. So tell me about that and what's going to happen on that session.

Panache: Yeah. So the reason for the opening day vibration attunement - which is an hour actually... So the first day we start. I'll sit with you for 60 minutes in presence. And the reason for that is to bring everybody into harmony with the highest resonance that's available to them. And why do we do that? Because we want you to start from a space of expansion. We want you to start from where you're going to end up. And so on Day One the focus of that 60 minutes is to put you into highest vibrational potential and to open you up to that fully.

So then over the 21 days you're growing into that, and then that translates in your area of focus, right? So that's the reason for that. It's like a vibrational harmonization, elevation, it's like a huge jumpstart to the whole thing, and that is just incredible what happens as a result of that.

Darius: Now, Nancy's asking: 'Do I need to be on that opening vibrational attunement call for me to connect and really feel something?'

Panache: Well, it's actually not a call. The blessing is that the majority of this is actually done remotely. So it's virtual. It's not a webcast, it's not a call. We're dealing with an infinite intelligence and people would tune into it. So that's the blessing.

So the 21 Days again are done remotely. It's virtual. The opening day is virtual. Now, on the opening day I do give you the time that I'm going to do it, right?

Darius: Right.

Panache: Most of this happens as I'm guided to do it spontaneously. So all of a sudden... Seriously, like, I was in the middle of a business meeting and I'm literally like: 'I'm sorry, I've got to go.' And it was like: 'What do you mean you have to go?' And I'm like: 'I've got to go. I need to go and do my 21 minutes.' And I literally was excusing myself from business meetings and from all kinds of things to go and do 21 minutes as I felt inspired in that moment to do it.

Darius: Wow.

Panache: And the funny thing is when I was doing it, people could actually tune in and they knew that I was doing it while it was happening. And it was amazing. Like, you know, people in Europe all of a sudden were waking up at 3 o'clock in the morning electrified, right?

Darius: I remember. I remember hearing people say that, yeah.

Panache: And so just know that we're not separated over distance, time or space and that vibrationally in the unified field we're all more connected than we know, right? And so that's why this works virtually. So just know that. So the first two pieces are virtual. They're remote. And that's the blessing of it.

Darius: Yeah. Okay. And the other piece, Item Four, is actually four live hour-and-a-half interactive sessions that are going to take place. And this is where I literally was astounded as I was there present and facilitating and watched and felt and saw you literally with people on the call who needed it really be able to pinpoint energetically exactly what needed to be said, what needed to be brought to their consciousness so that it could leave. And so those are four calls that happen as well. Anything about those calls that you want people to know about, Panache?

Panache: Yeah, those calls are actually an opportunity for you to directly connect with me and know that whether you actually get called on or whether somebody else is being called on that it doesn't matter, that ultimately we're addressing the energy of the group, because the group that comes is exactly the same in its vibrational resonance and frequency.

And so the blessing of these calls is that it's my time to connect with you. And literally in 90 minutes we try and go through as many people as possible and we try and deal with as many different areas as possible. And so this interaction piece for me is really cool because we get to see it in real-time happening in people, and as it happens in people they move closer to the life of their dreams, they step away from limitation, and it ripples out to everybody that's on the call or everybody that catches it on the replay. Even if you don't catch it live, right? Or if you go back and listen to it, you get it again and again. So that's the point of it.

Also the reason why there's four is because where you are on Day One is not where you are in Week Four, right? Or Call Four, right? Week Three, Call Four. And the reason for that is we're on this evolutionary spiral. So again it's like this constant tapping in, this constant diving into these energies just further moves you along, further moves you along.

So those calls have just been invaluable in supporting people through the 21 Days and helping them have the breakthroughs that they really want at the deepest level.

Darius: Okay. I've got a few questions coming in and there's a lot more to talk about what you're going to be doing. Question on the 21 Day Program. Someone's asking: 'Can we focus on a specific area in our life where we are having issues at present during the program? Like maybe just relationship issues? How do we choose what to focus on?'

Panache: That's exactly what I want you to focus on. I want you to focus on one area right now where you are experiencing some form of limitation, pain or suffering. Just one area. One area where you are not right now living your full potential in every single way, right? That's what we want. We want you to access that one area and to have a shift in that one area.

And I'm going to say something. You know, in you focusing in that one area you become a clearing for everybody else. And what you realize is that somebody else who's focusing on money, becomes a clearing for you and someone else who's focusing on health becomes a clearing for you. And before you know it, hundreds of people become clearings for each other, because you're literally one soul group, one energy that goes through this.

And so yes, focus on one area. Maintain your focus on that one area and be specific. The more specific you are, the more you'll see the shift in the breakthrough. The more specific you are, the more you'll have the measurable result.

Darius: Okay. The other thing that you do, Panache, is you actually put together some specialized group frequencies for people. For each week you record a frequency fix of divine grace, which is specifically for the vibrational needs of the group. Why do you do that? I mean, why would you add that on? It seems like there's so much vibrational alignment and energy. What does that frequency fix do?

Panache: Well, the frequency fix again is so cool, because that naturally allows you to open up into the fullness of who you are, right? And the reason for that is that again on Week One you are not the same person that you are on Week Two or Week Three, right?

So the frequency fix is I tune in to where everybody's at in the group and then I'll in real-time deliver a vibrational solution for everybody in the group to listen to. And what happens is that then provides you a dynamic vibrational solution that you can use everyday in between the calls and in between everything else that's happening.

So those frequency fixes are literally vibrational overhauls that are delivered. And they're not long. They're literally like about 10 minutes, I think, in length. And just things open up in you around receiving and higher consciousness and expansion and greater activation that are just unprecedented. So that's what that is. It's a way of supporting people and tapping into people in the most profound way available and providing them a dynamic solution, so that's cool.

Darius: When do actually decide what frequency needs to be created? You're feeling into the group where they're at and then you do that actually at some point in the middle of the week in the 21 Days, right?

Panache: Yeah. Yeah, because what happens is you and your development naturally... Like we're connected for 21 days basically. I am with you fully in the most profound way. And I'm not just with you, but I'm with your history, I'm with your past, your present, your future. I'm with all of you.

And so I literally am connected to you all for 21 straight days vibrationally. So I know exactly what's going on inside of you at any given moment and that connection is maintained through 21 days and by the end of it I'm absolutely spent. You know, it's like an intensive for everybody, right? And so yes, that's how we get to this and that's how we know, yeah.

Darius: Okay. It is at youwealthrevolution.com/panache2013. There's tons and tons of people that have said how great this is. 'It is because of you I'm slowly seeing and noticing the hidden blessings in the way. Nothing looks the same. I honor you for being you.'

Janet Maggio: 'I cannot believe who I am becoming. The last couple of weeks I've been happy, sometimes bordering on bliss. Loving everyone and everything. I am so very grateful.'

Diana said: 'For this program and the people in it, but mostly for you, for awakening me to who I truly am, thank you from all my heart and soul.'

Another person, Sheila: 'I noticed over the 21 Days I became more active. I painted in my kitchen. I refinished cabinet doors, painted and glazed the fireplace. Total facelift. It's beautiful.'

Peter Collins – for men as well - there are a lot of men in this 21 Days as well. He said: 'During the 21 Days I felt a lot of dense energy has now left my body. I feel lighter within myself and there's this space for something more. Feeling connected to my higher self. Now sitting in gratitude.'

So if they're triggers that you're dealing with... I know like with me I had a lot of triggers with certain family members and even certain situations with my wife, I'll be honest, just have these trigger that would come up, and now they're gone. They're literally gone. And this is what Kay said, Kay McCartin: 'I'm finding that the usual triggers have far less impact upon me and I'm gaining confidence since speaking my truth. The feeling of spaciousness continues to grow day-by-day and I'm profoundly grateful I've had these 21 Days.'

Panache, one thing we didn't talk about was the expansion of the energy, because people, you know, in the first they're at one level and then they expand to another level even on the second day. And then you work on that level, and then that catapults into another level. So it's almost like 21 days times an infinite number of expansions and breakthroughs along the way that it's just leveraging by a factor of hundreds of thousands each time they go through and have a breakthrough.

Panache: Yes, that's exactly right. There's a cumulative effect, and that in and of itself again is the consistency and the commitment and leveraging both the energy of grace and consistency and inspired action. So that's what happens. There's an accumulator that happens.

Darius: Wow.

Panache: And so it builds and builds and builds and builds and builds over the 21 days. And then there's a new vibrational platform for you from which to source your life, and that again is dependent upon how much you show up and how much you're just willing to play full out and just be available and experience everything. The degree to which that you are willing to just be fully committed to what's going on and fully available to everything that you need to feel. So that's the blessing, you know.

Darius: Wow.

Panache: Yeah.

Darius: Okay, I want to do this. People are asking: 'How do I get started? What do I do? What's the investment?'

Basically there's a plan, right? There's a payment plan for people that want to do it in installments. It's $148.50 now and then another $148.50 in 30 days. So that's one option. Or the full payment of $297.

Panache, any word on that or how that's been working for people?

Panache: No, just you guys have been so generous in wanting to help this community. You know, I don't do private sessions anymore. So for me the focus has shifted on how can we support people in the most cost-effective way possible and deliver them just the best value that we can.

So this 21 Day Program is that. It's an investment in yourself. It's an opportunity to really commit to your evolution and your journey. And also it's at a price point where you're receiving so much value and so much support, because we want to give back. Ultimately this is our way of saying thank you and giving back and giving so much value and so much support to people. And that's what we want to do here, because we're really committed to this upliftment of people and just people embodying who they are. And so that's how we get it down to $297. And again it's why we have the two installments, because we don't want money to be a limitation. There is an intrinsic value to this that is priceless, but what we want to do is offer it to people in a way that they can access it and work with it, and that's the blessing of this, Darius, is that we get to do that.

Darius: Yeah. I love that. I love that. I want to take questions if anyone has any questions. It's at youwealthrevolution.com/panache2013. Or if anyone else was in the 21 Day program, what you experienced, what happened to you, what you felt, what you want to share for other people, because that sharing actually opens up more space energetically for other people who may right now be in fear or doubt.

Johanna from Halifax said: 'I just finished the 21 Days. I'm so thankful. I am a different person. I'm more confident. I have greater hope, gratitude. I'm very thankful for Panache. I cannot articulate the changes and thankfulness, and I will be doing another one.'

So Panache, a lot of people seem to be doing multiples. Why is that?

Panache: Because they shift. Because literally and authentically they shift in a way that is just phenomenal and they know that. And when they find that entry point for them, they're consistent to it. It's like when you find a workout that works for you or you find a way being in the world, you keep doing it because it works, right? You see the benefit, right? And the very second you could see the benefit you give yourself over to it and you commit to it.

So that's exactly what happens to people. They immediately see a benefit. In their willingness to see the benefit they come back and they come back and they come back, because they realize that this is an ever-expansive journey and that ultimately we're continually expanding, we're continually evolving, and that that is something that is going to continue to happen until the day that we leave this planet, right?

So that's the blessing of this, you know. That's the blessing of this that we are on this infinite continuum and the more we can commit to it... I mean, I know for me and you, Darius... You and I are continuing to evolve, right? There's no end to it. And just when we think: 'Oh my God. Yeah, we've gotten to a place,' there's something else and there's something else and there's something else, right?

And so that's the blessing in this is that we continually evolve, we continually grow, we continually shift, we continually move into more, you know, continually.

It's amazing, yeah, and that's why people do it again and again and again, because it just works. It's that simple. Because it works.

Darius: Laura says: 'My triggers have lessened and some of my triggers are gone.' She said she's done with all of her self-help books at the end of 21 Days. She doesn't need it anymore.

Another person, Janice: 'I was in my first 21 Day group - I was in the first - and my life has had significant changes ever since.' So that is amazing. Let's see what else... What other questions do people have? Anyone else?

Laura said: 'I just completed the 21 Days. I feel happier, healthier, stronger, more whole and complete. I'm done again with my self-help books.'

So people are realizing, Panache, that they have the wisdom inside of them, they have the knowledge inside of them. They just need that dense energy – like we started the call - out of the way so that they can truly be everything they're meant to be so that divine self comes forward, they can live from the soul.

And that really is like for that 21 days you move that away, you allow that soul to come forward. It's there, but you allow them to really plug in and then after that they really do it on their own. I mean, that becomes the way to live. You know, it's like once you understand how good it feels to do something in your life, you keep doing it like any routine.

Panache: And then in and of itself is my greatest joy, is the fact that people get it and people live it, right? And then also that they become independent, because once you are fully at a point of recognizing the wholeness and completion that you are, you become independent, and then you become that for other people. And that's the blessing of this is that you are empowered in you and then you live in that, you live in that, and that is... I mean, there's no way to.... You know, it just blows my mind and I'm just so filled with gratitude that that is the end result of this, that people are empowered in themselves, they're living in harmony with themselves, and that everything beyond that everything starts to happen in the most incredible way. And they realize that they can do it for themselves. So that's the cool part, you know. That is the cool part.

Darius: Wow. Wow. Well, it's at youwealthrevolution.com/panache2013. I love it.

Well, Panache, thank you so much for being here, my friend. You have inspired me to do so much more. And, everyone, I just want to say there's a certain ease that Panache has with the reality of this world. There's a certain knowingness of what's possible. This is a man that really plays in the infinite. He plays in the world of anything is possible. He has a dream, a desire to do something and he finds ways to make it a reality and opens doors where many times I think: 'Well there's not a door there.' And then Panache goes: 'Yeah, there is. I told you.'

So I just want to say, I mean... And he stays loving and grounded. So in my life he's been a huge inspiration and has always stretched me to find more of my own unique gifts. It's never about him putting his gifts on someone else, but him recognizing the gifts that each person has.

So if that's something you feel good or want to resonate with, that's kind of what we do here. We want to bring opportunities that you can't really find anywhere else, that you may not see in your daily life. That's what this 21 Days is about, and if it vibrationally feels good, then go to youwealthrevolution.com/panache2013.

And also understand there's a video there, Panache, as well for people. You're sharing something with the group that you wanted to share.

Panache: Yeah, there is a video there. You know, I really just love this community and it's an honor to be able to support you all. And we just always want to.... you know, myself and my team just always want to deliver the absolute best that we can every single time, and it's just been phenomenal in our exploration of what we can deliver to get to this. So yeah, the video there. There's a full explanation of everything. And again, it's like everything starts with a yes.

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: You know, everything starts with one simple phrase: 'Yes, I'm open and willing.' And then that's the inspired action. So if you've been touched, moved or inspired in any way, then follow that impulse and watch what happens.

Darius: Yeah. Thank you, Panache, my friend, for being here, for sharing, for doing so much energy work on the people here and moving so much energy for all of us. Thank you, my friend.

Panache: Thank you, Darius. Thanks for creating this wonderful platform. It's just an honor to be with this community and to be able to share in a way that is so fully received by so many people around the world. So I love you, brother. Thank you, thank you, thank you. My love to everyone that's on the call and I look forward to seeing you on October 6th as we begin our next adventure.

Darius: Yes, absolutely. I love you too, Panache. Thank you.
