Vibrational Increase and Living the Breakthrough

Darius: Hello and welcome everyone. This is Darius Barazandeh. You're tuning in to the You Wealth Revolution. I am very excited. We did an amazing intention session. That's what we do as we get on early. And we have an incredible session plan for you today. A lot of people ask me: 'Well, Darius, do you script this calls? Do you know what you're going to say? Do you know what's going to happen?' And I say: 'Never do'.

I never know what's going to happen. I never know what miracles are going to unfold. I never know what's really even going to come out on my mouth from one moment to the next. Some of you notice that and you say: 'Yeah, you say the craziest things' or: 'You go in these directions. But it's always the right thing that I needed to hear that moment. It's almost as if you knew or something knew what needed to be said and you or your guest took me there.'

That's how it works here. That's what we do. We allow spirit to move us and create miracles. There's no other way to explain it. There's no way to explain how this phenomenon of You Wealth that has grown so quickly and so many people all over the world are tuned into it. It's because alive. It's vibrating outside of us. It's bigger than me or bigger than anything that we think we're doing to control it. It's this really true awakening of vibrational increase and living from the breakthrough, living from the truth that we are infinite and that we have the magic and the control over our destiny as it relates to our heart and vibration.

So I want to set the tone for today, and as I was speaking with Panache before the call and just during our little mission, which really is that the tone is for miracles, that we want to bring miracles into your life, bring the expectancy of miracles. You know, we're expectant of a miracle. Our lives are different, right. We get up with gusto. We walk around expecting great things to happen. We look our day with excitement, the glee, and we can't wait for the next moment to unfold as if we're that's little child four years old, unwrapping the big, red Christmas present under the tree.

I want to bring that into your life today. In fact, that's what we're doing energetically right now is to bring that. So we are going to get started.

And I want to ask a question. Are you tired of yo-yoing between limitation and possibility? Are you ready to allow miracles into your life by simply allowing your soul to guide your steps and then realize that everything in life will become easier?

There's no question in my mind as we do more and more scientific studies and we're exposed to more and more research that everything that we speak about here has an impact on our health, our vitality, our abundance, our joy, our relationships, our life path, finding the person who we love - everything. This idea of this You Wealth energy, this truth of being what we're here to be, and allowing and loving and being is the way that we create the magic, is the way that we create the infinite, and I want to invite all of you on a journey with me and Panache today to create those miracles.

My guest today is a dear friend and his name is Panache Desai. He's a contemporary spiritual teacher and an inspirational visionary whose gift of vibrational transformation has drawn thousands of people from all over the world.

Now, he's not aligned with any religious or spiritual tradition, but he acts as a direct line to divine consciousness, helping people and empowering people to free themselves of pain, suffering, sadness and limiting beliefs.

Panache was born in London, England and he was somebody who knew that he had a deep gift, but after profound transformation experience more than a decade ago, he committed his life to being a vibrational catalyst.

He travels around the world, providing experiential of programs and inspired living workshops as well as many webcast and very profound online events.

He's young, hip and funny and often a reverent to some of the things that you may have heard before, some of the things that you may have believed because he wants you to be vibrating with one simple message; that you are a gift, that you are this thing that you have been searching for for your entire life long. And because of this people have sought him out, like Oprah Winfrey who connected with him and said: 'I have to have you on Super Soul Sunday'.

He's also considered the top-tier faculty of the Omega Institute. He's a featured speaker at many different events like You Wealth Revolution and the Kripalu Center for Yoga and Health, I Can Do It!, Celebrate Your Life, and even on the Huffington Post. He's collaborated internationally with spiritual teachers like Reverend Michael Beckwith, Elizabeth Nassau, Brian Wise, James Van Praagh, Rom Duff, Alan Cohen, James Redfield, Neale Donald Walsch and many others.

Panache has even gone in and because of this energy, because this energy is so much a part of everything we do, it's actually become very popular in the music industry. He has a program, a multiple recording called Awakening Your Soul Signature, I Am Exponential Potential and many other internationally acclaimed CD series, and even recorded an album under the handle MCIM with his music partner DJ Mantra Matrix titled Dance Away Your Destiny.

In 2013, Panache launched an international three-day program and we are literally just less than a couple of weeks away from the last 21-day program that he's going to offer in 2013.

So with a huge amount of love and a huge amount of energy let's welcome our guest today, your catalyst and someone who's going to love you today in a very deep way, Panache Desai.

Panache, welcome back to the You Wealth Revolution, my friend.

Panache: Hey, Darius. I'm beyond excited and I can't wait to get started for one or two reasons. First of all, I've already been feeling the energy of group all, first of all. Secondly, because when we realize that we're vibrational beings, everything becomes possible. So that miraculous power that you were talking about is what we're going to unleash in everybody and you're literally going to see it, feel it and hear it in a tangible way, every single time.

So just know that whether you get called on today or not that you're included in the energy, and that when that energy shifts in one place, we end up with a new morphic field.

This group consists of a morphic field that all your collective energy represents one energy. When we can shift that energy - and this is not philosophy; this is physics - everything is energy. When we shift that energy, miracles will occur on this call. I can't wait to get started and I'm beyond overjoyed and honored to be here with all the listeners.

Darius: You know, one of the things you said privately was 'let's make miracles happen'.

Panache: Yeah.

Darius: 'Let's really do something magical for the group.' I want to start out with a question. What do we need to do to prepare for the breakthrough to happen? Is there anything we need to do to prepare?

Panache: I would just invite everybody to relax and just be open. That's all. Just relax your bodies and just be open. That's it. You're here. You've made it. You're already a part of that percentile that's remembering, that's a part of this great movement that's ascending. And so by virtue of the fact that you've made it here, that's enough. Now just be open and just receive and just receive and receive and receive, and allow yourself to be nurtured, allow yourself to be loved, and allow the miracle to happen. Allow the miracle to occur. And it may already have happened to you. I'd love to hear from people already that knew they were going to be on this call. We may already have miracles unfolding. That's typically how it works.

So send us your messages, let us know what miraculous things are already unfolding, and as we move into the goal, please continue to do that. This is going to be miraculous.

Darius: I love it. And for some people that are wondering, what does a breakthrough actually feel like? I think many times we think that it's supposed to feel like something else that we miss a catalyst for a breakthrough or we don't really understand what it is. Tell me about that.

Panache: What we want... A transformation on an energetic level is a shift in our frequency or resonance. Now, that shift can sometimes be subtle and it can be as subtle or as simple as moving of anger and chaos into peace. So all of a sudden you're angry, but the next moment you're peaceful.

What you'll experience on this call is also people will be profoundly sad and the next moment they'll be laughing out loud controllably, right? Other things that you'll experience is physical conditions... We've had incredible physical shifts happen here. They literally come in with a certain diagnosis or a label that seemingly is irreversible, and through being in the energy we've reversed it. And so nothing is off limits here.

Darius and I will hold this place and will continue to just be with you all, but you pay attention to what's happening inside of you and be available to what you're feeling already, because every time Darius and I set the intention for miracles, that energy wave already goes out into this entire group. Everyone's a part of it. And so you're probably already experiencing. You probably are noticing shifts already.

Now, that's the blessing of vibration transformation is it's shifting... Moving those heavier denser energies out of you allows you to receive all that you are at the deepest level and so just get ready, folks.

Darius: Yeah. Rick in Caesar Hills said: 'I watched one of Panache's webcast and tears were falling freely. And when Panache said 'expand', I envisioned a white pulsating energy from me, flowing outward, covering the world in this great wave. It was incredible. I love you, Panache.'

People feel this. People feel this as real. What stops them? I mean, what stops them from holding onto from this flow - from feeling it and then somehow it's gone or they slightly disconnect it?

Panache: Well, what happens is... It's not gone. What happens is it gets integrated. So you'll go through a vibrational shift but then you'll integrate that shift and that becomes your new normal. So let's say you were vibrating at a level of self-loathing. All of a sudden you move to self-love, right. So you move up to vibrational scale. Well, then you have a new platform to build your life on. You're no longer coming from defeated, unworthy, I need healing, I need fixing, I'm broken. Now you're operating from a surer footing to where you can then begin to move on.

So I always live as an infinitely expansive spiral staircase. What that means is that we're continually evolving upwards. Whether we're aware of it or not we are. And we'll never be on the same step twice. So just know that. Just know that. Regardless of what your life looks like right now, you are evolving, you are moving through.

When we deal with energy, Darius, the other thing is that you can't understand it, because the vibrational dimension is a non-mental dimension. So I would encourage you for the time that we have together to give up the need to understand, to go beyond the mind, and to go beyond the need to quantify it or to dissect it. Just be in the energy of it. Just feel the experience of what's happening, because it's visceral. You can feel it. You can feel the energy. You can feel what's happening in every cell. You can feel the emotion that's arising. You can feel the possibility that's stirring within you. And that's the place right there, the experiential place.

So just relax and just be open and just be available. Just be available. That's it. For whatever arises just be available.

Darius: Yeah. What I love about you, Panache, is you said: 'Listen, Darius, I don't want to just talk and share. I want you to open up the lines. I want you to connect with people. Let's let people feel what this is.'

So I want to everyone know if you're here you've gotten your space. Literally our lines are jamming up. We already have people raising their hands. Close to almost 100 people with hands raised. So if you want to get on and speak with Panache and get some of this, hit *2 on your phone to raise your hands.

I've a got a question though that came in from Sheila, before we do that, and she says: 'What's the single biggest thing, Panache, that you've learned about energy?'

And Panache, I know you've spoken to Oprah, spoken with your dear friends Neale Donald Walsch and so many other great luminaries. What have you learned about energy, the single biggest thing? The most important thing?

Panache: I think the most important thing is to know that energy is always in motion. Energy is always in motion. And why is it important? Because when we look at our lives and we look at how our lives are unfolding, what does that mean? It means that naturally everything in our life wants to move, shift and change. Nothing is stagnant. Nothing stays the same. When you look at nature, nature's continually going through growth cycles and life cycles. Every season, when you observe plants and trees, they're going through cyclically what they have to go through. Energy is always moving.

We as human being, however, don't allow energy to move. We've judged, repressed and suppressed our emotions, which are energies in motion, and what we want to do is lovingly lift the lid off of that so that those energies can once again flow.

Everything wants to flow. Energy always is in motion. It always wants to move. Allow it to and your life will take off to heights that you cannot even imagine in your mind. And I know that because my life has.

Darius: I'm going to be the devil's advocate, so to speak, but it almost seems too simple.

Panache: Yeah, it is simple. It's very simple. We've overly complicated transformation because we've been approaching it mentally. And so when you approach it mentally you can't get the essence of what's happening. That's why vibration transformation is so cool. It is simple. We are lovingly just guiding you back to the truth. And what is the truth of you? You're not broken. You don't need healing. You don't need fixing. You're already abundant. You're already fantastic, brilliant, loved. You're already everything. However, your experience of yourself doesn't correlate with the truth of who you are.

Vibration transformation expedites that shift. It catalyzes that shift back to your true self. So then you can embody it, right. You embody it all the time. At that point you become an authentic embodiment of impossibility, of power, of light, of love, of all of you are, you see.

So when I see you, I see that greater potential, that full potential of who you are, and then on these calls we're just lovingly vibrationally re-informing you that that's your potential, and everything in you shifts to come into that experience. And it will continue to do so because we're infinite. I'm still evolving. Darius is still evolving. The planet is still evolving. Everything is still evolving. But the blessing is that you're available for the evolution, you're available to the energy to move, you're available for life to shift and change and increase and move into more all the time. You're not holding on. You're not stuck in a certain way of being where something needs to show up in a certain way in order for you to accept it. You can actually let go and actually begin to just enjoy the ride and enjoy the adventure and recognize your life for the miracle and blessing that it is, because every single one of you is that. Regardless of what your life looks like right now, what you have or what you don't have, that's the truth. That's who you are. Every single one of you. And in our time together it's just our honor to reacquaint you with that truth.

Darius: When you look at somebody and when you see them, what do you see? It sounds to me like you see the greatness, you see the true essence of what they are, or when you hear someone on the phone. Tell me about what happened, what do you feel in your body or energetically, or how it comes in to you, this knowing of what they are.

Panache: The easiest way to answer that question is, Darius, I am them, so there's no separation between myself and them. So it's almost like I feel everything that they're feeling as if it's me. And when I go to that place of just stillness and connection, that's exactly what happens. All the separation falls away and I'm literally that individual to the point where I know them in some cases even better than they're willing to know themselves.

So that's what happens. That's the gift is that intense level of relatedness to where there's no longer separation. And it's from that space then that everything shifts. And so when I'm with you on the call, I'm asking you questions but I already know everything that's going on, because I am you. I can feel what's going on in your body. I can feel everything that's going on. So I can see the potential and the brilliance. I can see your spirit, your greater luminosity, the part of you that's already abundant, but then I can also see everything that you've created, that you believe is the truth of you over that, you see. And then what we do is we lovingly dissolve the illusion or the lie of what's false so you can access the truth. And that's what happens.

Darius: Yeah. I've seen you do this. I've seen you do this with people that had... One gentleman I remember couldn't see and he literally started seeing on the call. Another person couldn't get out of a wheelchair and you saw the blockages or you saw what they were doing to hold them in that chair and they literally got up during a call.

I want to ask a quick question. I know that you have one more 21-day event that's happening in 2013 and it's going to be happening pretty soon. As you spend time with people over that amount of time, what changes happen to their vibration? I mean, if you can do these things very quickly for them, with them, what happens over 21 days with them?

Panache: Well, it's exponential, because it has an accumulative effect, you see. The more you immerse yourself in this energy and the more spent time in it, the faster you move through the density. Now, what's the density? The density is your sadness, your anger, your fear, everything that you've oppressed or suppressed.

So when you look at the vibrational pattern of a person, there's his soul. Then around that soul is the emotional layer. Around the emotional layer is the unconscious mind. Around the unconscious mind is the conscious mind and the physical body. What does that mean? That means that if we shift your energy at the deepest level, which means we integrate all the emotional content, then naturally the light and luminosity of your soul and spirit can begin to inform every other area of who you are and then you start living soulfully.

We've been trying to live mindfully. I'm kind of creating this new area of study called soulfulness where we're living soulfully, where our soul is fully reflected in all that we are, you know, our soul is fully present. Because our soul isn't limited in any way. Whether you believe in God or not – you know, drop the terminology - it doesn't matter. Let's just call it love, right?

Darius: Right.

Panache: Soul, love, source, it doesn't matter. It is that part of us as human beings that is infinite, that is undefinable, that cannot be limited.

And literally, Darius, that's the shift that happens. People start living in connection with that and they become authentically anchored in that. That becomes their new normal. And so many people have gone through the 21 days. I mean, over the 21 days I can literally see their progression. Some people go on to do subsequent 21 days. Why? Because it works. Because they see the shifts in their lives.

Families have come back together that were on the verge of breaking up. Harmony and balance has been restored in people's homes. Illnesses have been averted. Diseases have been reversed. I mean, the things that happen to people just blow my mind every single time. So through you this is the last opportunity in 2013 that we're going to do it. If you are ready to tangibly experience a shift and commit to yourself and to see the evolution occur, and if you are really willing to have everything that you want, then this is for you, because the end result of it is you will have everything that you want.

Darius: Yeah. Yes. Well, I want everyone here that needs this, that wants this, that wants to raise their hands and connect with Panache, hit *2 on your phone and we're going to get started and give everyone a chance here. So what should we do Panache? Any special instructions for people that have their hands raised or anything that we need to be aware of?

Panache: Don't get too involved in the story. We don't need to know, because I already know what's going on, plus I don't want you to share intimate details, because obviously there are other people on the call. So just share what's pertinent. Just give me the gist of what it is. And at that point we'll just deal with the energy and you'll experience the breakthrough and the miraculous will be born.

I'm excited. Let's just get started and we'll do as we can. We'll get through as many calls as we can.

Darius: Yeah. And this is just a taste of what happens in this incredible 21 days. Get ready to feel some big energy. We have Emily in Culver City and she's at a 310 area code. Emily, one second...

Emily: Hello.

Darius: Are you there, Emily?

Emily: Yes, I'm here. Wow.

Darius: Hello.

- Emily: Hi. I hope it's not too windy and you can hear me okay. I have been dealing with a physical condition for 20-plus years. I've been through every alternative healing modality you can shake a stick at. And I've recently found out that this has to do with oxalate toxicity, which is something that is in our food. And I don't want to go into all the details, but I apparently have the bacteria that breaks down this thing that most people have and I don't want to just believe in that paradigm and continue suffering.
- Panache: Are you done with it?
- Emily: Yes, please.
- Panache: Good. Alright. Then let's have it be done with you. Just close your eyes and just open your palms and just breathe and relax. Are you ready?
- Emily: Yeah.
- Panache: Okay. I'm just going to send you the energy and as best as you can just describe to me what's happening to your body. Ready?
- Emily: Yes.
- Panache: Okay.
- Emily: I feel a little giggly... deeper breaths... more energetic like vibration. And now I'm kind of connecting all the despair and hopelessness that I've gone through all these time.
- Panache: Good. Stay with that. That's the density that arising. That is all the denser heavier energy that needs to come up.
- So what we're doing is we're aligning you with the greater possibility vibrationally. So right now where you are vibrationally you can't access the solution because you haven't shifted your energy. What's required is shifting your energy so that then all of a sudden reality can meet you in a new way and you have a new platform on which to source solutions. And that's why you've been dealing with this for so long, because even though you've done healing techniques and modalities, people don't have the ability to shift energies. That's a very unique skillset.
- Emily: Right.
- Panache: So what we're doing it is we're shifting the energy. Just keep breathing, just keep relaxing, just keep sharing. What's happening now? It's already gone. How do you feel?
- Emily: Vibrate-y.
- Panache: Yeah. Everywhere.
- Emily: Yeah.
- Panache: Fantastic. And where's all the despair in all that stuff?
- Emily: I'm not in that at the moment. Thank you.

- Panache: Yes. Excellent. And what's available to you now?
- Emily: More possibility.
- Panache: Thank you. Fantastic. What you need and what you require is going to find its way to you very shortly because now you are in vibrational alignment with it. Okay?
- Emily: Can I ask one quick question? Why are people not able to do this on their own?
- Panache: Because they haven't gone to the very depths of themselves. Until you've gone to the very depths of yourself - and that is quite the journey. That means embracing every single aspect of you. That means embracing all that you are. That means fully owning yourself for the spirit and soul that you are.
- Emily: Okay.
- Panache: But there will come a time when everybody will and that's why I'm here, is to lovingly remind everybody that I can. That's the blessing. That was a great question. Thank you very much.
- Darius: Yeah.
- Panache: Yeah, Darius, that's a good point. I just want to talk about that for a second.
- Darius: Let's do it.
- Panache: Unless you have been to Australia, you don't know what Australia is like, right?
- Darius: Yeah.
- Panache: You have to go there. So for me, I had to experience the divine and experience the potential of the soul in order to be able to be a conduit and a bridge for this work. It's not a technique or a modality. This is just authentically me being who I am based on my experience of the divine and the potential of who we are. And I'm so firmly anchored in that that what happens is that version of the truth vibrates everything that this calls up and out, you see. And that remembrance is being born in people, but that is a willingness to include of all that you are. It is a willingness to be inclusive of all that you are. And it's through that willingness to be inclusive that you access the dimension of your soul and your spirit.
- And subsequently, in answer to that question, people who have been coming to sessions for a while cultivate that ability. They remember that ability, because they're not mired in density anymore. They're not weighed down by their fear and their sadness and their anger or their rage or their depression or whatever it is. They're in a place now where they can actually go to that place of soulfulness inside of themselves and it's beautiful.
- Darius: Yes. Absolutely. I mirror and agree with all of that. We've got Debra in Baltimore, Maryland. She is at a 443 Area code. Debra, are you there? Do you have a question for Panache?
- Debra: I do. Thank you. I just absolutely love your work. I'm just been stuck and I do...

Darius: Stuck? Okay.

Panache: Are you done with being stuck?

Debra: I am done with being stuck, and I don't really need to do my stories.

Panache: Alright. Well, there's a whole infinite amount of stuckness about to go bye-bye. This is the miraculous call. Alright. Close your eyes, open your palms. I'm going to send you the energy and as best as you can just describe just what's happening. Are you ready?

Debra: I'm ready.

Panache: Okay.

Debra: I just feel like a wave of energy. It's hard to describe it. I just feel a lot of downloaded fullness. It's interesting because it's like it's vibrating in my core of my body around my heart.

Panache: Yeah.

Debra: Actually I almost feel like I'm getting a shortness of breath. I mean, it's like overwhelming.

Panache: Yeah. Just give yourself over to the vibration. The stuckness is being lovingly shaken out of you.

Debra: There's a lot of it. I can really feel it moving.

Panache: Yeah. Actually it's already over.

Debra: It feels like I can breathe again.

Panache: That's right. It's over.

Darius: Yeah, it's happening.

Panache: You're realizing that's it's over. That which is what happens on these calls. How do you feel now? Giddy and what to do cartwheels?

Debra: Yeah, I just feel... I don't know how to describe... I actually felt it moving through my body.

Panache: Perfect. Yeah.

Debra: It was in my breath. It was interesting. I felt it leave through my breath. It's almost, like I said, I felt the shortness of my breath for a minute.

Panache: Yes. Yes.

Debra: Thank you.

Panache: You're welcome. Good. Excellent. Thank you.

Debra: Thank you very, very much. I send everyone love.

Panache: Oh, thank you.

Darius: Thank you, Debra. Wow. You know what... Go ahead, Panache.

Panache: Here's what happens. In life our reality doesn't need to evolve. We need to evolve inside of our reality. What does that mean? That means that on one level of experience, on one vibrational level, she was experiencing stuckness. Well, what did we do? We shifted the energy. What happened? Boom! - possibility. Right?

So she's deciding in her energy in the midst of her experience to create a new platform from which she can then receive life - literally. And that's how quickly it happens. People go from stuck, confused, not knowing where to go... Literally from that to possibility. And it doesn't take long. It doesn't take long, you see. There just needs to be a willingness.

So stuckness... Just consider this, everyone on this call, just consider this. Whatever you are experiencing right now only resides on one level of reality, but there are in fact infinite levels of reality, and the more you elevate your vibration and frequency, the more you align with greater possibility and potential, that there is in fact a direct correlation between excellence and brilliance on this planet and vibrational ascension and elevation that everybody who is pioneered, everybody who's gone on to transform the world understood this principle and spoke about this principle and shared this same thing that is being shared right now on this call.

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: So your problem or your pain or your source of suffering resides on one vibrational level of who you are. The very second you evolve and elevate your frequency beyond that level, it opens up, possibility arises, that which you naturally are comes into being – health, vitality, ageless beauty, abundance, connection to source, love. Fantastic.

Darius: Yes. I mean, you could feel that come in. You could feel something shift. When you're sending them that energy are you connecting to their field? What's kind of happening? I know you talked about this but tell me again, because I felt when she shifted and I just want to know what was happening.

Panache: Well, again, for me there's no separation between myself and any other person. On a vibrational level we're all connected, right. So what I'm doing is... It's like being a mailman. I'm lovingly just vibrationally sending her a reminder who she really is. And once you are confronted... once you receive that message and you're confronted by the truth and the totality of who you are, limitation falls away, right.

Darius: Wow.

Panache: So it's literally like being a vibrational bridge. It's like we're taking people out of lack and limitation into infinite potential. But it's like, again, you have to have walked that journey and have gone through with that in order to be that bridge. It's not a technique. It's not a modality. It's not something that you can learn. It's just a God-given gift that I've had in my whole life, you see, is to be that bridge, is to be that conduit. And in that same... it's like, you know, we get to be that for people in our chosen fields. It's like if you're an accountant; you've been doing it for 20 years, then you can then show somebody who isn't an accountant how to keep their books straight and how to handle things. It's the same thing in spirituality. There are souls that have been doing this after lifetime after lifetime after lifetime after lifetime after lifetime and have just been honed in the fire of transformation that nobody in the workings of energy and frequency beyond the technique and the modality and the teaching is naturally who they are. Their presence alone serves as a catalyst. That's what we're experiencing now.

Darius: I love this. Okay. We've got Grace from Atlanta, looks like northeast Atlanta, Georgia, and she's calling at a 770 area code. Grace, are you there? Grace, are you there?

Grace: Yes. I am.

Darius: I hear you. Yes, I hear you. I see your name lighting up. Yes, it's you. Come forward, Grace. Let's see. Let me try her one more time. We may have lost her. Oh goodness. Okay. Well, we will see. She'll come back another time. We've got Lori from Baltimore, 410 area code. Lori, it's you in Baltimore. Are you there?

Lori: I am here. Yes, I'm here.

Darius: Well, what can we do for you?

Lori: I am ready to not to be afraid of who I am, to not be my own... I don't want to be afraid anymore to be myself and be afraid of being attacked by my husband.

Darius: Okay.

Panache: So here's what I need you to know, right. I can't undo this. It's not reversible. So are you sure you're ready to come out the closet?

Lori: I am ready, yes.

Panache: Because I can't put you back in it again. That's the only reason I'm asking you. Because what were about to do is to take you from limitations of identity to the infinite and there's no closet big enough to house infinity, sweetheart. So I just want you to know that, alright. Just close your eyes and open your palms. I'm going to send you the energy and then as best as you can just describe to me what's happening. Are you ready?

Lori: I'm ready.

Panache: Fantastic.

Lori: Cool. Wow.

Panache: Okay? What's going on?

Lori: I just feel shaking all throughout my body.

Panache: Yeah. Good. That's all the fear shaking out. Fantastic.

Lori: My heart is beating very, very fast.

Panache: Good. Yeah. That's your vibrational resonance actually increasing. The first place that receives it is the heart, and then the heart translates that to everything else.

Lori: I'm going to take a deep breath.

Panache: Yeah. How you doing now? What's going on?

Lori: I'm doing better. I'm taking deep breaths.

Panache: Good.

Lori: I'm doing really good. Woo!

Panache: She's gone, Darius. We've lost her.

Darius: Yeah.

Lori: I'm still shaking but I'm doing really, really good. Thank you.

Darius: What's happening in your body? What are you feeling right now? Can you even put it into words?

Lori: It's just like an energy flow. And actually my right hand just wants to shake and not stop actually.

Panache: Yes. So the shaking is normal. What's happening is all of that stuck energy right now is just being vibrated out of you. That's what this energy does. It brings everything and everyone in to harmony. So the shaking is normal. Why? Because on a physical level when we don't experience our fear and becomes stuck in ourselves.

So right now what's happening is your cells are lovingly just being relieved of all the fear that's been stuck in there. Now, that's been getting the way if you receiving everything that you really want in your life. So literally what we're doing is shifting your vibrational state out of fear into love. And that's exactly what's happening right now in a very visceral tangible way inside of you. That fear is shaking out. The heart is racing. All the energy that was holding that reality of not being seen, not fully being you, well that's just gone. That's gone. And I can tell you that because you're already through the other side of it. How do you feel now?

Lori: I feel like I want to jump up and down.

Panache: There you go.

Lori: Free with joy.

Panache: Thank you.

Lori: Thank you. Thank you. I so appreciate it.

Panache: Welcome to your authentic self.

Darius: Thank you, Lori.

Lori: That you all so much.

Panache: Thank you.

Darius: Wow. You know, Panache, one of the things I love to ask... Like Lori is like... you know, what were you feeling? What's going on? Because I want people to get that this can be a state that everyone can experience. This is really who you are and I believed like when you're really vibrating like this, limitation, lack of abundance, even in some level disease... And the things that stop us, they don't vibrate this level. And so it's so important for me to really feel what people are feeling at this level. I want people to get that there is a tangible difference in people after we are done. Just in that tiny little bit, I mean, it's just so amazingly.

Panache: Yes it is, because all the old stagnant energy what was holding that old version of reality in place collapses literally.

Darius: Wow.

Panache: And you know what, Darius? People who I'm not even directly working with are experiencing right now... Let just ask people to send in their experiences, because every single call everyone is receiving. So just share your experiences through the chat room and through the Q&A forum. Just let us know what's going on.

Darius: Yeah. Everyone send in what you're feeling and what's happening on your end if you're listening in. Many people experienced some incredible shifts as well.

Alright, I'm going to take another caller and this is what we're doing here. We're changing this energy right now. We've got... it looks like Jessica. She's calling from Austin, Texas - my hometown. She's at a 512 area code. Jessica, are you here?

Jessica: Yes, I'm here.

Darius: Hi.

Panache: Howdy.

Darius: What's going on right now?

Jessica: Hello?

Darius: Yes.

Panache: Hi. Yeah, we can hear you. What's happening?

Jessica: Oh, I'm sorry. I had my phone turned down. I cannot believe you took my call. I was praying you would.

Panache: And we took your call. We're here. What's happening?

Jessica: I'm really hoping you can just see into me, because there's so much desperation and frustration I couldn't even describe it.

Panache: Yeah, let's take care of it. Are you done with that?

Darius: Okay.

Jessica: Yeah.

Panache: Okay. Good. Alright. Close your eyes, open your palms. Just take some breaths. We're going to send you the energy and then as best as you can just describe to me what's happening. You ready?

Jessica: Yes.

Panache: Okay.

Jessica: Yeah, I'm definitely shaking.

Panache: Just keep breathing. Just keep allowing all the fear to shake out of you.

Jessica: There's so a lot of tears right now.

Panache: Yeah, just let the tears come. It's okay. This is the vibrationally dense layer, right. This is that emotional layer that enshrouds the spirit that right now is being dealt with, okay. And all of that energy, all of that unprocessed fear and sadness that's coming up to just be experienced.

Keep breathing, sweetheart. Just stay with it. Just keep relaxing. Just keep letting it wash through you. Just allow the energy to do the work. That's the beautiful thing about this. The vibrational resonance does the work. All that's required from you is for you to relax. What's going on inside you now?

Jessica: I don't know. I'm still shaking.

Panache: Good. Shaking is good. We like that. Keep breathing, keep shaking. Just keep letting it all move out your body.

Jessica: Just crying.

Panache: Yeah, that's okay. There's a lot of years of sadness. There's a lot of sadness there that hasn't been felt and it hasn't been experienced. It's okay. And while you're just going through it I'm just going to tell people what's happening.

So the denser heavier energies of fear and sadness are being liberated. The most important thing that I've learned is that energy wants to be in motion; it wants to move. Well, right now the emotions are moving and flowing through her, creating more space inside of her for her to receive who she truly is. And this is the vibrational shift that leads to then a sustained transformation right now, and the fear and the sadness is what's in the way of her receiving the intimacy, the love, the connection, everything that she truly desires. And right now all those old energies are washing through and what's on the other side of that is exactly what she desires.

How are you feeling now, sweetheart? You're already through it. What's happening?

Jessica: I don't know.

Panache: Good. I don't know is good. But what's shifting in your body? How do you feel in your body?

Jessica: The shaking's stopped.

Panache: Yeah, yeah. The shaking's stopped. And what's starting? What's starting in you?

Jessica: Some calmness.

Panache: Yes, calmness. And what else is arising?

Jessica: God. I don't know. It's something I've never felt.

Panache: Something you've never allowed yourself to feel before. What is arising in you right now is something that you have never allowed yourself to feel before. What you are experiencing is what your fear has kept you become but it's who you truly are and what you've always wanted.

So just stay with it. Stay with it. What's happening? Because I'm jumping up and down with absolute glee and excitement for you going to happen for you in your life. I could give you a big hug right now. What's going on right now? How do you feel?

Jessica: I don't know. I'm not a frigging caller!

Panache: Good. Keep letting it come up. Keep letting it come up. We've struck oil. We've struck oil. We've struck gold. Keep breathing. Keep breathing. Just keep letting it come up. It's okay. What is arising in you right now? What's happening?

Jessica: I don't know. I want to say... God... relief.

Panache: Relief. Thank you. Yes. Relief. And I'm actually going to even go a little further and say that... I'm even going to go a little further and say that there's bubbles of joy that are bubbling up. Like I'm literally connected to you right now and I can't stop smiling. I am just so joyful, joyful. And so just know that if you're not there yet you will be. Just know that if you're not there yet you will be. Alright?

Jessica: Okay. Thank you so much for taking my call.

Panache: You are so welcome. And that old version of your reality is over. Just allow the fear to shake out, just allow the tears to continue to come, breathe and relax and expand.

Jessica: Okay.

Panache: Fantastic.

Darius: Wow. Very amazing. That is a huge amount of space opened up for her. That is just incredible. And we had a lot of people... Well, my gosh... Sherry in Gig Harbor says: 'I'm vibrating all over my body. My hands are intense. Thank you, Panache. You are amazing.'

T. Lubky in Santa Fe says: 'I feel the shifts as they are done with each person. I've already signed up for the 21-day event,' and she said the fear was released 'and I feel peace and calm come back.'

So she is ready or he is ready and they are feeling the energy.

Another person says... Penny: 'I'm getting these deep internal goosebumps up and down my body. I'm feeling cold. I'm feeling warm. I'm smiling. A really big vision is coming to me. Everything is well and complete.'

Ursula. She's in... looks like the Ukraine. She says: 'My heart is beating like crazy. I've never experienced energy this way.' We're hearing that a lot today. 'My breathing is very intense. I'm used to experiencing energy but not with Panache. So this is very new and powerful.'

So, you know, Panache, we talked about miracles happening today and so this is beautiful. This is beautiful. A lot of people feeling some energy.

Panache: I just want to give you an insight as to what miraculous is. What's happening right now is that, and here's why. Because literally something that wasn't possible before immediately becomes possible and available. Something that was drastically outside of the realms of you ever receiving, well you just received that. And guess what? Now that we've open the door you're going to keep receiving, because it's a gift that keeps on giving. And you're going to keep moving into more and more of that miraculous flow, right? And the key to that is just being available and asking.

And there's no acting. She was: 'God, I was praying that you'd pick me.' Boom! – we picked you. Boom! The divine answers, right? That's what happens, you know, and all that stagnant fear and depression and heaviness that was there is already done. Now it's just her realizing cognitively that she's toast and the joy bunny jumping up and down ecstatically wanting to do cartwheels.

Darius: Dave says: 'My legs are shaking like a mad man,' - which is a good thing! Everybody feels this differently. Zachary says: 'It feels like an ocean floor inside of me is rising and bubbling up. I feel it in my bones. I feel it in my bones.'

You know, it's like that we have these vibrational bones. We have this deep energy that wants to come forward.

Another person – Suzanne from Virginia Beach: 'I felt an incredible heart energy opening up with the caller Jessica and,' she says, 'I'm feeling light as a feather.'

So many people feeling all certain things.

Let's do this. I want to take another caller and then I want to cover some more ground. So let's keep going. Who else do we have? If you want to get on the line with Panache hit *2. We've got a ton of people with their hands raised. I just let spirit move me. Now we've got one person in Maryland. Let me see if she's still there. Angena. She's in Columbia, Maryland and she's calling from a 443 area code. Angena... oops! Hold on one second. It looks like somebody just moved. Angena, are you there?

Angena: Yes I'm there. Hello?

Darius: Yes. How can we help you? Yes. I'm here.

Angena: I just came on the phone but I haven't felt happy for a long, long time. I just want some happiness.

Panache: Are you ready to be so ecstatically happy that you can no longer stand yourself?

Angena: Yes.

Panache: Are you sure?

Angena: I beg your pardon?

Panache: Are you sure?

Angena: Yes I'm sure.

Panache: Okay. Close your eyes and just open your palms and just breathe. I'm just going to send you the energy and as best as you can just describe to me what's happening, okay. Are you ready?

Angena: Yes.

Panache: Okay. And we're just going to open up the ecstatic joy, Darius, in everybody - in everybody. We're going to use Angena as the surrogate for everybody. We're going to open up. We're going to do some ecstatic cartwheel, off the charts joy in everyone that's on this call right now. Okay? Right. Here we go. Okay. How do you feel? What's happening in your body?

Angena: Generally I feel your energy. Today it's almost very, very little.

Panache: Yeah. Good. Keep breathing.

Angena: I don't feel much.

Panache: Good. Keep breathing, keep receiving, just keep expanding. We're just going to unloving continue to invite...

Darius: Somebody's laughing!

Panache: Everything that stands in the way. She's either laughing or coughing. We're not sure. But just keep breathing, just keep breathing, just keep receiving, just keep expanding, just keep allowing the energy to bring up and out of you everything that is keeping you from joy. How are you doing now?

Angena: Same. No change.

Panache: No change. Okay. So keep breathing. So why won't you allow yourself to be happy?

Angena: I don't know. I would love to be happy.

Panache: But why won't you allow yourself? I know you would love to be happy, but why won't you allow yourself to be happy? What are you always doing instead of being happy?

Angena: Helping people, giving people energy. You know, many different things.

Panache: That's why...

Angena: Listening to all these calls.

Panache: That's why you're miserable.

Angena: Well, okay. I don't know how to change. Maybe I can stop listening to these calls!

Panache: No, not at all. It's because you keep worrying about everybody, taking care of everybody. All of your energy is about everybody else. None of it is for you. All of your energy is for everybody else and you don't keep any of it for you, sweetheart. That's why you don't experience your joy.

Keep breathing. Yeah. Good. Let it all come up. Fantastic. Just breathe, just relax, just let it come up.

Yeah. This is what happens. We live our lives for other people and then we wonder why we're not experiencing ourselves. That's the reason why. Because we're constantly taking care of everyone around us instead of nurturing and loving ourselves.

So I want you to know, sweetheart, that it's okay for you to receive, that it's okay, that you don't have to give and take care of everybody in order to receive. It's just okay for you to receive. It's your birthright. It's who you are.

Angena: Yes.

Panache: Good. Excellent. Keep breathing, keep receiving, just keep allowing all of that sadness that is the polarity of joy actually to just wash through you. Just breathe and relax. Okay, Angena. How are you doing now, sweetheart?

Angena: I'm crying.

Panache: Crying? Fantastic. Keep breathing, keep crying. And I say fantastic because that's exactly what needs to arise. And as soon as I go 'oh good' or 'fantastic' people are like: why is that good? Because that's exactly needs to arise. That's exactly what needs to bubble up. Keep breathing, keep relaxing, just keep allowing all of that sadness... an entire lifetime, I'm going to say. It's an entire lifetime of not prioritizing yourself. That's what it is. Yes, that's what it is. Yeah. Good. Keep breathing. It's just all the grief and the loss, resentment, regret, all of that stuff.

Angena: I don't resent anybody. I don't regret what I'm doing, but I don't have joy.

Panache: I didn't hear what you just said, sweetheart. Sorry. What did you say?

Angena: I said don't resent anyone.

Panache: You don't what?

Angena: I don't regret anything but I don't feel joy.

Darius: She said she doesn't regret.

Panache: No, it's not regret, but you haven't prioritized yourself, you see. And that's important.

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: It's just funny. I just got on this call and somebody posted something. Somebody asked Mother Teresa how do we bring peace to the world, and Mother Teresa said: 'Go home and love your families.' That's it. How do you feel now, Angena? What's happening?

Angena: Hello.

Panache: Hi. How do you feel now?

Angena: A little better.

Panache: Better. Yay! Excellent. Are you ready to feel really good?

Angena: Yes.

Panache: Okay. Good. Okay. What's happening now?

Angena: Nothing. I don't feel the way I would like to feel.

Panache: No, but you're going through everything you need to feel to get there and that's the cool part.

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: You won't always get to where you want to get to, but you'll definitely feel everything what you have to in order to get there and authentically sustain it. And that's the beauty of it. Keep breathing, keep breathing, keep receiving, keep breathing, keep receiving, keep breathing, keep receiving.

Angena: Generally I feel your energy so much. I don't feel it. Not in my hands.

Panache: But it's still working. It's okay.

Angena: Okay.

Panache: Sometimes you feel it intensely, sometimes you feel it subtly, but it's still working. You know what? More than feeling my energy, our hearts are always connected. Always. Okay. Because we're all a part of the same heart. Good. Okay. Angena, how are you doing now?

Angena: A little better.

Panache: Better? Good. Okay. So that little better is going to keep happening and it's going to increasingly get a lot better and then it's going to get out outrageously better, okay.

Angena: Okay. Thank you.

Panache: You're welcome, sweetheart. You know, sometimes these vibrational shifts... It's like the individual has to go through their own adjustment to receive it. And for some people it's immediate, but for other people they need to baby-step their way through it. And that's okay too, right. Ultimately the energy that was holding the experience of the absence of joy in place is gone.

Angena: Now I can feel your energy in my hands.

Panache: See, there you go. Look at that. What did I say? Look at that, right.

Angena: But I don't feel... I feel better but I don't feel happiness or joy or, you know...

Panache: Yes, but for how many years that you've not been happy and not been joyful?

Darius: How many years?

Angena: Many, many years.

Panache: Yes. See?

Darius: Many years. Yeah.

Panache: There you go. So it didn't happen overnight, did it?

Angena: No.

Panache: No.

Angena: Maybe almost 40 years.

Panache: That's right. 40 years of not being happy...

Darius: 40 years. Wow.

Panache: Of not being joyful.

Angena: Yes.

Panache: So that's what we're addressing right now is 40 years of one way of being, one energy. Yeah.

Darius: You know, and if she's working through some of that emotion there may be more crying and just more release so that she can open up more space to really be happy, to really be connected.

You know, I noticed, Panache, she was really releasing and then I noticed – and I think everyone did too - we got some people writing in - that somebody came into the room. You could feel like someone came downstairs and then her energy shifted. And it's really like we so much don't allow ourselves to be present to what were feeling because of other people. And I noticed that. I heard the person coming down the stairs and I felt the energy change and I was like 'Ah!'

And I think it's really important thing about why we do this for 21 days, so that there's nothing that can stand in the way of you having that transformation, so you devote to yourself, so you stand for yourself and say: 'Alright. This is for me.' you know, even if they can come into the room during Day 1 there's 20 other days I'm going to get my transformation. I'm going to get my time to be with my energy.

Panache: Yeah. And that's a good point. You see, what happens is when you've been conditioned - and this is conditioning - when you've been conditioned to believe that you need to live your life for everyone else and that's been your conditioning from Day 1...

Now, here's what's interesting about her is the energy's already shifted. She's just now realizing that it's shifted - which is the other thing that happens. All of that energy is gone. Now it's just her realizing that it's gone and that's what's happening now. That's the 'I'm getting better, I'm getting better, I feel better'. That's what happening.

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: So, you know, the ecstatic giddiness is on its way to Angena. It's already there actually. She's just realizing how ecstatically giddy she is. That's what happening. So, cool.

Darius: Wow. Wow. I'm going to ask the audience kind of what's going on and what you're feeling and what's happening. Another person said: 'I'm feeling chills. I'm feeling love. I'm feeling lighter and happier. Thank you. I love you.' That's Wentry.

Another person is writing in - Juanita from Buffalo, Wyoming says... Oh, I love Buffalo. I've been there. A great little town in Wyoming that is. She says: 'Darius, the power of Panache is so powerful today I can feel and I can hear the energy ping P-I-N-G and move through areas of my body that have been stuck for years,' - for years. And so people are feeling it.

Panache, what do you feel right now? What would you like to share with everybody here?

Panache: That you're worth it. That regardless of what you've being told and regardless of how you've been conditioned to show up in life, that you're worth it. And that's why you're here. That's why you're here. That's why you're hearing this. That's why you're in the energy. That's why we did this call today - for you.

The miraculous is already flowering inside of you and everything that you want is available to you. All that's required is your willingness to be available and to be open and just to allow the energy to do what it needs to do inside of you so that that greater openness and receptivity comes in to being.

You see, the blessing is that regardless of how you've done it, when that energy is no longer in place that holds that way of being anymore it just collapses. It's gone. You can't go back, right? Angena has no choice but to be happy. Why live with all that sorrow and that grief? 40 years. I mean, it was like a Bollywood epic, right. As I was seeing it in my mind it's just a lot of heartbreak and grief and love.

All of that stuff is being dismantled, because who she is really is just like a romantic comedy, right? And her whole storyline is shifting. And so everything is shifting.

This vibrational shift is the pinnacle, the pivotal shift that everybody needs to go through to receive who they fully are, and that's why it's reaching millions and millions people. That's why. Because this is what we've been waiting for. We've dealt with ourselves physically. We've dealt with ourselves mentally. We've tried to tap into the unconscious and deal with that. But what we haven't dealt with is that vibrational layer, that vibrationally dense layer and what we haven't done is approach is soulfully.

And this is where this is unique and different, because you have it within you to live that all the time. You have it within you bring to the highest and best into being in each moment. And if you could just allow yourself to receive and say yes and be available, a world that is already available - I'm going to say this - heaven is already here. It's just you're going to move in our alignment with the heaven that's already here instead of vibrating at whatever version of reality that you're currently inhabiting, right.

So, again, your reality doesn't need to change, but the more your energy shifts the more then you bring a brand new experience of being into your reality and then your reality will shift, you see. And that's the blessing.

So I'm just ecstatically overjoyed and I just feel honored and privileged every single time we do this, because this is my life. I get to hold this space for people and hold their hand in the midst everything they're going through and just be of service in this way. And it's fantastic. It's phenomenal. To use a word, it's 'phenomenal'. So thank you.

Let's take another couple of calls, Darius, and then we can wrap it up.

Darius: Okay. Let's do it. I want to hear from people who've experienced a shift in energy or someone who would like a shift in energy. So let's raise our hands again. Hit *2 to raise your hand. *2 to raise your hand. And I'll wait for a bunch... I lowered everybody's hands because I wanted to hear from a new group. So if you raised your hand before and you'd like to be called on, hit *2 to raise your hand.

Hold on one second. So many people raised their hand my computer just froze. Oh my gosh! It just exploded. Okay. Alright. So as long as we're still going good let me get Jean from Skokie, Illinois, and she's at 847. It literally froze my computer, Jean.

Jean: Can you hear me?

Darius: So many people. Yeah. Are you there, Jean? Yes, that's you.

Jean: Hello?

Darius: Yes. We're here, Darius and Panache. It's you.

Jean: Hi.

Darius: How are you?

Jean: Hi. Oh, I'm so excited you picked me. Oh, that's awesome.

Darius: Yes!

Jean: Yeah. I've been stuck for a long time. I keep experiencing some bladder and women issues and my relationship is stuck and I just want to move forward so badly.

Panache: Okay. Let's do it. Close your eyes, open your palms.

Jean: Oh, thank you.

Panache: Are you ready?

Jean: Yes.

Panache: Okay. Receive it now.

Jean: Okay.

Panache: Alright. What's happening inside your body?

Jean: I feel the energy coming up through my feet, expanding in my chest. My heart is racing from running up the stairs, but... Oh, I just feel the light... like warmth coming through me. I just want to cry.

Panache: Yeah. Good. Breathe. Just allow all that sadness to come up, sweetheart. It's not been easy of you. Just breathe and just relax. A lot of trauma. A lot of trauma. Rejection too. A lot of rejection. Keep breathing, keep receiving, keep expanding, just keep allowing it to wash through.

This is the allowing part. This is the receiving part. This is where you can let go. This is where you can surrender to grace and just allow it to do its work.

Excellent. What's happening inside you right now? How do you feel? What's shifting? What's opening up?

Jean: I feel a lot of kind of heaviness around my shoulders.

Panache: Yes.

Jean: Around my chest.

Panache: Okay.

Jean: It kind of wants to move up and out but it's slowing down a little bit.

Panache: Yeah.

Jean: I just want to let go of the past and all the things that are blocking me.

Panache: Yeah. It's already letting go. That's the good news. So just keep breathing, just keep relaxing, just keep letting it kind of finally just going to shake out. You're almost there. You're like three-quarters of the way there already.

Jean: Okay.

Panache: Just keep breathing, just keep relaxing. Okay. There. Alright. How do you feel now?

Jean: I suddenly feel much lighter. I feel like a big weight just escaped out of me... was lifted off of me. Oh my gosh!

Darius: Wow.

Jean: I'm smiling and I just feel like suddenly lighter and... Wow.

Panache: Okay. Good. Now from this space just have a look at your relationship and have a look at this issue that you were dealing with before the call.

Jean: Okay.

Panache: What shifted?

Jean: Well, I definitely feel more joyful, more hopeful.

Panache: Yes. Good.

Jean: Yeah. The possibilities are open.

Panache: Yes. Excellent. Good. So that chapter, that old way of being, is over.

Darius: Yeah.

Jean: Okay.

Panache: It's done. Just get ready for intimacy, connection, trust, loyalty and love like you've never experienced before.

Jean: Well, that would be so wonderful.

Panache: There's going to be a whole lot of loving going on in your house in the next couple of days.

Jean: Thank you so much.

Panache: You better warn your husband.

Darius: Wow.

Panache: Alright. Fantastic.

Darius: This is amazing, and, I mean, this is exactly what this is about. I mean, this is what spending time with you is about. I know when we spend time together this is what it's about. I know the 21 days, and when I spend time on that that's what this is about. This is what happens.

Panache, let's just talk a little bit about those people that are going to go deeper in the 21 days. It's still available for all of you, although time is sort of moving quickly here, so when this done for 2013 it's done.

Tell me about what the people who have already signed up are going to experience during the 21 days, Panache.

Panache: Well, the blessing is that from the very second you make the commitment to participate you already start receiving, even though we haven't formally opened yet. That was demonstrated through our last call that actually in between... From the first call and the time that we come together again, people had already started experiencing shifts and breakthroughs in their lives.

So just know that this is something that unfolds on a soul level. We're not working on the mind or the body or the emotions. What we're doing is we're liberating the soul, the potential of the soul and the spirit inside of you. That's what this is.

So that's the first thing. From the very second you say yes, the grace comes flooding in and literally everything starts shifting, okay. One of two things happens. You either experience the receptivity, the spaciousness and the oneness and the connection or you experience what needs to come up so that you authentically can, alright. So just know that. Some people who have already signed, they're already experiencing all their sadness and their fear and their anger, and they're experiencing all the density that they need to so that their soul can be fully reflected within them. That's the first thing.

Some people have already have gone to that place of connection and their lives are already shifting – abundance, health, relationships, love – just like we've seen on this call already. We've had all these different areas. Everything that you're dealing in with right now wants you to go deeper so that you can break through it and come back to yourself. And nothing is impossible, nothing is off limits. No matter what you're dealing with right now this gift of vibrational transformation can fundamentally alter the way you see yourself and live your life forever. All this requires is your willingness to participate, say yes, and to jump in and to be available of the experience and the ride.

Darius: Tons of people with their hands raised. Tons of people writing in huge amounts of transformation.

One person said: 'I had a quick pain in my left side of my chest before the call. It just went away. Having chills and smiling deep.'

Debra Lee: 'I'm feeling lighter, more optimistic.'

Another person: 'I've figured out that I'm pretty wonderful.'

Another person says: 'I am feeling the energy. I feel love. I feel warmth through my whole body. It's wonderful. Many blessings from Carolina.'

Another person says: 'I am feeling the vibration. I'm getting chills up and down my arms.'

So over and over again people are writing in.

Let's talk about a little bit about some of the deeper work that you're offering. It's starting actually October 6th, so it's going to be happening pretty soon. And it's going to be available to everyone who wants to go deeper with Panache. We've set it up so there's really no way that you're not able to. It's accessible There's even payment plans.

Let me give everyone the page and then I want to talk about it, because I think it's one of the most profound things you can do this year and also starting 2014 so that you start a new life 2014; that you start 2014 on your terms as well. And this is the last time it's being offered this year. Panache, the page is at youwealthrevolution.com/panache2013.

Let's talk a little bit about what's going to happen, Panache, and how it's structured. When people go to that page one of the first things that they see is a quote that you say: Are you ready to radically shift the way you receive support for whatever challenges you may be facing? Are you ready to call in vibrational increase, the frequency of unconditional love and possibility, an energy that knows no judgment?

I love that. I love that. Tell me about this radical shift and support that they're going to get.

Panache: Well, just like you've experienced from the call when we begin to shift your energy and we deal with your fear and the sadness and everything that's there and we start to move into this vibrational resonance of love, which is what this gift is. The more we move into alignment with that, the more our lives then take off, because there's nothing in the way of you receiving anymore.

So this then turns in to 21-day vibrational excursion into infinite possibility. And every one of the 21-day circles has continued to build and expand on the one before. So what I'm saying is that this one is going to be more powerful than the first one. And that will continue to happen, because the more we do it, the more our energy expands, the more open we are, the more receptive we are, and the faster we move through the density. So literally it's been structured to happen remotely.

So I will be focusing on you every day for 21 minutes for 21 straight days, just like we did on this call. And the blessing is like whether I was with the individual or not everybody receives. And that's the blessing of this work; that everybody receives, everyone that says yes, that commits to this receives. Because ultimately this gift is here for the transformation of consciousness on this planet and to shift humanity into that vibration of love. So by saying yes you're being a conduit for that and you're getting a preview of that in your own life. And literally, you know, what does that look like? More money, peace and harmony, the eradication of conflict internally, moving out of unconscious patterns and behaviors, moving out of limited ways of thinking and being, stepping into the infinite potential of who you are and then demonstrating that in each moment of your life.

You know, every single area of life and living shifts, and all that's required is for you to be available and say yes. So that's kind of how it starts off. Basically there's 21 days. Because for me now, I don't have the time to do private sessions anymore. My schedule is so busy. And the focus shifted this year. This focus was global solution. So at that point it's like: okay, what is the best way to deliver this energy to as many people as possible? It's this 21 days. And I firmly believe that there will come a time that we have 10,000, a 100,000, a million people at the time doing these 21-day journeys. I know that what's coming.

So that's the blessing of this. It's a way to shift everyone's energy to shift them out of limitation, to shift them out of whatever they're experiencing right now and to help them get to the other side.

So the 21 days is the foundation of it and the 21 minutes is the foundation of it. We begin with an opening day vibrational attunement, which is kind of jumpstarting your energy and getting you all aligned and getting you all into a space of receptivity. One of the other things that happens is we have a Facebook group, because in the morning your vibration's different than the afternoon and the evening...

Darius: Yes.

Panache: And the blessing of this is you go through it as a community. And why is that important? So you realize you're not alone and that this community supports each other through it, right.

There are so many things here that I can't even mention them all. It's an absolutely outrageous package that my team has put together out of our love for you and out of our believing in you and wanting you to live the biggest life that you can live. You know, in addition to all of it... I mean, as you scroll down it's like then we've got four 90-minute live interactive sessions with me where literally we can shift your energy and you can ask me questions and we can work individually like this and the whole group benefits. And there's four of those.

So this is just outrageous. It's our way of saying thank you. It's our way of giving back. And again this is an opportunity to move into all that you are, to move into everything that you've always know was available to you authentically and sustain it.

Darius: Amazing. It is at youwealthrevolution.com/panache2013. There is still time until the 6th when it begins, and you can go there and join the many, many people, many of which are doing it again because they want to go further. And just so you know, you're going to get access to everything and you'll be a part of an incredible opportunity.

You know, a lot of what we did was just like for a few minutes we opened up that vibrational increase. Panache, I mean, we spent a little bit time. Huge shifts happened, evening for people listening in. A lot of people just once they start Day 1 start feeling that coming in, right, Panache? So, I mean, it's 21 days. It's like how much further they can go when they get 21 days of that?

Panache: And also, you know, how done are you? Have you had enough of your current situation? Like are you done? Are you done with that? The very second you say yes it's over, right? So are you done with the lack? Are you done with limitation? Are you done with the disease? Are you done with the struggle? Are you done with the pain? Are you done with the rejection, the abandonment? Are you done with the hiding and not showing up as your infinite potential? Are you done with never really moving beyond a survival level? Are you done with that? Because if you're done with that then say yes and join literally thousands of people before you that have gone through this and experienced the benefits immediately of this shift.

Darius: Yeah. Yeah. I love it. Let's see what questions we have from people, any comments. Let's see. Someone said here... Oh wow. Someone says: 'This is great energy. I love it. Thank you.'

Another person says: 'I am in the space that I can only call the oceans of light. It is so huge. Thank you. Thank you.' I think she's done the 21 days three times. She's in Beirut. Sylvie. She wants to do it again. So this is amazing.

Lisa from Paris – our dear friend - says: 'I'm definitely feeling the energy wave. I'm feeling woozy. Thank you so much, Darius and Panache.'

Oh my gosh. My gosh. So this is part of what we're doing. There's a 21 days coming up and if you want to be a part of it, you can go to youwealthrevolution.com/panache2013.

What are some of your favorite stories from the 21 days that had been done in the past, Panache?

Panache: Well, I mean, relationships have happened. People have wanted to open up to love and all of the sudden someone out of the blue who they knew, I think, in high school calls them and they call in love with each other. There's one example.

People who are on the divorce all of a sudden the energy shifts and they salvage their marriage and flourish in their marriage. Some people wanted to get married, they got married. People needed to find a way to get out of an abusive situation. That doorway opened up. People could move out of that. Promotions, exponential money appearing out of nowhere seemingly. Health challenges or crises averted and dismantled.

What we're going to realize is that everything that arises within our experience starts on a vibrational level and it includes disease, that includes everything. So if you could actually deal with it while it's still energetic you wouldn't have to experience the physical manifestation of it. And that goes to everything. And we're going to start realizing that.

So this is also a great way of preventing all of that and moving beyond all of that and vibrating beyond all of that. And that's not to say that life isn't still going to happen. It is. But you'll meet it more grace-... It's like Darius is going through a situation right now. He can meet with it more gracefully.

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: Everyone has more space; they can meet it more gracefully. And that's what it allows. It allows you to meet life soulfully. So the breakthroughs were just... I mean, everything... There's just too many breakthroughs to mention, Darius. It's just been probably single-handedly one of the most powerful things we've ever offered and it's just an honor to bring it to the You Wealth community and to have them say yes. I know there's lot of big things, and just to deliver it at a value that my team's put together that's just outrageous and phenomenal.

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: I mean, one of the other things that you get as a part of this is actually $100 off one of my courses. I mean, it's just outrageous. It's just our way of saying thank you to the You Wealth community and we believe in you and we love you. This is a way to access this gift and solution in a way that you can transform everything literally.

Darius: And you get everyone's name that signs up, so every participant - and I want everyone to know this - every participant... their name is provided to Panache directly, right, Panache? And you work on them, sending this energetic energy infusion. I know it's kind of repetitive but this energetic infusion, excuse me, for 21 minutes each day 7 days a week for 21 days. That's 7 hours of attention energetically that they are getting from you.

Panache: Actually, you know what, Darius?

Darius: Seven hours.

Panache: That's right, and that's just the focused attention, but what happens is actually the very second that you commit to doing this I'm already connected to you and it's already happening. So the 21 minutes is the directed attention and focus, but basically I'm connected to you from the very second you say yes and it's already happening. And that's really the more accurate truth of it.

So for 21 days I'm with you 24/7 basically. Those 21 minutes is when I'm actually consciously focused on you. Outside of that I'm still connected to you the whole time. And I'm already connected to everyone. Everyone who's already signed up I'm already connected to them. It's already well underway. The 21 days are already well underway for them. And I can feel them. I feel what's happening. They feel the energy. You know, it's already underway.

Darius: I love it. I love it. And once that happens the next thing that's going to happen for anybody is there's going to be a very powerful 60-minute call that's going to take place. You can be on the call - it's an attunement - or you don't need to be. That's going to happen on the opening day, the 6th, right, Panache?

Panache: Yeah, that's actually remote, Darius. Most of this is remote. And the reason why I created it that way is because I know how busy you are in your lives and I know that you have enough to deal with already. So I wanted to make this as convenient and accessible as possible.

So just to clarify, the 21 minutes for 21 days is remote vibrational support. The one hour that you receive is a remote vibrational attunement. Now, what I do on that first day is tell you what time it's happening. So if you can tune in at that time you can. I mean, we have things like people in Europe were getting up at 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning, because it's early in the morning there, and literally electrified... like they were being electrocuted. So much energy they were being... They got up, right.

So just know that you're connected. And whether you're consciously able to participate in all of it or not, you will receive. That happened every single time.

So yeah, you get the 21 minutes of remote assistance. You get the 60 minutes of remote... you know, the opening day vibrational attunement. And then the Facebook group happens in real time. The four 90-minute call happens live. Those are live. And then you also have the replays that you can listen to and go back again. And all of this.

I'd just like to thank my team, because they've put together this package in a way that is just the ultimate thank you. It is the ultimate vibrational immersion. It blows my mind when I look at this.

Darius: I love it. I love it. And I love those calls that you do. They're going to happen each Monday. And if you miss them or you're not able to be on them, then you're also going to get recordings of that. That's where as you're going through the 21 days you want to speak with Panache, you want to get some help, then that's what will going happen there. But there's also the Facebook community. There's also the remote work. There's also the fact that Panache has your name; that he's looking at the list, he's sending the energy. And then each week what he does - which I enjoyed the most when I've go through the program - is there's some group frequencies. So each week during the 21 days, Panache, actually you record - what? - like a 10-minute mp3 of some vibrational frequency or resonance that you feel the group needs. And it's different every single time, right? So this one's going be different than any other time this has ever been done and it probably will never be repeated in 2014 in the same way either, right. So they get these vibrational fixes, so to speak, right?

Panache: Yes. Actually we're connected, so I know exactly what's going on in everybody. So what I do is I go in the studio and put down a 10-minute vibrational solution to support all of you in what you're going through.

Darius: I love it.

Panache: And that happens four times. But I record them real time every week and we're moving through the energy. And you know what? I want to say something. This is our third 21 days that we've done and these 21 days are going to continue to build in momentum and energy and people and it's just going to continue to sweep the planet and expand and expand and expand and expand and expand.

So yes, all of this is here for you. All of this here to support you. And the frequency fixes are perfect, because you can now listen to them every day, every single day, as many times as you want. And all of this is available for you. It's just absolutely unbelievable.

Darius: We've got a person from Canada who wants to sign up and is having trouble with the ordering process. Would you send us your email through the questions? Say: 'I'm the person from Canada. This is my email and I was having trouble joining,' so that I can get you to my team. I haven't heard any other challenges from people but just so you know, the person from Canada, please send in the question & answer box your information and we'll get you over to our team.

This is very, very cool. We've got a lot of people. Diane says: 'Love and gratitude.'

Another person said: 'This is one absolutely powerful call.'

One person's asking: 'Can I sign up my 87-year-old father?' Panache, could someone sign up their father or should their father be the one that signs up?

Panache: My preference would be that they would actually not do that for someone else. It's really good if they do it for themselves, because what they're going to realize is that they need to do it. Again going back to Angena, it's not about everyone else. This is about you and it's about taking care of you. And so even that conversation of 'I'd like to sign my father up' maybe means that you need to do it and that you need to be available for it. So just pay attention to that. The very second you say: 'This would be good for somebody else,' what you're saying is: 'This would be really good for me.'

Darius: Yeah. True. True.

Panache: So I look forward to seeing you on the 21 days. And then if your Dad – God bless him – wants to be a part of it then that's different. It's important, Darius, that people are aware of the fact that they're going through this, because it's intense.

Darius: Okay.

Panache: It's like putting someone on a rollercoaster blindfolded.

Darius: Yeah.

Panache: In a good way – like a really good rollercoaster. You wouldn't do that, right? So make them aware of what's going on. Make him aware. Let him know – 'Hey, dad. I've signed you up for 21 days of vibrational awesomeness with Panache.' And if your dad says: 'Cool, excellent,' then that's fine, right.

Darius: We just had an incredible... Jeanie Carter. She says: 'Help me shift my energy for love. Thank you.' She just signed up. We had a bunch of people.

So if of you are having trouble or anything like that, there definitely may be some issues. I think a lot of people are hitting the page at the same time. At the top of that page we have a help button...

Panache: It's a volume issue. That's what it is, yeah.

Darius: Yeah, I think that's what happening, because we've just got a few more. It's at youwealthrevolution.com/panache2013.

At the very top of that page there's a help button and that will send an instant message to our team. Just include your email and then we'll make sure that you're signed up. You're only going to find it here though, so this is the place to do it. And, please, it's going to be packed and it's going to be the last time in 2013 that it's available and it's going to be different. It may not be repeated in 2014 and certainly not in the same way.

And we love you and we care about you. Panache, any final words for the group?

Oh, I do want to mention there is a payment plan as well. So if you need that, go to that page. There's a very low payment plan that you can select and do this in payments as well. And those people, Panache, that do the payment plan, do they still get full access or do they have to wait until the payments are in?

Panache: No, they get complete access to everything, because again this is our way giving back. Literally, I mean, if we were put a value on that it would be astronomical. So this is our way of giving back and saying thank you. So we're literally offering it at a price point that is unheard of. And the payment plan again allows people to participate in a way that's convenient for them. So just go there. Whether you're in the payment plan or not you're still receiving. Everything's still happening. It doesn't matter. This is my way of saying I love you, thank you, I believe in you, now let's rock your universe.

Because, again, you know, we don't do privates anymore. I've got limited availability on my time. This is just a way that I get to give back to support this community and just help move our planet along, because you matter, because you're an integral part of that and I and my team and Darius, we will believe in you and we want you to flourish. That's why you're here. We want you to live pain-free. We want you to be loved. We want you to find that love inside of you. We want you to have everything that you want. And that's what's available to you here. It's amazing. It's the whole kit and caboodle. It's the whole thing.

Darius: Yeah. Absolutely. Well, we have a few people still having trouble. Gloria... So Gloria, keep trying. I'd forwarded this to my team. But a lot of people are getting through, so it's probably just the demand issue. Keep trying and if this is any indication this is going to be an amazing 21 days and it's going to be energetically enormous.

So get ready. We love you. We care about you. If you want to go deeper you can go to youwealthrevolution.com/panache2013.

Much love, everyone. Me and Panache and everyone else will see you there on the 21 days and we'll see you on the next You Wealth Revolution session. Much love, everyone. Thank you so much, Panache, for being here.

Panache: Thanks, Darius and everybody. See you all on the 21 days.

Darius: Okay. Bye-bye, everyone.

Panache: Bye.

Darius: Much love. You are a gift. Bye-bye.
