Infinite Abundance: Are you allowing Infinite Abundance to flow through every area of your life?

Darius: Hello and welcome, everyone, to the You Wealth Revolution. I am smiling, of course, ear to ear and it is because, number one, we have one of my dear friends and favorite guests probably of all time, one of the top guests of the You Wealth Revolution back with us, and this is the first time this fall season Rikka's been here. So this is going to be a blowout. There's been a huge amount of pent up energy as I'm listening to everybody's feedback, and people have been writing in and saying: 'We need Rikka. Where's Rikka?' Well, she's here and I can already feel the energy's going off the charts and the magic is unfolding moment to moment.

The other thing that I want to say to everyone else here is, you know, during our activation we had just an incredible experience, and what I really got from the audience as I was tuning in and feeling this is that this knowing of infinite power, of knowing that you are an infinite being that has the ability to create the things in your life that matter to you, that you have it, it's in you. And so many people now are writing in that this is exactly what they felt during the activation.

And what's so amazing is now we're going to take it to another level. Now we have Rikka here to do vibrational cleansing and help us to really plug into infinite abundance and some new things that Rikka's never shared before. There's been new testing and new devices now that she's been using in her work to really gage exactly what's happening in people's bodies. You're going to hear so much of this and what's going on. It is incredible. I am very excited for me, for Rikka, and for all of you. So hold tight. We're going to get started.

One thing I would love for you to do – we always ask this – is share this with your friends and family. Go to <http://youwealthrevolution.com/now> and share this with friends and family. Just let them know – hey, come on this session. There's going to be some incredible vibrational work taking place and you will want to be there.

So we're going to be talking infinite abundance and the energies that keep you from allowing – and that's a key word – allowing... Here's what I want to ask everybody: Are you allowing infinite abundance into your life? When opportunities come in, do you say: 'Yeah, I'll do that,' or do you say: 'No, I won't. I'm too busy. I'm too tired. I don't feel like it,' and then you close doors? Are you allowing the infinite abundance to flow in every area of your life and would you like to stop searching outside of yourself for answers to money problems, to challenges, to this survival mentality that so many people are living under, and set yourself free from the matrix or from the paradigm that you have to actually work hard and work long and work painfully just to create something you want?

You're going to understand how energy blocks and the things that keep you from taking inspired action all day long are actually one of the root causes of this. Once you remove these and you get into the flow of energy... This is a huge thing that we've been seeing right now all over the planet with the people that I network with and mastermind with is getting into this flow is so powerful that you literally in a matter of a few months or even less can create things faster than it might have taken a few years or decades years ago.

So we're going to talk about all of this. As you know, Rikka is just an incredible guest and she's a global leader in consciousness, the creator of adventures in oneness and an acclaimed international speaker and author, a singer-songwriter, and she has new vibrationally enhanced conscious music that's going to be debuting, and her mission is to really awaken the planet.

She's been propelled by this unbounded love for humanity. She travels the world, works with thousands of people, radiating vibration, love, peace and possibility, and her story and her light and her message is an inspiration, inviting every person in the planet to remember, embrace and be – 100% be – the magnificent expression they were designed to be. And through her events and her training and her deeper work you're going to feel that you – and you're going to know – that you are a catalyst for change, for transformation in yourself and all over the planet.

Here's a big question: What would your life be like if you could finally end the fear of having loving relationships, deep relationships and having money? What if you could embrace the ever-expanding miracle of gratitude? What if you could surrender control and relax into a universe that is going to continue to bring you more and more goodness?

Well, we're going to have fun. We're going to show you how to do that. And Rikka is back. On the count of three let's send Rikka just a huge amount of love. One, two and three... Rikka, welcome back to the You Wealth Revolution.

Rikka: Hello! Thank you so much. I am so delighted and honored to be here. And thank you, everybody, for taking time out of your life to tune in, to get your world rocked, to activate this infinite abundance that is your birthright, that could be rocking and rolling through your system in every moment of your life, of your day, and really create a life that's more phenomenal than you can even imagine. So I am very excited about this interview and about being with all of you today.

Darius: I'm very excited. The first thing I want to ask you is as you're traveling the world, as you're looking and seeing what's going on with people all over the United States and all over the world, what's happening with consciousness? What's happening with us as we stand here in 2013 on the cusp of a new year and new things coming forward?

Rikka: Well, what it seems to me is that we're moving into a whole echelon of energy where life and being is really about being the light, being the love and being the infinite possibilities that each of us are. It's really moving into that god state of being. And with that comes a lot more power. With that comes a lot more joy. And with that comes a lot more of the magic that we haven't allowed ourselves to actually play with and be aware of.

So what it feels like is there's new vibrations of manifestation that are coming online, new vibrations of possibility, and you guys' ability to actually create your life as a choose-your-own-adventure game is really coming to a head. It's like as the energies of the separation begin to really diminish, instant manifestation is going to come more and more online for each of you, so it's a very exciting time.

- Darius: Now, here's just something that I've noticed. As this becomes more and more easier it's like the veil is starting to lift and things are getting more and more possible for people. The blocks and the illusions sometimes seem to be coming on even stronger because it's so close. It's like that last-ditch push before everything goes over the edge and we're totally able to be everything we want to be. What I'm seeing is like the people that are still stuck in lower vibration, it's actually they're seeing more roadblocks come up.
- Rikka: Yeah. I mean, I haven't had that much of that experience with the people that have been working with me, maybe because it's like we provide a level of safety and a platform for letting go that people feel really safe to let go. So it's like what I would say is that at this point in time if you're resisting unfolding or letting go, I would highly recommend you let it go...
- Darius: Yeah, exactly.
- Rikka: And stop resisting.
- Darius: Wow.
- Rikka: Yeah. It's like we have this idea that when we let go, bad things happen. But if you really look at it, when you let go, do bad things happen or do amazing things happen? Do you move into more joy and more happiness? Does the god presence that you are begin to come in, and beauty and love and magnificence just explode?
- Darius: Right.
- Rikka: So it's funny that we've been resisting the very thing that would bring us into that life we know we can have. So first off, would you guys be willing to let go of where you've been resisting that infinite energy and love of God that you are from coming into your body and into your energetic field?
- Darius: And I'm just going to answer yes. I mean, is that the protocol as we begin moving this? Do I answer yes for the group or what should I...?
- Rikka: Yes!
- Darius: Yes. Okay. And I say yes for myself too, obviously. I want as much of this as possible and I know Rikka's such a powerful guest, so I'm going to say yes.
- Rikka: Yeah. Yeah. So feel that. You can feel through your system. You might be feeling like you're getting a little juicy or a little spacy or a little kind of googley inside or, you know, you just kind of feel maybe a little tired. But that's actually the energy shifting.
- Darius: Wow. I love it. And people are already writing in as they start to feel this energy start to kind of come in waves.
- Now, abundance is a really popular topic. It has been for a while – I mean, for centuries. What does abundance mean to you, Rikka, today?

Rikka: For me abundance is something that is each of your birthrights. It's something that you are as the being that you are. You're an abundant being basically. You are an abundant amount of energy. You're an abundant amount of space, abundant amount of light, abundant amount of love. When you're in that energy of your being, you're infinitely abundant. Infinitely abundant, right?

So what we have done is we have participated and bought into these walls and lies of separation that keep us separate from the energy of this god presence that we actually are inherently. So what's really cool is what we're moving you guys into is something that's very natural for you: infinite abundance, right? It's very natural for you. It's not like you're reaching for something or trying to find something or get something. It's you as a pure being. It's the naturalness of you. When you do nothing, you are this.

Darius: Ah.

Rikka: So it's as easy as letting go of that to actually become it and have it.

Darius: And I think on the other hand if it's something that we can be by really doing nothing, then it's actually easier to sustain, I would think, than something we're trying to force or push or hold onto like a certain frequency that isn't us.

Rikka: Absolutely, absolutely. And what you guys might find is that all the forcing and all the pushing, all the ways in which each of you have created your lives based on belief systems, you know, they're going to have to go, right. It's like our trajectory, our direction of this planet is one that's into more light, more love and more infinite possibilities, right. And that sense of infinite possibilities is the willingness to let go of all of the fixed information that has held you guys captive.

So the old belief systems and the force and the efforting and the pushing, all that stuff that you may have been doing to create money, you might be noticing it's not working as well. So us as beings, we have to be willing to shift and change with the vibration to stay on the cutting edge of sort of what is attracting people, what is the higher vibrating glass of water. So would you guys be willing to let go of all the belief systems and the forcing and the pushing with money that is kind of not working as well as it used to?

Darius: Yes.

Rikka: Cool. There you go. Yeah. So what it feels like too is we're getting into higher and higher levels of truth, right, and as we move into higher and higher levels of truth it's like the energy of the universe itself wishes to return you to truth, return you to love, return you to light, return you to magnificence. That's its whole thing, right.

So for any of you guys that are doing anything in your businesses that isn't based on love and light and infinite, you might find that it's kind of not working as well, because if you look at it... if you, say, thought that you weren't good enough and the universe brought you a whole bunch of money under this guideline of 'you're not good enough', well, how would you know to let go of 'not good enough', right?

It's almost as if everything that we have attributed falsely to our success or our abundance is beginning to crumble and it's time that we attribute what is true so that we can stay in truth and expand in truth. Does that make sense?

Darius: Yeah, yeah, it really does.

Rikka: Cool.

Darius: And we're seeing this, I mean, with a lot of people. People are writing in. And I want to hear what questions you have for Rikka.

Marnie wrote in. She said: 'Dearest Rikka, I've been living disempowered and disconnected, depending on my former husband financially for temporary support, and I've been feeling physically unwell and largely isolated. I know that all is possible. Help me to begin to let go of these old ways and blast open doors of magic and miracles. Much love. Marnie.' This is so much the message of so many people today.

Rikka: Yeah. Absolutely. And what's kind of happening is we're having a fear showdown.

Darius: Ah.

Rikka: That's just kind of the classic, right? It's like the showdown, the last stance of fear, right, the last stance of: Oh my God, I'm scared I might die. I've got to hold on. I don't want to leave my house. It's too much to interact. I feel scared and I feel like where's God and I can't... We're having the last stance of all of those different vibrations of fear and separation.

So for any of you guys that are in that experience, you're in the correct experience, right. You're exactly where you're meant to be to actually bring the light and the love and the infinite back into that fear to release yourself from that field in its entirety.

So for Marnie, how many of you guys...? Well, okay, so let me presage one more thing before we move on with letting go of this fear stuff. So, money a lot of the times is people's reflection of how much fear they actually have, right.

Darius: Say that again, Rikka, really quick. That was a big one and I want to make sure everyone heard that. One more time. Sorry. Wow.

Rikka: So a lot of the times fear, okay, people's relationship with money is basically their projection of how much fear they still have in their system.

Darius: Wow. Did everyone get that? Wow.

Rikka: So if you look at money, having money is about being safe, right? You're safe if you have money. The less and less money you have, the less and less safe you feel. So it's really all about are you safe, are you scared, are you not going to make it, are you not going to survive. It's all of those layers of fear, right? So letting go of that vibration of fear and returning it to love, would that actually shift your entire financial reality into the abundance that you truly are? Right?

- Darius: I've felt that. I mean, viscerally I felt that, like something inside said: 'Oh yeah!'
- Rikka: Okay. So how about we have a little fear showdown right here right on You Wealth Revolution?
- Darius: Okay! Right.
- Rikka: Time for a few showdowns, okay. So would all of you be willing to bring up in your awareness all of the ways in which you're scared? You're scared you're not going to make it.
- Darius: I would say yeah.
- Rikka: You're scared that you...
- Darius: Go ahead.
- Rikka: Okay. Yeah, you're scared that you don't have the strength to continue.
- Darius: Yeah.
- Rikka: You're scared that life is too much and it's too hard, and you're scared to truly live, and you might even be scared to die.
- Darius: Wow.
- Rikka: Scared to stay on this planet but also scared to leave. And you feel like something bad is going to happen, and something bad has happened before, okay. So yeah... Alright. So just bring up all the layers of that fear and we're going to run a process on that fear that will actually shift it, okay. And this is one of the processes that we give in this infiniteness abundance program that we're going to kind of start you guys off on so that you can begin experiencing this infinite abundance and have this whole new world, whole new possibility for you. And that is returning the fear to love and light, okay.
- And this is something you as a being... it is your birthright to be able to choose to change any experience and any energy. You can transmute anything. So if you've got in your system and you want to shift its vibration you can; it's yours. So first, will you claim that power? Yes.
- Darius: Yes.
- Rikka: I claim the power.
- Darius: We claim the power, yeah. Everyone just repeat that out loud or just in the silence of your own mind if you're at work or something and you don't want to say that. Or maybe say it out loud and claim it out loud. That's good. And just be in accord. Follow along. Let's open the door on this new energy that Rikka's sharing with us.
- Rikka: Awesome, awesome. Okay. So what if this fear - the energy of fear itself - was really God energy that was trapped in fear? Right? What if behind the layer, the veil of fear that creates the experience of it being scary, is a whole bunch of godlike god love just waiting to be released and acknowledged so that the fear can return back into love and light? Okay?

So here's the process. Just go ahead and look straight at that fear right now and say: 'I know that you are love. I know that you are love. I know that you are light.' Ooh, alright. 'I know that you are light.'

So if you guys are in your houses or whatever and can't speak, just go ahead and repeat this at the fear: 'I know that you are love.' They you go. 'I know that you are light.' There you go. Can you feel the fear beginning to go: 'Oh, really? But I thought it was scary'. And then you say: 'No, I know that you are love.' And it goes: 'Oh, I've always wanted to be love.' And you go: 'Yeah, I know that you are light.' It's like: I'm not scary in darkness? You mean I'm light? You mean I am the energy of God too? You're willing to see me as that? Oh my God. And it's starts having a different experience of itself where it moves from the density of darkness and the density of no love and separation from God back into the energy of God in your own system, okay?

So we're going to do this a few more times until we actually release the entirety of fear in your system back into the god love and the god light that it actually is, okay. Ready?

I know that you are love. There you go. And penetrate that fear with that knowing – I know that you are love. There you go. Good job. I know that you are love. I found something out today. I know that you are love. And it's like a keycode in the matrix where all of a sudden all the fear starts dismantling. It's like - Oh my God, you've got me.

Darius: Wow.

Rikka: I'm realizing what I am because you as a being are looking at me with these god eyes and that god presence saying: 'I know that you are love.'

Okay. And the next one is: I know that you are light. You're not darkness. I know that you are light, fear. There you go. I know that you are light.

And I'm going to shift your vibration just a little bit for us to really clean up this fear in your system. Just allow yourself to expand up into some really high vibrating energies. Take a deep breath. Feel yourself kind of floating the sky. Feel yourself letting go. Feel yourself relaxing. There you go. Feel yourself kind of meeting that very high vibration. Alright. And from up here now let's look down on the fear, right. Now that we're encompassing and being that energy of the lightness and the love almost as if we're sort of like angels looking down from heaven or, you know, just infinite beings going: 'Oh my God, I'm way up here. I get it.' Right?

Okay. Now from here, look down at that fear and say: 'I know that you are love.' There you go. 'I know that you are light.' There you go. 'I know that you are love.' Can you feel that shifting? Oh my goodness.

Darius: Ah-hum.

Rikka: And did you notice that the higher energy moved into... when you moved kind of above the situation into a lighter energy you got more power? More power to shift your experience. More power to move that fear back into love.

And, by the way, you're doing this on behalf of you but also on behalf of the whole planet right now.

Awesome. I know that you are light. And just let the light shine through the fear. There you go. I know that you are love. There you go. I know that you are light. I know that you are infinite possibilities instead of being fixed. I know that about you. There you go. So talk to the molecules – Hey, guess what? I know that you're infinite possibilities. You're not stuck fear. You're not stuck energy. You're infinite energy. There we go. You're infinite possibilities.

Could you feel that you guys just broke through that layer of the veil and released fear from its own projection on itself and released it from your system?

Darius: Yeah. I want to hear from everybody. Just feel what's going on in your body and what that different perspective is and what it means, and being out of duality, right? Because now we're not talking about good, bad, right, wrong, which is all third dimensional low vibrational stuff that keeps us chasing our own tail. We're actually now going way beyond into the god self, right, Rikka?

Rikka: Yeah, absolutely. And it's really your birthright to move into that god self at any moment, any time, any space, any place of your choice. It is yours to play with, right? And you get tremendously more powerful as you move into that. And what if you can live your life from there? What if you never had to leave that infinite abundant space where you are the creator of it all and it is all your choice?

Darius: Wow. And I would say, I mean, from where we are now... I want to hear, of course, from everybody at <http://youwealthrevolution.com/now> and what would your life challenges look like? What do challenges look like from here? It's very different. What does money look like from here? And just try on these different things. And we've got people writing in. It's very exciting kind of what's happening.

One person said: 'I've chills throughout my body. I shifted.' Blaise said: 'I shifted into a place where we all are one.'

Margo from Berkeley says: 'Oh, wow. This is actually working,' - and I feel like she's been energetically trying for a while and she's finding this is happening right now.

Jimmy: 'Rikka, you're doing it again. I've got goose pimples and skin rushes. As far as I can tell, the fear I know is now love and I know that you are light. Thank you.'

Another person says: 'Truly amazing. Fear's a big challenge for me. Thank you, thank you for this.'

And the comments just keep flooding in.

Rikka, wow. Tell us more. Take us wherever you feel we need to go.

Rikka: Okay, let's do that.

Darius: I mean, first I'll ask this question: Why are people feeling...? Why is this instantaneous? That's a big question, because we talk about abundance here a lot, and a lot of speakers and healers and masters talk about abundance. Why is this happening so fast within just a few minutes of being here?

Rikka: I would say the vibration that we are being, right. And the readiness, right, of you guys to actually be ready to go: 'Okay, yes.' Right? And it's kind of like when any one of us is being the higher vibrating glass of water, if you're willing to relax and let go, you're going to raise to the higher.

Darius: Yeah.

Rikka: So each of you are experiencing part of what we experience, what I experience on a daily basis of just enjoying the abundant energy and the possibilities in that we get to create any experience of our choice in any moment.

So your body and your system and getting a sense of that freedom and it's like my system, you know, Darius's system is reminding you guys that you have this possibility and it's allowing that to show up for you. And you're ready. It's perfect. You're ready.

Darius: Wow.

Rikka: Okay, so let's bring this piece in too because this sounds like it's really important for you guys. How many of you guys feel like you've sucked at receiving? You can't like ask for money. You feel like your receiving is broken. You just feel like, okay, as far as infinite abundance it's great, but I just don't feel like I receive right. Like, I avoid it. I avoid compliments. How many of you guys have that where you're like: I can't quite step into my greatest; I feel like my receiving is broken?

Well, let me just kind of debunk this whole thing for you, okay. So, how many of you guys take a walk in nature and just receive the trees? Like, you don't think about receiving the trees; you just enjoy the trees and nature and the sky and all of that. So how many of your guys do that?

Darius: Yeah, I do.

Rikka: Of course. Yeah, you all do, right? Okay. So guess what? Your receiving is not broken. You are an infinite receiver already, okay. You have no problem receiving god energy - none. Just as this exercise just showed, where we went: 'I know that you are light and I know that you are love,' and everyone started really experiencing this new world. You have no problem receiving that go energy, that light, that love and that infinite. You don't.

So first off, would you claim that you are an amazing receiver? Yeah, I receive amazingly. I'm magnificent in receiving. I am so good at receiving - oh my God - because when I walk in nature, all I do is receive, right. When god energy is present, I just allow myself to be it. When it's that energy of nature, no problem, okay.

Yet how many of your guys when there is some form of lie present you don't receive, right? So there's some kind of illusion or some kind of... Say if somebody goes to hand you money and they don't really want to give you the money and they're resistant of it and you go to receive the money and it feels weird and you feel like you can't receive.

Well, what if what's happening is you're infinitely talented and amazing at receiving, okay; you just won't allow yourself to have lies flow through you and not resist them. So the lie creates a resistance in you where you think: Oh my God, I can't receive this. This is bad or this doesn't feel good, or I can't ask for money, or I'm having a problem here. But it's actually because that energy that's around you is out of god energy and into the field of the 3-D dimension, the lies, right, the separation that you resist.

So it's always been separation that you've resisted and not received and it's always been the god energy that you've received easily.

Darius: Wow.

Rikka: So the trick is we've got to get your relationship with money and all your ideas about money into the energy of God. Easy-breezy. We do that, you receive infinitely without a blink of an eye.

Darius: Wow.

Rikka: You see what I mean? So it hasn't been your receiving that's been broken; it's that you guys have a hard time receiving the separation basically. But if we unlock all those lies and separation and you allow yourself to move your vibration around money from separation into god presence, you're going to have zero issue, zero problems. It's going to be as easy as taking a walk in nature.

Darius: And I love that analogy for people to really plug into. Okay, we've got a bunch of people writing in sharing what's going on. One person said: 'Energy waves,' – this is Lyne in Denmark. He says: 'Energy waves are flowing through me like little chock little waves like of total bliss.'

Lynn says: 'Oh my God, huge shifts happening. Thank you.'

Winata: 'Oh, this is so liberating. Thank you, Rikka.'

Paula: 'My heart is finally relaxed. I feel more at peace.'

Justine: 'I have chills throughout my whole body.'

Blaise: 'I feel shifting. All is one.'

And so many people. This is really, really, really happening. Oh, how incredible.

I want to hear from people what are some of the challenges, what are some of the things that you are wondering or you want to ask Rikka.

Rikka, I mean, as people start moving into this energy of receiving and start really knowing, what's the next thing that tends to happen that maybe slows people down or keeps them from really fully awakening to this? Because we've opened a door now.

Rikka: Yes, we have. Yeah. Well, what I would say too is as you guys expand and allow yourself to move all of that separation that you may have been functioning from or participating with back into god energy, as you guys take that ascension journey, right, that activation into ascension journey, every step of the way, is pretty much going to be met with the resistance that you put there, right? So you take a step and you're going to feel like: Oh, there's something here; there's something telling me no.

Well, okay.... Because a lot of times people say: 'Well, I feel like I'm resisting Rikka as we move forward,' and it's like are you resisting me? Did you choose to resist me or is that old resistance coming up, right?

Darius: Ah.

Rikka: There we go. So that's the little key. So now you guys know that there may be old resistance coming up, now you can move through it and return it back to love and light knowing that as you expand, right, you need to let go of the old stuff to take the next step in that evolution. So it's really a process of letting go of the old and moving into the new and letting go of the old and moving into the new.

Darius: Yeah.

Rikka: Beautiful, beautiful. Cool. So would you be willing to let go of anywhere you guys thought you were resisting infinite abundance or resisting your god self at all and realize that was just old information you put there that we can now transmute?

Darius: Yes.

Rikka: There you go. Yeah.

Darius: Beautiful. Wow. A big question just came in from Maria who's really talking about how do I find what I love to do and live my passion? I mean, as we talk about abundance and we talk about really being in flow and understanding our god power, this idea of what is it we love to do or what is our passion, how do we begin to manifest that? Any thoughts there?

Rikka: Yeah, absolutely. So for us in a lot of our lives, and I'm just tapping into her and a lot of other people on the call, is that in their childhood they had to keep what was most precious... you had to keep what was most precious to you so that it was safe. So you couldn't bring out your best piece of art. You couldn't show your parents the beauty that you had created, the mud pie or the sandcastle, because they wouldn't see its beauty, and you feel like you needed to keep that part of your hidden so that no one could touch it with judgment, no one could take it away from you ever again.

So for those of you guys who feel like you can't quite connect to that passion; it's hidden somewhere in you, okay, would you be willing to open the door, right?

So go back to that moment where you feel like you got really disappointed when you were showing your love or your passion to your parents and you thought: I don't want to show them anything again; I don't want to show anybody again; I don't want this to happen. And now move before that moment, okay, into when you were being really passionate about what you were doing and you were loving it and you didn't even care if anybody was watching or looking. You were just like: Oh, this is the greatest thing ever. I'm spinning around in circles or I'm making sandcastles or I'm doing mud pies or I'm doing my art or my painting or my music. I wrote a song today or whatever.

So allow yourself to tap into that energy again, okay. So just go deep into yourself – because it's hidden within you – and find that bubble of precious passion that you've been hiding. There you go. And allow yourself to meet that beautiful little girl or little boy before they got their feelings hurt, that's still just sitting in their room doing their thing, just enjoying themselves, and would you invite that part of you back into your life? Okay. And would you also basically make a commitment to keep that part of you safe; that you're not going to let judgment touch it because you're not going to judge it; that you're going to love that part of you and honor that part of you and cherish that part of you, right?

So just pick up that little kid, give them a big hug, ask them if they'd be willing to rejoin you and your life. There you go. And let that joy come online. Yeah, let it come all the way. Let it go. Let it come all the way back in. Let it enter your heart. Yes, that excitement, that enthusiasm, let it enter your heart. Ooh, that knowing that you are loved, let it enter your heart. That knowing that you are magnificent and amazing and everyone is lucky to be around you. Remember that? Let it enter your heart. Let it come back inside of you. Invite that piece of you back, okay.

And then repeat after me: I reclaim this part of me. I reclaim the joy. There you go. I reclaim the love. I reclaim the enthusiasm. I reclaim the creativity. I reclaim the passion. There you go. I reclaim back this part of me. There you go. Feel it integrating back into your system. There you go.

And promising to keep it safe is going to allow it to come back in, because you kept it separate from you so that it wouldn't get hurt. So would you commit to being that divine mother and taking care of that part of you that's so precious? That's your soul light. It's meant to be nurtured. It's meant to be cared for. Will you commit to caring for it? I will care for that soul light. I will love and honor that soul light. There you go. I will protect that soul light. Go ahead and say it. I will protect that soul light. There you go. Beautiful. Feel all that energy coming back online. Woo-hoo!

Darius: Wow. It's unbelievable. I mean, it's actually completely believable, people are saying, because it's happening right now. One person – Jimmy – is saying: 'The more that I reclaim the love and joy, the more I cry of happiness.'

Blaise says: 'Yes. I am shaking with truth and joy. I feel like this was set up a long time ago between us all. It's already happening now. Some part of us is just accepting it all. Thank you, thank you, thank you.'

Sue says: 'I love the idea that abundance is as easy as receiving nature's blessing. I never looked at it that way.'

Julie, who released a ton of energy... And I don't even know what she had planned for us next week. I don't know if this is the vibrational cleanse or not but, I mean, it's already happening. Julie says: 'There was some pretty smelly old energy that was leaving me. I was holding myself back and I've been doing it for a long, long time.'

Justine: 'I have so much gratitude to the universe for Darius and Rikka. Thank you for being you and changing the world. I love you guys.'

Sheila: 'This is a major breakthrough for me. My receiving is not broken.' Not broken.

Now, Rikka, you mentioned the soul light. What is the soul light and how does this soul light relate to abundance?

Rikka: Yeah, good question. Okay, so for all of us being here has somewhat... we've all been through our hurt and our challenges and our trials and our tribulations. We've all been put down, you know, we've all been separated from, we've all been rejected. And depending on how much you really stayed in your own god being, it's like... I would say all of us separated from part of us, just from being here, because those parts weren't accepted, you know. Those parts weren't loved. They weren't seen as a greatness.

For me, just in childhood it's like my difference, the energy that I am, the light that I am was seen as evil or bad, right? Except I was just being joy. So we've been very misunderstood and potentially in all of our childhoods we haven't been seen, we haven't been acknowledged, it hasn't been seen as a good thing. So for all of us we hide parts of us that weren't loved until we can love them and keep them safe, right? And we hide them so that nobody can touch them, so that we're strong enough to be in a world of separation, right? But when we bring that soul light back online it's like reconnecting with the power of your being and the power of your heart, the power of your heart to love your life, to love yourself, to love creativity, to love joy.

The most beautiful parts of us are the parts that we hide because we don't want them to turn into the separation, but as soon as each of you are willing to protect and care for and love that part of you and invite that back in just like we just did, we bring those parts of us back into ourselves so it's almost like we've always been a whole being, right, but we separated this part because it wasn't received and it wasn't loved. Now we're taking that back. And as you bring that soul light of your being back together and you are a whole being, right, you have your joy back, you have your love back, you have your enthusiasm back, you have your creativity back, you have the energy and essence of the god being that you are, the beautiful being that you are back to create abundance with. Everybody wants to be the joy, the love, the light - everybody - so when you be this, you're also a beacon for new clients to find you, because they're looking for you.

Darius: Yeah.

Rikka: Because they're looking for the part of themselves.

Darius: Wow. Wow. And, I mean, that's such a key truth about abundance is when you actually find the part of you you've been looking for – which is there – which is what your work is about as we activate this infinite abundance – people also looking – which is like 99% of the world – are like infinitely drawn and attracted to you in a very, very big way, which in essence is a very abundance situation for you to be in as you begin sharing this and you begin changing your life day to day.

I want to talk about another piece that has been so powerful with your work and something that is a relatively new development. I know we talked about it a little bit in Austin when we were together and we've experienced some of it, but the toning. The toning is another piece of lifting some of that energy that's not in alignment. Tell me a little bit about what you've been doing with that and kind of what you're seeing now with this toning.

Rikka: The toning, yeah. I've been doing the toning for about a year and what it feels like is... what happens is that light and that love and that infinite... that god presence begins coming through my body, and then as I tone it's like just putting a sound to it. Now, what happens is the sound hits your body...

Darius: Right.

Rikka: And then moves all of the stuff that's been locked into your body out of your body and brings you into harmony with that god presence. And it's really neat. We actually did some GDV testing, which is a Russian medical device that measures energy systems, and got some amazing results. It's like it moved people's chakras into alignment. It did a whole bunch of other stuff that lowered stress levels, balances energy in the body. It creates higher emotional and physical energy readings from the body. It clears all the emotional patterning, unlocks and releases dark energy, regulates the autonomic nervous system...

Darius: Whoa!

Rikka: Yeah. Balances both of the sympathetic and parasympathetic systems. It opens up energy flow and healing in the physical and emotional bodies. It eliminates weakness in the immune system, improves organ and endocrine functions, improves functional performance levels. It mitigates negative attributes of emotional pain and suffering - so basically it's again a clearing thing – and then balancing the chakras. So there's a whole different line of effects also.

So the guy who was doing the testing was like: 'What is this?' In four seconds it's actually opening up the autonomic nervous system, which is what you have to open for the body to receive. And, you know, he's like basically... In chiropractic they wait for your first breath to know that your system is open to being working, and sometimes that takes 10, 15, 20 minutes. He's like: 'That happened in four seconds.'

Darius: Wow. Wow.

Rikka: And then the systems... And we have a full report on it too, so if anybody's interested in getting the full download, we can give it to you. It's really long but it's really amazing... on all these different cases and what happened in everyone's bodies, and, you know, it's just a testament of how amazing the energy of God is. It's like when we open up, when we let that energy come through, miracles happen, and you are that miracle.

Darius: Wow. I mean, this is the first time we've seen this with so much data now on what this can do, this new element to what Rikka's doing, and what's astounding to me and incredibly exciting too is that now that you're adding the toning. You've actually figured out a way to integrate the toning with the activating infinite abundance, with the messaging, with like the core truth or the essence of what we're talking about here and the release. We're actually now bringing that into sound. So you can understand it conceptually but it also can go into your cells and into your body and you can actually feel from a cellular level this thing actually going in and doing things. And it's been measured now. This is like wow. Huge, huge, Rikka. It's like Rikka 5.0 magnified, you know, ten times over. I am so excited. Wow.

Okay, so where do we go from here? I know that you are going to do a process. I don't know if we already did that. Judging from what people are saying they're already just astounded by the energy. We've got a bunch more. I'm just going to read because it's so much fun to see all that's happening.

Eileen says: 'I'm buzzing with happiness and joy.'

Another person said: 'Oh my gosh, this is awesome. Joy is finally coming back to me. Thank you, thank you.' That was Michele.

Another person said: 'The more I feel freedom, the more I feel possibility. Thank you, Darius and Rikka.'

Another person said: 'Thank you for hooking me up to my inner child, giving me that sweet little girl back again. I had a shamed childhood but now it's okay. Rikka, you've helped me more than I can say.' Wow. 'You are an angel.'

A lot of things happening. A lot of things happening.

Rikka: Beautiful. Yeah. Awesome, awesome, awesome! Yay!

Well, one of the things that we could potentially do is have a huge sort of clearing process around the separation you guys have been doing around money itself. And I think that would be really beneficial for everybody. It just feels like the next step in you guys beginning to really embody and activate that infinite abundance. Like, we have to get rid of the old stuff so that there's no stuff there so that it can be a flowing infinite abundant energy of money through your life.

Darius: Wow. Okay.

Rikka: So let's just begin by talking really quickly about money and about what we do with money. Now, if you look at it, money's actually just paper, right, and paper's actually just trees. So we could have a relationship with money that really felt like taking a walk in nature. It didn't have any fear in it. It didn't have any power struggle in it. It didn't have any separation in it. It didn't have any judgment in it. It didn't have any of that in it. It felt like nature.

So first off, would all you guys be willing to embark on a whole different relationship with money that didn't include any of the contraction or any of the heaviness?

Darius: Yes.

Rikka: Cool. Alright. So we've got everybody in alignment - Yes, I am absolutely willing. Okay. So let's bring this to light also. Has the energy that you do around money ever really been about money, or have you actually been having a relationship with those dimensions of separation?

So we talked about money actually being paper and paper just being the energy of trees. So what if what's been going on is you guys haven't actually had a relationship with money; you had a relationship with 'I don't feel worthy', right? You had a relationship with 'I'm not good enough to receive'. You've had a relationship with 'I don't deserve to receive'. You've had a relationship with 'there's not enough'. You haven't actually had a relationship with the real energy of money, which is just paper, which is god energy, which is what everything is made of.

Okay. So first off, would you be willing to pull all the projections that you've been doing onto money off of money; pull all those patterns out so we can begin actually working on all those patterns?

Darius: Yes. I answer for everybody yes.

Rikka: Cool. Okay. And allow money to move into the energy of nature and we're going to pull out all the patterns so that we can clear those patterns so you don't have to do it anymore.

Darius: Okay. Okay.

Rikka: Sounds like a good idea, right?

Darius: Oh my gosh, yes. It sounds so good.

Rikka: Okay. And let me go through just another tool and clearing process that we're going to be working on with you guys. And that is actually asking the patterns themselves to complete themselves. Now, I'll kind of do a little explanation around this so you guys can kind of have a cognitive explanation of what we're doing and you guys can use this in every area of your life to actually clear anything very easily, okay.

So in the realm of infinite possibilities, right, just imagine, just feel into the energy of you as a being not on this planet, not in this dimension of separation, okay. Just a field of infinite possibility, completely enjoying yourself, right. It's like flowing in and out of different experiences and worlds and universes and playing around and having a really good time. Okay. Cool.

So in that field of experience, as the angelic beings that we are, we ascend in a circular motion, into a greater and greater understanding and knowing and receiving of the god beings that we are and God as a whole, right. So we kind of move in this circular motion where we create an experience; we condense light; create an experience; we go through that experience; we get all the love, all the passion, all the energy from it; we get to the end of that experience and we go: 'Oh, that was so beautiful and so amazing. Right, I'm ready for my next experience.' And then that whole world begins to fall away and we move into the next echelon of receiving the next experience, the next kind of ascended experience that we have on our way to being more and more and more god in every moment, more and more love, more and more understanding of what that is and being that, right?

So it's this ascension process, this circular ascension process.

So we're used to the circular ascension process. We're like: cool; we got it; we're infinite beings that are used to ascending in that circular motion, right? And that how all of creation creates, right. It creates in this double vortex that's moving higher and higher and higher and higher. So that has been really natural for us.

Well, when we come down to this dimension and work here, we participate in, say, a program like 'I don't deserve', right, and we go in a circular motion with it, right, we create 'I don't deserve my, you know, boyfriend' or 'I don't deserve to be loved' and then we play out 'I don't deserve' in this circular pattern all over your life. And you get to the end of your life and then the pattern doesn't complete and for some reason you're like: 'Okay, I must have done something wrong, because me as an angelic being, when we circle we ascend as we close the circle and we ascend and we ascend. But here it didn't ascend. It didn't undo. I must be wrong and I must have done something wrong, so let me do it again.'

Okay. Another lifetime of 'I don't deserve'. 'I don't deserve to be loved', 'I don't deserve money', 'I don't deserve god energy', 'I don't deserve', 'I don't deserve', 'I don't deserve'. You get to the end of your life and you go: 'Okay, something must not have happened. I did the circular ascension process again, which is really natural for me, and I'm still going around in circles. So let me do it again, okay.'

But the thing is, down here in the world of illusion those circles cannot be completed because they're not real.

Darius: Wow. Yeah. Never, never...

Rikka: Never. They never complete. You could go on – 'I don't deserve it' – work out every facet of 'I don't deserve' in every different dimension and you would still never get free of it. And you've analyzed the whole thing. You've looked at it upside down and backwards. You've received all the information of it, all the experience, and it doesn't fall away and move you into the next evolution of the god energy that you are because it is not real.

Darius: Wow.

Rikka: It's okay. This is really good, okay, because check this out. How many lifetimes have each of you gone around in circles working out the same experience of 'I don't deserve'? Has it been all of them, some of them, or even more than all of them?

Darius: Yeah.

Rikka: Okay. So here's the sort of new cutting edge process that's also part of this program, this infinite abundance program, okay. So let's start with a program of 'I don't deserve'. You guys ready? You guys ready to live without the program of 'I don't deserve'?

Darius: Yes. Oh yeah! We've got people writing in already.

Rikka: Okay. Awesome. So the first part is: Oh my God. Thank God. Okay, cool. I can't complete this, right? So the first step of this process is 'I don't deserve' complete yourself, right. So ask the program itself: 'Complete yourself.' And it's almost energetically like having a snake bite its tail, right.

Darius: Wow.

Rikka: So just say this out loud. 'I don't deserve' complete yourself.' There you go. 'I'm done with you.' There we go. 'You are done. You are complete.' There we go. And now pull your god energy out of 'I don't deserve' and just allow the program itself – there we go – to fall out of your system. Perfect.

So your god energy has been the thing that's actually been powering the circles, okay, and the feeling of it being incomplete and you need to keep doing it has been keeping you going back to 'I don't deserve' because you still haven't figured it out and you still haven't handled it. You still haven't gotten to the end of the circle. When you ask it to complete itself, it feels complete in itself, right. So it's happy. And then you pull your god energy your of it and it pulls the power out of the program as if you were almost even pulling a plug from a wall, and then that program can no longer run because it's not plugged in anymore, because you're not giving it your power. Does that make sense?

Darius: Yeah. Amazing. I mean, guys, this is incredible. Wow. Yes.

Rikka: Okay. Awesome. This is fun. Let's go through some more of those money things, okay. And I get too that there's probably a vibration associated with 'I don't deserve' that might feel like it's in your body or in your energy system. Don't worry about it. We're going to handle that too, okay.

So the first thing we're doing to do is close all these programs so that they actually complete themselves, right? They're done. And you're done with that part of the journey. It's like: 'Oh, thanks. I'm done with going around in circles with you,' right? And then pull your god energy out so that you're free and that it has no power, okay.

So we've got the 'I don't deserve'. What about 'there's not enough'? Okay? There's not enough energy. There's not enough food. There's not enough... what else? Not enough love. There's just not enough. Not enough to go around. Because is that true in god energy?

Darius: No.

Rikka: Absolutely not. God energy is everywhere. So it's just a program, okay...

Darius: I love it!

Rikka: Okay. So we're like: 'Okay, the program is not enough,' okay, right? Just going to repeat after me: 'The program is not enough.' There you go.

Darius: The program is not enough, yeah.

Rikka: 'Complete yourself.'

Darius: Complete yourself.

Rikka: 'I'm done with you.'

Darius: I'm done with you.

Rikka: There you go. And pull all your god energy out of that not enough world and let the program just disappear.

Darius: Oh, you know guys... I mean, this is incredible. We're getting people write in. One person says: 'I feel like a snake has just shed its skin.' I actually like I see sort of like this... it looked like these like random digits or these cubes or this like matrix kind of code, and while it was like... I was like stuck at that level of just like going through this code and like keep playing the same riddle over and over again. I literally just like was watching it from down below and I saw this long string, and I basically connected to strings and then I see like these numbers and these shapes just going around and around and it's sort of like just going crazy and I just see it like falling away down, down, down into nothingness. That was so cool! Oh my God!

What did you guys feel? Oh, that was like... it was like a sci-fi movie or something. Oh my gosh, this is wild. I love it!

Rikka: That's awesome. Yeah. And the thing is is like the energy of God is a balanced energy that feels infinitely complete, right? So those energies of the programs are almost like searching for God but they can't achieve or attain God; they're illusionary.

Darius: Exactly.

Rikka: And you want to serve them be experiencing them and by returning them home, but they can't be returned to home because they're not real.

Darius: It's like a virus. I mean, it's like us spending time trying to fix a computer virus that's never going to really work, and we just have to close it off and just let it go.

Rikka: Yeah.

Darius: You know? Amazing.

- Rikka: And then pull the cord so that virus can't run on the computer because there's no power to it. And it just sits there and now it's not running.
- Darius: This is consciousness technology going so far, and it's really all just grounding back into source. I mean, Rikka, this is really amazing stuff. I mean, what you've been doing, the way you've been stretching things and just expanding, this is so amazing. I don't think we've ever gone this deep.
- Lisa says: 'Wow. This was the missing puzzle piece, Rikka.'
- Blaise said: 'We let go forever. We let go of 'not good deserve'. I sort of flopped wildly and I felt like old video game tokens came clinking out of me forever.'
- Everything. Oh my gosh. Some people are even losing the webcast. And I've got to tell you guys, like our whole site was down today, which is just crazy because that's never happened. Like, all across the board.
- So this is some... When we start really moving this kind of energy by like just letting the whole old system just go, it's like whoa! We don't even know what can happen. Oh, Rikka, this is just awesome.
- Rikka: Isn't it cool? Oh my goodness! It's so good. It is so good. Okay, so we did the 'I don't deserve', right? We did the 'not enough'. Let's see, what would be another one to actually do to close down around money.
- Darius: Did we do like...? Well, let's ask everyone what is a program that you're feeling right now. We're getting a lot people... people saying... Let's do one... I'm getting a lot of people saying: 'I'm not good enough'. I don't know did we touch on that or 'I'm not worthy'?
- Rikka: Okay, let's do that. Okay, let's do the 'I'm not good enough'. Okay, 'I'm not good enough'. And it's interesting too, because... I just want to point out one more piece of consciousness. You guys can really let this go, but if you're spinning around in these circles and they're not completed and ascending, which is something that's very natural for you outside of this dimension, you would feel like 'I must have done something wrong. I didn't do it good enough. Let me do it again. I must have done something wrong. I didn't do it good enough. Let me do it again. I must be imperfect,' - because what you know to be is this ascending circular process, which is how everything functions, and somehow you got it wrong. You're not quite in it, right? So 'I'm not good enough' might also be that feeling of never completing this experience and then somehow you must repeat them again because you're not good enough and you didn't quite complete them and you're not perfect, okay.
- So let's ask that program, okay. Okay, the program of 'not good enough'. Okay?
- Darius: Okay.
- Rikka: The program of 'not good enough', okay, complete yourself. Go ahead – 'Complete yourself.'

Darius: Complete yourself. Program of 'not good enough' complete yourself. I'm learning and just trying to follow this. This is amazing. Okay.

Rikka: It's perfect. 'I'm done with you.'

Darius: I'm done with you.

Rikka: You are done. There you go. And pull all of your god energy out of 'I'm not good enough'. There you go. And let it fall away.

Darius: Oh, there is goes.

Rikka: There it goes!

Darius: Oh my gosh! You know, it's just incredible. I want to hear what's going on with people. I saw sort of like a... almost like this like millipede, like this tubical sort of like electrical like millipede with all of this like wrong information and virus bugs in it just like going around and around and now it's circling it's own tail and it's just falling away. Wow.

Rikka: Beautiful. Beautiful. And, Darius, you have this incredible way of architecting and engineering and creating grid systems of change, so this is right up your alley. This is like you sliding into home. You're like: 'Yeah! Oh, I get it. Oh!' Right? This is perfect.

Darius: Yeah.

Rikka: Okay. Cool. So shall we do the 'I'm not worthy'?

Darius: Yeah, we've got one more here that seems to be coming up a lot, which is 'I'm not worthy, I'm not good enough, I can't... It's not me, it's somebody else.' A lot of people say: 'It's not me, it's someone else, or someone else is the one that gets that, not me.'

Rikka: Oh, interesting. Okay. So firstly I start with 'I'm not worthy'. You guys ready to be completely liberated from 'I'm not worthy'? Yes!

Darius: Yes. Everybody say yes if you want it.

Rikka: "I'm not worthy' complete yourself.' There you go.

Darius: 'I'm not worthy' complete yourself.

Rikka: 'I'm done with you.'

Darius: I'm done with you.

Rikka: Okay? Woo!

Darius: Wow.

Rikka: Okay. Now pull your god energy out of that program. There you go. And now that it has no power it just disappears.

Darius: Wow. Wow. There it goes. Oh my goodness. Oh my goodness. Wow. One person said: 'That made me dizzy for a moment or two.' A lot of people are feeling like dizzy, sort of shaky, light-headed. What does that mean when we start feeling that?

Rikka: That's good, that's good, because the energy of God doesn't have a head and is very light. So you're on the right track!

Darius: Wow.

Rikka: It's like if you're actually moving into that god presence...

Darius: Wow. Another person said: 'My body got filled with gold, golden light, and 'I'm not good enough' fell below the horizon into oblivion.' This is Anek and it's kind of what I was saying, you know, the same thing, like it just fell away. Wow. Wow. Wow. A lot of things happening. Let us know kind of what's going on and what you're feeling.

Now, Rikka, I mean, this is new stuff. There's a lot here and we didn't even combine it with the toning. There's some new technologies obviously you've been plugging into and I am so glad that you're here, because this is what so many people have been asking for you knowing that there is always something amazing that comes from having you on the You Wealth Revolution. What is your latest work about really activating the infinite abundance? This is a big part of it. What else is going on? How do you combine the toning with this? What do you do in some of this deeper work that you're now bringing forward?

Rikka: Oh my gosh, I love it, I love it. I love it because it's so fast and it's so awesome and it's so empowering and it's just so straightforward and so full on. So this package of activating infinite abundance is actually a whole month program. So it's a four-week program. And it's really about getting you guys to unlock and let go of, well, basically of all those things that haven't been working for you with money and moving you guys into that infinite abundance, that infinite flow, that god presence and that god energy that you are, because as you can feel already, you feel lighter, you feel like there's more energy flowing, you feel like, oh my God, stuff is really happening. Well, you can have this every moment of the day not just when you're on the phone with us, right?

So it gives you all that tools and that information. Also along with this program there are these home-play assignments, which are really great. You can call on a friend or if two of you guys buy the program or ask somebody to run these for you. And they're these weekly assignments that walk you through a tool that you get to use for the week and a session that you get to create and have to move you into alignment with that infinite abundance, right.

So we give you all the energetic pieces and the energetic tools and then we actually walk you through all the reality pieces too. So every week you have a really simple assignment that will actually completely, absolutely and totally shift your financial reality. I 100% guarantee it. If you actually do the home-play assignments, your financial reality within six months will completely change.

- Darius: Wow. Wow. Okay, I want to talk a little bit about this and what's in here. I mean, some of the processing we did with collapsing some of those programs that no longer serve us, that's in the deeper work as well, right, Rikka?
- Rikka: Yeah.
- Darius: Oh, wow, wow, wow. Okay. So I'm going to share kind of what Rikka's put together, because we obviously... we're getting close to some of our time and I want to make sure that we have time to kind of talk about where her work is headed and what's the newest. This is only available here. It's the first time it's being offered and this is very, very cool. It's call Activating and Awakening Infinite Abundance, and the gist of this program really is abundance in many areas, right? It's not just money but much more, you know, in all areas, right, Rikka?
- Rikka: Absolutely. So it's in your energy, in your body, in your financial flow, in your ability to actually love and be loved. I mean, it all walks hand in hand. It's like the money quote-unquote 'problems' are just a fractal of the interior information. So when we work on the interior information it actually shifts everything on the exterior.
- Darius: Wow. Wow. And you've added the toning why? Because, I mean, obviously the process we just did here was infinitely powerful and then the clearings we did in the beginning of this call amazingly powerful. Now you've added a whole other level to this, which is the sound, which actually is going in at a level that, you know, is even beyond our cognitive understanding, and now you have science to prove this through these GDV results. Tell me about why you added toning to this.
- Rikka: The toning is sort of... I mean, people love it. They love it because they can relax and just receive and it's just their vibrational energy. So it feels like it helps work on people on lots of different levels, because as we're talking you can feel that there's vibration moving, right?
- Darius: Right.
- Rikka: And some people, you know, maybe relate more to the talking and the cognitive. Other people are like: 'No, just give me like the...
- Darius: That's right.
- Rikka: You know, toning.' So it really works on both levels. And the body stuff really is very much assisted with the tonings. And it feels like since there's nothing to think about. People just let their mind get out of their way and then they receive so much because it's this other way of receiving.
- Darius: Yeah. For people that like they're doing these processes, there's always some... And they're like: 'Well, what am I supposed to be feeling? Am I really feeling it?' And the mind gets in the way. Your mind can't get in the way when you're actually listening to the toning because it's actually bypassing a level of your own cognitive awareness.
- And all of this is put together and available through Rikka and I want to share kind of where it is. It's at <http://youwealthrevolution.com/rikka2013>.

And I want to walk through some of the different pieces of this. But, Rikka, I mean, you've helped so many tens of thousands... hundreds of thousands of people all over the world through your live programs, the internet... Why did you feel the need to develop this newest work? I mean, what is different? What's being addressed here that maybe other work or people that have other work maybe are not going to be receiving if they don't go deeper into this?

Rikka: That's a really good question. Well, anybody that's gotten any of my stuff knows that I never do the same thing twice.

Darius: Yeah.

Rikka: So it's all just brand new, right. It's like we've never talked about, you know, completing those circles. We haven't talked about the 'I know that you are light, I know that you are love'. So it's like this program is brand new and this is the first time we've ever offered it. So it's all a whole other download, a whole other way into a whole different echelon of vibration and receiving, truly.

Darius: Yeah. And I see this as Rikka like continues to expand and changes the world and her vibration raises, like what she's doing is just a natural extension of saying: 'Hey, I want you guys to come along for the ride. I want to share what I'm experiencing and what I'm seeing as I go higher and higher.' So the little stuff that maybe you're dealing with or the huge stuff, it just goes away. I mean, it's that much easier to dissolve because now Rikka from where she is is like pulling you up and saying: 'Okay, come play up here. And now take a breath, my friend.' It's a lot easier. And that's just such a cool thing.

Let's talk about what's in the Activating Abundance home-play. That's Item Three of the PDF. What do you do there, because that's actually something people take and actually work with? What is in that?

Rikka: It's basically these assignments that will assist them throughout the week. So every week basically creates a whole lesson plan from the two-hour session audio where you get just completely cleared and rerouted and shifted in ways you can't even imagine. And then we have the toning, which is great, because as you work with the home-play you can relisten to the toning to clear the information that's in your field from the week with everything we're giving you to work on.

And then we give you not only home-play assignments that are energetic where you get together with a friend and you guys ask each other this question and begin to shift energies. It's kind of like the newest latest thing to really move you into a whole other echelon of energy.

We also give you like home-play assignments that are actually written assignments. So they're physical assignments to actually shift your monetary world, because what I've seen in a lot of conscious spiritual beings is like we're like: Yeah, let's shift the energy, shift the energy, shift the energy,' but have we actually done anything?

Darius: Right.

Rikka: No, we haven't. We have shifted your physical world. So with this program what I wanted to offer was let's shift your physical work and your energetic world simultaneously so that you actually get lasting results and so they can...

Darius: Yeah.

Rikka: Experience a whole new world. So there's different assignments on finances and rearranging what it is that you do and how you do it and all this stuff to bring you guys into that infinite abundance in a real way also.

Darius: Yeah. What I loved as I'm reading one of these, it looks like the Week Two home-play is actually removing and letting go of the vibrational density of your debt. You know, this is literally like transforming the density that, let's say, debt - if any of you have that in your life that you're dealing with - in your life. So it's light, it's free.

And it's really now what I'm seeing with your work is you're taking this from the level of the clearing, which we all know is so powerful that you've done, to now the level of clearing even... not only the beliefs, not only the subconscious, but now the cells in the body through this toning that goes in all over the body, and then now even through the home-play, which is now deconstructing and changing the physical world. So literally it's like taking away the density around your physical world through the home-play activity. So this is very, very cool and very deep.

Rikka: Yeah. Absolutely.

Darius: Wow.

Rikka: I love handling all of that because then that way you guys really move into infinite abundance. It wasn't just an experience. It's like you have a whole new world.

It's like we've had people on here who hadn't be able to get a new mortgage for their place that went immediately through. We had people on here that had asthma that disappeared. We had people on here that, you know, landed like a $25,000 client out of the blue. Like, just amazing stuff where you're like: 'Oh my God, this is so amazing. This is perfect.' You know, I had people move into their divine passion of, you know, writing their books and actually like getting their message out there.

So basically what people receive from the class it was very funny, because in the testimonials they were like: 'Oh my God. Like, I found love and I found me and I found God. And, by the way, I'm making another $25,000 since I started.' It was like the money didn't matter at that point because they were so fully in the god energy that they were. So it's like when you move into that it just becomes a reflection where the reality stuff just moves into your new world with who you are and what you're choosing to be.

Darius: Wow. Wow. Incredible. It's at <http://youwealthrevolution.com/rikka2013>.

In one of these - Item Nine - you actually deal with the family patterns around money. So if you've been dealing with sort of like repeating your family's history on money, that piece is here and much, much more. Moving into infinite love so that you can be supported. Letting go of limiting beliefs that you have about just getting by. Have you ever been told you just need to be realistic and settle? Have you shut off your hopes and dreams? And what I love again is we're not only clearing this, but through the toning going in and clearing the cells and clearing the body and having these physiological changes that now you've documented in the body organism and in the physical world through the home-play, it's just astounding, just astounding.

I mean, there's a lot here. Item Ten, Item Eleven – Going Deeper and Deeper into Love. And more and more. But you also have some special things for people. Wow.

Rikka: Yes.

Darius: A two-hour live event for us and everyone that gets this that's going to be happening relatively soon, guys. This is going to help you to really take this to a whole other level.

Rikka: Yeah, and it's going to be... it's a live streamed class but you get to be on the phone with me. So basically I can hear your voice and I can answer your questions and you're looking at me in the eye.

Darius: Wow. Cool.

Rikka: So we get to do a two-hour Activating Your Infinite Abundance as a group. So everyone who buys this package is going to go on that two-hour journey together to really launch into a whole other echelon of energy. And to be able to ask your questions and if there was anything you had questions about or felt like it got stuck or whatever, you know, we can handle all that also.

Darius: Wow.

Rikka: And in addition to that we have a gift certificate for future classes. So if you would like to continue, you get that, which is amazing. And then on top of it, just because we thought this is already so amazing we might as well make it off the charts – a no-brainer – is a month of the IV membership, which is actually a whole other like $5,000 worth of products. It also includes four live streams. So you'll get four live streams for the month – 45-minute live streams - another 90-minute group coaching call, membership call, and $5,000 worth of products.

Darius: Whoa. Wow.

Rikka: Okay! It's more like, however, $7,000, $8,000 worth of stuff for $127 or whatever.

Darius: Oh my gosh.

Rikka: So it's really fun. It's really fun. You guys are going to love this.

Darius: Yeah. I want to say this: one of the things that she's giving you with this is 30 days and not only there's a live event that's going to be happening where you can plug in wherever you are - that's the two-hour special live event where you're going to see her and ask her whatever questions...

You know, the big thing with what I love about this is we don't want people to fall through the cracks, right. We want everyone to get their voice heard. So you're going to get a month of a Very Important Being membership that is absolutely free included in this, and you can interact personally with Rikka, you can ask her questions that are most important to you.

So for the next 30 days as you apply this - or whenever – you will be able to get those questions answered and get that help. So this is just a huge bonus value here and, as we were saying... as Rikka said, it's $147. It's literally a $971 value – I would say much, much more, because you talk about there's actually $5,000 worth of content in there, so there's other additional clearings in the VIB membership as well that they're going to have access to for 30 days?

Rikka: Yeah, and there's a whole program of embracing your inter-dimensional being, which is moving into, you know, being the energy outside of time, and like all these kind of wild, really cool...

Darius: Oh my gosh.

Rikka: There's also like Embodying your True Essence package in there. So, I mean, what they're getting is just... it's ridiculous. So it'll be fun for you guys to play. It'll be like early Christmas.

Darius: Yeah. But they should start with the Infinite Abundance program. I mean, that would be where they would start.

Rikka: Yeah.

Darius: And then once they go through that, then they can go in and they can move to even higher and higher levels or get your help personally as they need it by submitting questions and doing things like that.

Rikka: Yeah, and then join the VIB membership whenever that feels expansive for them yeah, and they'll have a month.

Darius: Wow. Wow. Share with us kind of more about what you saw with some of the studies that were done or, I guess, that special Russian imaging device. Tell me more about kind of what happened with that because that's fascinating. We didn't talk that much about it. What were some of the other effects or what were some of the primary effects? I know you covered them earlier but I'd love to hear more.

Rikka: Yeah, yeah. Well, through the process, you know, we got like a bunch of different people and played the toning and then took GDV readings before they started the toning and then after the toning had started. Basically what this machine does is it measures people's energy levels and it can tell like, you know, in your liver and kidneys or whatever if there's a place where there's a deficiency, which meaning energetically that system's kind of down, right.

So what was happening through the toning is all of the systems that were down were moving into full balance, like full energy, right. Immune systems were increasing so that they could actually fight off the moulds and funguses and that kind of stuff.

So basically anything that was in a deficiency realm went out of deficient and into a full flowing energy. People's like auras around their bodies where they would have a break in their aura because of some emotional trauma...

Darius: Ah.

Rikka: That trauma would actually disappear and the energy and the life would move back into that energy of their body. So it's like it was releasing old patterns, it was increasing the balance of energy through the body permanently, you know, bringing the chakras into alignment. I mean, making the chakras bigger too so that, you know, if people didn't have very much energy in their second chakra not only was it moving into alignment but the chakras were gaining in their energy values, increasing the overall energy in both the physical and emotional body.

So it's just like amazing. Like, literally the scientist who was doing this was like: 'What is happening here?'

Darius: Wow.

Rikka: 'I've never seen this. What is this?'

Darius: Wow. Wow.

Rikka: So yeah, really, really cool.

Darius: Wow. Well, all of that is there for everybody plus much, much more. It's at <http://youwealthrevolution.com/rikka2013>.

Rikka, quick question. For someone who's wondering: Is this for me? Or is this something that I should go deeper, what's your feeling? I mean, who is this for? Who really have you seen as you've done this work... who does this really resonate with?

Rikka: I would say anyone who's ready to have that amazing life. And the thing is too, each of you know what calls you, you really do. Like, there's an energy in your heart or in your being that kind of begins to open and you may have actually noticed it already on this call, that from the beginning of the call upon until now it feels like your heart's more open and your system's more open, your body's more open and you're feeling better. You know, we heard the words of 'bliss', 'orgasmic' or 'happy'.

Darius: Right.

Rikka: So that is an indicating factor that you're going in the correct direction, right, and those are the things that if you say yes to the things that expand your energy field, right, then you're going to get a more expanded energy field.

Darius: Yeah.

Rikka: That's the energy of the universe trying to communicate with you of like wow, okay, I'm getting lighter; it's more joyful; it's more fun. So if you tap on this product and going through this month and the VIB membership for the month... it's just like feel into your vibration after that month.

Darius: Yeah. Yeah. Oh wow. We had Roney...

Rikka: Oh my God, right? It's like...

Darius: Yeah.

Rikka: Woo! We're supposed to explode!

Darius: Yeah. I mean, and it's actually... People are writing in right now of what happened. Roney said: 'I saw a train fall off its tracks and I watched it take off into the cosmos and the stars. It's like that program just went off the tracks. It's gone.'

Lynn said: 'I could hear and feel the shackles fall away. Thanks to both of you.'

Margo: 'I'm breathless. This literally took my breath away. Then this new light breath came in. I feel so empowered. So much light in my body.'

Paula: 'This is fantastic. We just removed all the things that have been holding me back for so long. I am free. It feels like dried up paper flying off of me and allowing me to shine forth.' Yeah, I really feel that visual, Paula, of just like that, you know, dried paper just falling off and light like breaking through all of those little tears and crumbles in the paper and it's like – boom! - no more.

Wow. Wow. I love it. I love it. Wow. Quick question. We did so much on the session. I mean, why would people want to go deeper into this work? What's beyond? I mean, what is this going to do for those people right now that may be feeling really good? Is this really ensuring that we get that full level that we deserve?

Rikka: Yeah. And you might find too that it's like without of all the different pieces there might be things that kind of catch you in the future.

Darius: Sure.

Rikka: Like what happens throughout the deeper work is that we really walk you through so many different step-by-steps. Like, right now, you know, for any of you guys that are carrying any debt it's like have we actually closed all those programs; have we handled all that information, or as I talk about it can you feel it, right? So there's more, right?

Darius: Yeah.

Rikka: And there's more places, you know, where when you have... let's see, two, four, six... like eight hours of the money processing plus the VIB program and stuff it's like you have a whole different capacity and level. And you've really been asked all those different questions and moved yourself in the balance and alignment and all those different places where your shift can be sustainable and is growable - like, it will grow into more and more and more – versus, like: 'Oh, it was a great experience I got with Rikka on the call,' and tomorrow you're like: 'Wow, I kind of feel not abundant again.'

Like, this will allow you to take it home and free you to be it. And for me it's like whenever I look at something and I know that it's a yes, I'm like: Wow, well how much is my life worth? How much am I worth to myself? And I'm like: You know what? Happiness and joy and life and god energy is worth everything to me.

Darius: Yeah.

Rikka: So when it's a yes I always go for it, because that's who I am. So what if you allowed yourself, if it's a yes, to have it just be a yes? Okay, it's a yes, let's do it; let's go for it.

Darius: Yeah.

Rikka: And those things will bring you more miracles and magic and amazing possibilities than you can even imagine. So it's exciting. It's really exciting.

Darius: Yeah. I tell the story of when I decided to do this series years ago and someone was asking me and I was thinking: well, I don't know. And for about four days I said no – you know, no, I'm not going to do it. And I remember sort of like... I felt better at the time. Like, I felt a little bit of like: ah, no more pressure. I feel good. I'm safe. But then there was like this lingering... like, yeah, I'm safe but I really want to go there. I really want to open that door. I really want to see what's there as I do it.

And so I sat with it and then it was like: oh, wait a minute. You know, I'm not sure I want to miss this. This really does feel exciting. This really could be something cool.

And so yeah, there's always that dance. Like, even in the big decisions. Like, oh yeah, I could just stay safe and I don't want to even go through it. But then when I opened the door it's like wow. And now I couldn't even imagine, you know, what my life would have been like if I hadn't have taken that step. So it literally like at all levels we have that. So the key is just knowing, does this feel lighter? And the funny thing was even with like the idea to do this event was it did feel lighter, but there was like this just fear or this old programming stopping me.

So my heart was like: 'It's light. It's light. Do it,' and then my mind was like: Yeah, but. Yeah, but.' And so it really is just as you said. It's like those things that are lighter bring you so much more. And the reason I bring that story up is looking back now it's like oh my God, it's infinite, all that just that one simple decision has brought. So I hope the decision of being on this call was like that for you and will be like that every time you listen or relisten and share it with friends and let people know what's going on and share with friends what Rikka's doing in the newest work and the science that's happening and some of the things she shared.

It's at <http://youwealthrevolution.com/rikka2013> – and it really is, Rikka, as I've really like gone through this journey over and over again through so many years now, it's really like tapping into a different energy field, isn't it? It really is a different energy field where all things really are possible. It's living in a different frequency where magic and miracles happen.

Guys, this does exist. It's just if you're not seeing it, you're at a different frequency. You're replaying those energies that just lower dimensional level, and it's time to go a little bit higher and invoke what you really are and you'll start to see some stuff that'll knock your socks off.

Rikka: Yes. And each of you deserves it. You're brilliant. You're a gift that... it's like no amount of riches, money, wealth, success or whatever could ever repay you for the job that you've been doing here energetically.

Darius: Yeah.

Rikka: It's like you actually truly deserve it. You care tremendously. You love fully. You guys are the .000001 percenter, right? So honor that. Honor that you get to receive, you get to know that you are worthy, because you are the energy that's changing everything for everyone who's not courageous enough to choose it.

Darius: Yeah.

Rikka: So thank you.

Darius: Yeah. Yeah. Thank you. Thank you, Rikka. Ah, this is incredible. It's at <http://youwealthrevolution.com/rikka2013> – the latest and the greatest work. And, Rikka, I know we've got to run. Really quick, I've just got to do this for people that are new or maybe have not heard Rikka before. Most of you have, but if they aren't or they don't... they don't remember that there was a time, Rikka, when even just to do something like this would have sent you in terror. Tell us... Just take us back. There was a Rikka a long time ago that didn't have all these tools.

Rikka: Oh my God, yes there was!

Darius: And if it's possible for her...

Rikka: Absolutely. Oh my goodness, yes, yes, yes, yeah. So I was scared to show up anywhere. I was scared to show up on stages. Even doing some of the first telesummits, if you listen to it it's like I was like: 'What am I going to say? Okay, take a deep breath. Okay, I'm jumping off the cliff, right?'

Darius: Yeah.

Rikka: So for each of you that feel like when you go to expand your life it's scary, it's like it's okay. That's just more of you showing up. If you're willing to just jump off the cliff and actually choose it, you'll find that the entire energy of the universe will catch you.

So it's like I started off... yeah... You know, it's like I've been $50,000 in debt and now I'm making over a $1 million a year. I mean, everything that you know is possible for you is. It just requires that you get onboard, you move into your truth, you really show up. And you're going to see magic and miracles that you can't even imagine, you don't even believe that are even possible right now. And you're that amazing. You're that important. You're that awesome. You are.

Darius: Thank you, Rikka.

Rikka: And I love you.

Darius: Ah, thank you. Yeah, I just wanted to share that because, you know, a lot of people may not remember these stories. I don't want people to ever forget that you have lived this and this has changed your life. And so just know that where you are now Rikka or myself we've been, and it is your promise. It is that promise inside of you. That's what brings you here, that you can change your life in any way that you really want. That is the power you have within.

Much love, everyone. Thank you so much, Rikka, for being here. I'll let you just close off with any final words or anything else you want to share, but thank you so much everyone – everyone – for being here.

Rikka: Awesome. Thank you all very much. Thank you for everything that you are. You are literally a gift that no amount of money could ever repay you for the gift that you've been. Thank you for your sacrifice. Thank you for your service. Thank you for being so amazing. Thank you for your willingness to love all that deep beautiful love that you are, your willingness to adventure and surf possibilities and to unlock this whole planet from where it's been fixed in limitation. You are that catalyst. You are that change agent. And you are honored by everything if you will allow yourself to take that position and receive it.

You are so loved. You are not forgotten. You are so loved and you are so honored. It's like guidance is like: 'Tell them they're loved. Tell them they're honored. Tell them we love them. Let them receive it. They're amazing!'

So just for one last moment would you guys allow yourself to take a deep breath and receive all that energy from guidance, from the angels, from all of the unseen that just wants to support you and love you and show you how amazing you are and how grateful they are for you? Beautiful. Thank you guys so much. I love you all.

Darius: Thank you, everyone. Much love. We'll see you on the next You Wealth Revolution session.
